13 qualification criteria for such persons. ~~No~~ A license may not be issued to a person unless the 14 person has met the following conditions:

- 15 1. ~~He or she~~ The applicant is at least eighteen years of age, of good moral character, 16 and of sound physical and mental health.
- 17 2. If the applicant for license is deemed not to be qualified by the board after the initial 18 evaluation and testing, then the board may prescribe a course of instruction and 19 training, which course must be so designed as to content and so administered as 20 to present sufficient knowledge of the needs properly to be served by nursing 21 homes, laws governing the operation of nursing homes and the protection of the 22 interests of patients therein, and the elements of good nursing home
23 administration, or have presented evidence satisfactory to the board of sufficient

3 3. ~~He or she~~ The applicant has passed an examination administered by the board 4 and designed to test for competence in the subject matter referred to in 8 the board not to exceed four hundred dollars.

9 All persons applying for a license must meet the conditions and requirements as may be 10 prescribed by the board. ~~However, a person meeting the standards of good moral character,~~

22 ~~the board,~~ unless the board finds, after due notice and hearing, that the applicant has acted or 23 failed to act in ~~such a~~ manner or under ~~such~~ circumstances as would constitute grounds for 24 suspension or revocation of a license. A person may not hold oneself out as a nursing home 25 administrator if a license is not renewed. A license may be renewed within six months from the 26 date of expiration if the person makes application to the board, pays the renewal fee, and a late

2 the board finds that the standards for licensure at the time the license was issued in ~~such~~ the 3 other jurisdiction were at least the substantial equivalent of those prevailing in this state at the 4 time of application and that the applicant is otherwise qualified.

5 SECTION 4. A new section to chapter 43-34 of the North Dakota Century Code is 6 created and enacted as follows:
