- "1. A telecommunications company shall comply with the provision of title 47, Code of Federal Regulations, part 64, subpart k, regarding changes in a subscriber's selection of a provider of telecommunications service. The commission shall enforce the provisions of title 47, Code of Federal Regulations, part 64, subpart k.

2. A telecommunications company may not initiate an intrastate telecommunications service to a subscriber without authorization. A subscriber for whom an intrastate telecommunications service is initiated without authorization is absolved from liability for charges imposed by the service provider if the subscriber notifies the service provider within thirty days after the first billing for the unauthorized service. Upon being informed by the subscriber that an unauthorized initiation of service has occurred, the telecommunications company providing the service shall cancel the service, inform the subscriber of the thirty-day absolution period, and refund any payments made by the subscriber for the service during the absolution period. The telecommunications company may rebill for the service provided before cancellation if the company determines the service initiation was authorized. The remedies provided in this section are in addition to any other remedies available at law."
