SECTION 12. A new section to chapter 54-59 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Information technology planning - Exemptions - Appeals. Except as otherwise provided in section 54-59-22, the department shall review any exemption granted under section 54-59-22 when the exempted agency or institution determines to replace an application or data base. Based upon the information provided by the agency or institution, the chief information officer shall determine whether to allow the continuation of the exemption. In making the determination whether to continue an exemption, the chief information officer shall consider the information provided in the technology plan of the agency or institution, the business case of the agency or institution for the exemption, and the need to create overall government efficiencies, cost-savings, and improvement of services. If the agency or institution disagrees with the decision of the chief information officer, the agency or institution may appeal the decision to the state information technology advisory committee. An agency or institution may appeal a decision of the state information technology advisory committee to the director of the office of management and budget, who may make a final decision regarding the continuation of an exemption."
