"SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 15-40.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Nonoperating school districts - Education of students - State payments.

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a school district operating on the effective date of this Act may become a nonoperating district, provided:
 - a. The board of the district terminates the operation of all public schools in the district;
 - b. The board provides for the education in other school districts of all kindergarten, elementary, and secondary school students residing in the district; and
 - c. The board pays to other school districts educating its students the full per student cost of education in the receiving district.
2. The board of a nonoperating school district shall continue to employ, on a full-time or a part-time basis, one person qualified to manage the finances of the district.
3. The board of a nonoperating school district is governed by all laws applicable to the board of an operating school district.
4. A nonoperating district under this section is entitled to receive all per student payments, supplemental payments, tuition apportionment payments, transportation aid payments, special education payments, vocational education payments, and any other state payments to school districts, for each resident student, in the same manner that the payments would be made had the district remained operational.
5. Total state payments made annually to a nonoperating district under this section may not be less than the total state payments received by the district during its final year of operation.
6. A school district may be nonoperational for no more than five school years.

SECTION 8. A new section to chapter 15.1-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

School district superintendent - Joint employment - Accreditation. The superintendent of public instruction may not impose through the accreditation process any penalties or sanctions on a school district for employing a superintendent jointly with one or more other districts. The superintendent may not require, through the accreditation process, that an employee of a school district having fewer than one hundred students in high school spend more than thirty-three percent of the employee's time performing the duties of a school principal."
