with House Amendments

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2226

Introduced by

Senators Watne, Mutch

Representative N. Johnson

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact sections 34-01-20 and 34-11.1-04 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to prohibited employer retaliation for employee reporting of violations of 3 laws, ordinances, or regulations.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 34-01-20 of the 1999 Supplement to the North 6 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

7 34-01-20. Employer retaliation prohibited - Civil action for relief - Penalty.

8 1. An employer may not discharge, discipline, threaten discrimination, or penalize an 9 employee regarding the employee's compensation, conditions, location, or 10 privileges of employment because:

11 a. The employee, or a person acting on behalf of an employee, in good faith, 12 reports a violation or suspected violation of federal ~~or~~₁ state, or local law,
13 ordinance, regulation, or rule to an employer ~~or to~~₁ a governmental body₁ or a 14 law enforcement official.

15 b. The employee is requested by a public body or official to participate in an 16 investigation, a hearing, or an inquiry.

17 c. The employee refuses an employer's order to perform an action that the 18 employee believes violates local, state, or federal law or, ordinance, rule, or 19 regulation. The employee must have an objective basis in fact for that belief 20 and shall inform the employer that the order is being refused for that reason.

21 2. An employer who willfully violates this section is guilty of an infraction.

22 3. An employee asserting a violation of this section may bring a civil action for 23 injunctive relief or actual damages, or both, within ~~ninety~~ one hundred eighty days 24 after the alleged violation, completion of proceedings under subsection 4, or

1 completion of any grievance procedure available to the employee under the 2 employee's collective bargaining agreement, employment contract, or any public
3 employee statute, rule, or policy, whichever is later. If the court determines that a 4 violation has or is occurring under this section, the court may order, as the court 5 deems appropriate, reinstatement of the employee, backpay for no more than two 6 years after the violation, reinstatement of fringe benefits, temporary or permanent 7 injunctive relief, or any combination of these remedies. Interim earnings or 8 amounts earnable with reasonable diligence by the employee, from the same 9 employer, must reduce backpay otherwise allowable. In any action under this 10 section, the court may award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party as 11 part of the costs of litigation. An employee whose collective bargaining agreement, 12 employment contract, or public employee rights provides a process through which 13 recourse for conduct prohibited by subsection 1 is available must exercise that 14 process to completion before commencing an action under this subsection, and if 15 that process provides for judicial review by statutory appeal, then recourse under 16 this subsection is not available.

17 4. The department of labor ~~may~~ shall receive complaints of violations of this section 18 and may attempt to obtain voluntary compliance with this section through informal 19 advice, negotiation, or conciliation. In order to receive assistance from the 20 department of labor, a person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this 21 section ~~must~~ shall file a complaint with the department within three hundred days 22 after the alleged act of wrongdoing. An employee is not prohibited from filing, or 23 required to file, a complaint with the department of labor under this subsection 24 before proceeding under other provisions of this section.

25 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 34-11.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is 26 amended and reenacted as follows:

27 34-11.1-04. Violations for misuse reported by employee - Reprisals prohibited -
28 Furnishing false information.

29 1. An employee may, without fear of reprisal, report in writing to their respective 30 agency head, a state's attorney, the attorney general, or an employee organization 31 the existence of:

- 1 a. A job related violation of local, state, or federal law, rule, regulation, or 2 ordinance.
- 3 b. ~~A job related violation of state or federal agency rules.~~
- 4 e. The job related misuse of public resources.
- 5 2. For having made a report under subsection 1 no employee will:
6 a. Be dismissed from employment.
- 7 b. Have salary increases or employment-related benefits withheld.
- 8 c. Be transferred or reassigned.
- 9 d. Be denied a promotion ~~which~~ that the employee otherwise would have 10 received.
- 11 e. Be demoted.
- 12 f. Be discriminated against in any term or condition of employment.
- 13 3. An employee who intentionally furnishes false information is subject to disciplinary 14 action, including suspension or dismissal as determined by the employee's 15 appointing authority or designee. An employee dismissed under this subsection 16 may appeal first to the state personnel board and then to the district court in the 17 manner prescribed by chapter 28-32, or to other appropriate offices and then to 18 district court if the employee is not under the jurisdiction of the state personnel 19 board.
