

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3040

Introduced by

Representatives Keiser, Carlson, Iverson, Koppelman, Ruby

1 A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to study the unemployment insurance
2 tax rate structure; the structure's impact on the unemployment insurance trust fund, with special 3 focus on the impact of the current unemployment insurance tax structure on new businesses; 4 the historical cyclical risks faced by the industries in which new businesses are beginning to 5 operate; and whether the unemployment insurance tax impact is reasonably favorable to the 6 desired economic development of the state.

7 WHEREAS, the unemployment insurance tax structure can and does impact the overall 8 economic development of the state of North Dakota; and

9 WHEREAS, the current unemployment insurance rate structure was defined statutorily 10 by the Fifty-sixth Legislative Assembly, and has seen minor changes in the succeeding 11 legislative sessions; and

12 WHEREAS, the Fifty-ninth Legislative Assembly considered, but did not enact, House
13 Bill No. 1425 which would have created a new business rate for certain classes of employers; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, consideration of appropriate unemployment insurance tax rates for new 16 businesses must take into account the historical data indicating the cyclical economic risks the 17 relevant industries have faced; and

18 WHEREAS, the question of the impact of unemployment insurance tax rates on new 19 businesses needs more comprehensive study before rates are substantially changed;

20 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
21 OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN:

22 That the Legislative Council study the unemployment insurance tax rate structure; the 23 structure's impact on the unemployment insurance trust fund, with special focus on the impact 24 of the current unemployment insurance tax structure on new businesses; the historical cyclical 25 risks faced by the industries in which new businesses are beginning to operate; and whether

Fifty-ninth
Legislative Assembly

- 1 the unemployment insurance tax impact is reasonably favorable to the desired economic
- 2 development of the state; and
- 3 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Council report its findings and
- 4 recommendations, along with any legislation necessary to implement its recommendations, to
- 5 the Sixtieth Legislative Assembly.
