1           SECTION 3. Chapter 51-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted
2 as follows:

3           51-29-01. Definition. As used in this chapter, "gift certificate" means a record
4 evidencing a promise, made for monetary consideration, by the seller or issuer of the record 5 that goods or services will be provided to the owner of the record to the value shown in the 6 record. The term includes a record that contains a microprocessor chip, magnetic strip, or other 7 means of storage of information that is prefunded and for which the value is decreased upon 8 each use; a gift card; an electronic gift card; an online gift account; a stored-value card; a store 9 card; a prepaid telephone card; or a similar record or card.

10          51-29-02. Records - Expiration dates - Service fees - Exemptions.

11          1. A person that sells a gift certificate for any product or merchandise sold by the 12 person must record the sale and keep an accurate record of each gift certificate
13 sold, including the state in which the sale of the gift certificate took place. A person 14 may not charge additional monthly or annual service or maintenance fees on a gift 15 certificate, limit the time for redemption of a gift certificate, place an expiration date 16 upon a gift certificate, or include on a gift certificate any statement suggesting that 17 an expiration date may apply to the gift certificate.

18          2. This section does not apply to:

19          a. A general-use prepaid card issued by a third-party prepaid card issuer 20 including a plastic card or other electronic payment device that is:

21               (1) Usable at any multiple unaffiliated merchant or service provider or at an 22 automatic teller machine;

23               (2) Issued in a requested amount that may be, at the option of the issuer,
24 increased to value or reloaded if requested by the holder;

25               (3) Purchased or loaded on a prepaid basis by a consumer and does not 26 include a debit card linked to a deposit account, or a card purchased by 27 a business entity; and

28               (4) Honored upon presentation by a merchant for goods or services or 29 honored at an automatic teller machine.

30          b. A gift certificate distributed to a consumer pursuant to an awards, loyalty, or 31 promotional program without any money or other thing of value being given in

1                   exchange for the gift certificate by the consumer. Any restriction or limitation 2                   on such gift certificate must be disclosed to the consumer, in writing, at the 3                   time the gift certificate is distributed to the consumer.

4                   51-29-03. Disposition of unredeemed gift certificates. Upon expiration of three 5 years after the date the gift certificate becomes payable or distributable, any unredeemed
6 portion of the gift certificate remaining reverts to the administrator of the state abandoned 7 property office for custody as abandoned property under chapter 47-30.1.

8                   51-29-04. Enforcement - Powers - Remedies - Penalties. The attorney general shall 9 enforce this chapter, excluding section 59-29-03, which must be enforced by the administrator
10 of the state abandoned property office. In enforcing this chapter, the attorney general has all 11 the powers provided in this chapter or chapter 51-15 and may seek all remedies in this chapter 12 or chapter 51-15. A violation of this chapter constitutes a violation of chapter 51-15. The 13 remedies, duties, prohibitions, and penalties of this chapter are not exclusive and are in addition 14 to all other causes of action, remedies, and penalties as provided in chapters 47-30.1 and 15 51-15 and as otherwise provided by law.
