

Fifty-sixth Legislative Assembly, State of North Dakota, begun in the Capitol in the City of Bismarck, on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3072
(Representative L. Thoreson)

A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to study the state of the law in this state and other states dealing with the administration of discipline in public schools.

WHEREAS, the administration of discipline in public schools is necessary to create a favorable learning environment for students; and

WHEREAS, there has been an increase in public schools of unacceptable and disruptive behavior which is related to a lack of discipline and lack of respect of authority by students; and

WHEREAS, this unacceptable and disruptive behavior leads to a disruption of the educational environment and leads to an inordinate expenditure of human and monetary resources to deal with this behavior;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN:

That the Legislative Council study the state of the law in this state and other states dealing with the administration of discipline in public schools; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Council report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the Fifty-seventh Legislative Assembly.
