12           pursuant to section 45-10.2-23 unless the name has been adopted for use or 13           reserved by another person, in which case the filing will be rejected unless the 14           filing is accompanied by a written consent or judgment pursuant to subsection 2. A 15           limited partnership that cannot reacquire the use of its limited partnership name 16           shall adopt a new limited partnership name that complies with this section:
17           a. By refiling a certificate of limited partnership as provided in section 18            45-10.2-23;
19           b. By amending its certificate of limited partnership as provided in section 20            45-10.2-24; or
21           c. By reinstating the limited partnership pursuant to section 45-10.2-108, unless 22            the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another person, in which 23            case the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written 24            consent or judgment as provided in subsection 2. A limited partnership that 25            cannot reacquire the use of its limited partnership name shall adopt a new 26            limited partnership name which complies with the provisions of this section.
27        9. Subject to section 45-10.2-78, this section applies to any foreign limited partnership
28           transacting business in this state, having a certificate of authority to transact 29           business in this state, or applying for a certificate of authority.

30        45-10.2-11. Reserved name.

- 1           1. The exclusive right to the use of a limited partnership name otherwise permitted by 2           section 45-10.2-10 may be reserved by any person.
- 3           2. The reservation must be made by filing with the secretary of state a request that 4           the name be reserved:
- 5           a. If the name is available for use by the applicant, the secretary of state shall 6           reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of twelve 7           months.
- 8           b. The reservation may be renewed for successive twelve-month periods.
- 9           3. The right to the exclusive use of a limited partnership name reserved pursuant to 10          this section may be transferred to another person by or on behalf of the applicant
11          for whom the name was reserved by filing in the office of the secretary of state a 12          notice of transfer, and specifying the name and address of the transferee.
- 13          4. The right to the exclusive use of a limited partnership name reserved pursuant to 14          this section may be canceled by or on behalf of the applicant for whom the name 15          was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of cancellation.
- 16          5. The secretary of state may destroy all reserved name requests and index thereof 17          one year after expiration.
- 18          45-10.2-12. (110) Effect of partnership agreement and nonwaivable provisions.
- 19          1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the partnership agreement governs 20          relations among the partners and between the partners and the partnership. To 21          the extent the partnership agreement does not otherwise provide, this chapter 22          governs relations among the partners and between the partners and the 23          partnership.
- 24          2. A partnership agreement may not:
- 25          a. Vary the power of a limited partnership under section 45-10.2-08 to sue, be 26          sued, and defend in its own name;
- 27          b. Vary the law applicable to a limited partnership under section 45-10.2-09;
- 28          c. Vary the requirements of section 45-10.2-25;
- 29          d. Vary the information required under section 45-10.2-13 or unreasonably 30          restrict the right to information under section 45-10.2-34 or 45-10.2-43, but the 31          partnership agreement may impose reasonable restrictions on the availability

- 1                   and use of information obtained under those sections and may define 2                   appropriate remedies, including liquidated damages, for a breach of any 3                   reasonable restrictions on use;
- 4           e. Eliminate the duty of loyalty under section 45-10.2-44, but the partnership 5                   agreement may:
- 6                   (1) Identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the 7                   duty of loyalty, if not manifestly unreasonable; and
- 8                   (2) Specify the number or percentage of partners which may authorize or 9                   ratify, after full disclosure to all partners of all material facts, a specific 10                   act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty;
- 11           f. Unreasonably reduce the duty of care under subsection 3 of section 12                   45-10.2-44;
- 13           g. Eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under subsection 2 of 14                   section 45-10.2-35 and subsection 4 of section 45-10.2-44, but the 15                   partnership agreement may prescribe the standards by which the 16                   performance of the obligation is to be measured, if the standards are not 17                   manifestly unreasonable;
- 18           h. Vary the power of a person to dissociate as a general partner under 19                   subsection 1 of section 45-10.2-58 except to require that the notice under 20                   subsection 1 of section 45-10.2-57 be in a record;
- 21           i. Vary the power of a court to decree dissolution in the circumstances specified 22                   in section 45-10.2-67;
- 23           j. Vary the requirement to wind up the business of a partnership as specified in 24                   section 45-10.2-68;
- 25           k. Unreasonably restrict the right to maintain an action under sections 26                   45-10.2-89 through 45-10.2-93;
- 27           l. Restrict the right of a partner under subsection 1 of section 45-10.2-104 to 28                   approve a conversion or merger;
- 29           m. Restrict the right of a general partner under subsection 2 of section 30                   45-10.2-104 to consent to an amendment to the certificate of limited

1                   partnership which converts the limited partnership to a limited liability limited
2                   partnership; or

3                   n. Restrict rights under this chapter of a person other than a partner or a
4                   transferee.

5                   45-10.2-13. (111) Required information. A limited partnership shall maintain at its 6 principal executive office the following information:

- 7                   1. A current list showing the full name and last-known street and mailing address of 8                   each partner, separately identifying the general partners, in alphabetical order, and 9                   the limited partners, in alphabetical order;
- 10                  2. A copy of the initial certificate of limited partnership and all amendments to and 11                  restatements of the certificate, together with signed copies of any powers of 12                  attorney under which any certificate, amendment, or restatement has been signed;
- 13                  3. A copy of any filed articles of conversion or merger;
- 14                  4. a copy of the federal, state, and local income tax returns and reports of a limited 15                  partnership, if any, for the three most recent years;
- 16                  5. A copy of any partnership agreement made in a record and any amendment made 17                  in a record to any partnership agreement;
- 18                  6. A copy of any financial statement of the limited partnership for the three most 19                  recent years;
- 20                  7. A copy of the three most recent annual reports delivered by the limited partnership 21                  to the secretary of state pursuant to section 45-10.2-108;
- 22                  8. A copy of any record made by the limited partnership during the past three years of 23                  any consent given by or vote taken of any partner pursuant to this chapter or the 24                  partnership agreement; and
- 25                  9. Unless contained in a partnership agreement made in a record, a record stating:
  - 26                   a. The amount of cash, and a description and statement of the agreed value of 27                   the other benefits, contributed and agreed to be contributed by each partner;
  - 28                   b. The times at which, or events on the happening of which, any additional 29                   contributions agreed to be made by each partner are to be made;

- 1           c. For any person that is both a general partner and a limited partner, a 2                   specification of what transferable interest the person owns in each capacity;
3                   and
4           d. Any events upon the happening of which the limited partnership is to be 5                   dissolved and its activities wound up.

6           45-10.2-14. (112) Business transactions of partner with partnership. A partner
7 may lend money to and transact other business with the limited partnership and has the same
8 rights and obligations with respect to the loan or other transaction as a person that is not a
9 partner.

10          45-10.2-15. (113) Dual capacity. A person may be both a general partner and a 11 limited partner.

- 12          1. A person that is both a general and limited partner has the rights, powers, duties, 13               and obligations provided by this chapter and the partnership agreement in each of 14               those capacities.
15          2. When the person acts as a general partner, the person is subject to the obligations, 16               duties, and restrictions under this chapter and the partnership agreement for 17               general partners.
18          3. When the person acts as a limited partner, the person is subject to the obligations,
19               duties, and restrictions under this chapter and the partnership agreement for 20               limited partners.

21          45-10.2-16. Registration of general partner. A general partner must be registered 22 separately with the secretary of state at the time of filing a certificate of limited partnership or 23 the application for certificate of authority of a foreign limited partnership whenever that general 24 partner is either a domestic or foreign:

- 25          1. Corporation;
26          2. Limited liability company;
27          3. Limited partnership;
28          4. Limited liability partnership;
29          5. Limited liability limited partnership;
30          6. General partnership; or

1           7. Any other organization that has a registration responsibility with the secretary of 2           state.

3           45-10.2-17. Registered office and registered agent.

4           1. A limited partnership shall continuously maintain a registered office in this state. A 5           registered office need not be the same as the principal place of business or the 6           principal executive office of the limited partnership.

7           2. The limited partnership shall appoint and continuously maintain a registered agent 8           who may be:

9           a. An individual residing in this state;

10          b. A domestic corporation;

11          c. A domestic limited liability company; or

12          d. A foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company authorized to transact 13          business in this state.

14          3. The registered agent shall maintain a business office identical to its registered 15          office.

16          4. Proof of the consent of the registered agent to serve in the capacity of registered 17          agent must be filed with the secretary of state.

18          45-10.2-18. Change of registered office or agent - Resignation of registered agent

19          - Change of name or address of registered agent.

20          1. A limited partnership may change the registered office of the limited partnership, 21          change the registered agent of the limited partnership, or state a change in the 22          name of the registered agent of the limited partnership, by filing with the secretary 23          of state a statement containing:

24          a. The name of the limited partnership;

25          b. The new address of the registered office of the limited partnership, if the 26          address of the registered office of the limited partnership is to be changed;

27          c. The name of the new registered agent of the limited partnership, if the 28          registered agent of the limited partnership is to be designated or changed;

29          d. The name of the registered agent of the limited partnership as changed, if the 30          name of the registered agent of the limited partnership is to be changed;

- 1           e. A statement that the address of the registered office of the limited partnership
2                     and the address of the business office of the registered agent of the limited 3                     partnership, as changed, will be identical; and
- 4           f. A statement that the change of registered office or registered agent was 5                     authorized by resolution approved by the general partners.
- 6           2. A registered agent of a limited partnership may resign by filing with the secretary of 7                     state a signed written notice of resignation, including a statement that a signed
8                     copy of the notice was given to the limited partnership at the principal executive 9                     office of the limited partnership, or to a legal representative of the limited
10                    partnership. The appointment of the agent terminates thirty days after the notice is 11                    filed with the secretary of state.
- 12           3. If the business address or name of a registered agent changes, the agent shall 13                     change the address of the registered office or the name of the registered agent, as 14                     the case may be, of each limited partnership represented by that agent by filing 15                     with the secretary of state a statement for each limited partnership as required in 16                     subsection 1, except that the statement need be signed only by the registered 17                     agent, need not be responsive to subdivision f of subsection 1, and must state that 18                     a copy of the statement was mailed to each of those limited partnerships or to the 19                     legal representative of each of those limited partnerships.
- 20           4. The fee provided in section 45-10.2-109 for change of registered office must be 21                     refunded if in the opinion of the secretary of state a change of address of 22                     registered office results from rezoning or postal reassignment.
- 23           45-10.2-19. Action without a meeting. An action required or permitted to be taken or 24                     permitted to be taken at a meeting of the partners may be taken without a meeting by written 25                     action signed, or consented to by authenticated electronic communication, by all of the partners 26                     entitled to vote on that action.
- 27           1. If the certificate of limited partnership or the partnership agreement so provide, any 28                     action may be taken by written action signed, or consented to by authenticated 29                     electronic communication, by the partners entitled to vote on the action who own 30                     voting power equal to the voting power that would be required to take the same 31                     action at a meeting of the partners at which all partners entitled to vote on the

1 action were present. After the adoption of the initial certificate of limited 2 partnership or the initial partnership agreement, an amendment to the certificate of 3 limited partnership or to the partnership agreement to permit written action to be 4 taken by less than all partners entitled to vote on an action requires the approval of 5 all partners entitled to vote on the amendment.

6 a. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all partners entitled 7 to vote on the action, all partners entitled to vote on the action must be 8 notified immediately of its text and effective date.

9 b. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action.

10 c. A partner who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for 11 the action or actions taken by the written actions.

12 2. The written action is effective when it has been signed, or consented to by 13 authenticated electronic communication, by the partners entitled to vote on the 14 action, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.

15 3. When this chapter requires or permits a certificate concerning an action to be filed 16 with the secretary of state, the general partner signing the certificate must so 17 indicate if the action was taken under this section.

18 45-10.2-20. Remote communications for partner meetings.

19 1. This section shall be construed and applied to:

20 a. Facilitate remote communication consistent with other applicable law; and 21 b. Be consistent with reasonable practices concerning remote communication 22 and with the continued expansion of those practices.

23 2. To the extent authorized in the certificate of limited partnership or the partnership 24 agreement and determined by the general partners:

25 a. A meeting of the partners may be held solely by any combination of means of 26 remote communication through which the participants may participate in the 27 meeting:

28 (1) If notice of the meeting is given to every holder of interests entitled to 29 vote as would be required by the certificate of limited partnership or the 30 partnership agreement for a meeting; and

- 1                   (2) If the number of partnership interests held by the partners participating 2                   in the meeting would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting.
- 3                   b. A partner not physically present in person or by proxy at a meeting of partners
4                   may by means of remote communication participate in a meeting of partners 5                   held at a designated place.
- 6                   3. In any meeting of partners held solely by means of remote communication under 7                   subdivision a of subsection 2 or in any meeting of partners held at a designated 8                   place in which one or more partners participate by means of remote 9                   communication under subdivision b of subsection 2:
- 10                  a. The limited partnership shall implement reasonable measures to:
- 11                   (1) Verify that each person deemed present and entitled to vote at the 12                   meeting by means of remote communication is a partner; and
- 13                   (2) Provide each partner participating by means of remote communication 14                   with a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, including an 15                   opportunity to:
- 16                   (a) Read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially 17                   concurrently with those proceedings;
- 18                   (b) If allowed by the procedures governing the meeting, have the 19                   remarks of a partner heard or read by other participants in the 20                   meeting substantially concurrently with the making of those 21                   remarks; and
- 22                   (c) If otherwise entitled, vote on matters submitted to the partners.
- 23                  b. Participation in a meeting by this means constitutes presence at the meeting 24                   in person or by proxy if all of the requirements of section 45-10.2-21 are met.
- 25                  4. Any ballot, vote, authorization, or consent submitted by electronic communication 26                   under this chapter may be revoked by the partner submitting the ballot, vote,
27                   authorization, or consent so long as the revocation is received by a general partner
28                   of the limited partnership at or before the meeting or before an action without a 29                   meeting is effective as provided in section 45-10.2-19.
- 30                  5. A partner may waive notice of a meeting by means of authenticated electronic 31                   communication. Participation in a meeting by means of remote communication

- 1           described in subdivisions a and b of subsection 2 is a waiver of notice of that 2           meeting, except when the partner objects:
- 3           a. At the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the 4           meeting is not lawfully called or convened; or
- 5           b. Before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be 6           considered at the meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the 7           item at that meeting.

8           45-10.2-21. Consent and proxies of partners.

- 9           1. At or before the meeting for which the appointment is to be effective, a partner may 10           cast or authorize the casting of a vote:
- 11           a. By filing with a partner or agent authorized to tabulate votes a written 12           appointment of a proxy which is signed by the partner.
- 13           b. By telephonic transmission or authenticated electronic communication to a 14           partner or agent authorized to tabulate votes, whether or not accompanied by 15           written instructions of the partner, of an appointment of a proxy.
- 16           (1) The telephonic transmission or authenticated electronic communication 17           must set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be 18           determined that the appointment is authorized by the partner. If it is 19           reasonably concluded that the telephonic transmission or authenticated 20           electronic communication is valid, then the inspectors of election or, if 21           there are no inspectors, then the other persons making that 22           determination of validity shall specify the information upon which they 23           relied to make that determination.
- 24           (2) A proxy so appointed may vote on behalf of the partner, or otherwise 25           participate, in a meeting by remote communication according to section 26           45-10.2-20 to the extent the partner appointing the proxy would have 27           been entitled to participate by remote communication according to 28           section 45-10.2-20 if the partner did not appoint the proxy.
- 29           c. A copy, facsimile telecommunication, or other reproduction of the original 30           writing or transmission may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing 31           or transmission for any purpose for which the original writing or transmission

- 1                   could be used if the copy, facsimile telecommunication, or other reproduction
2                   is a complete and legible reproduction of the entire original writing or 3                   transmission.
- 4                   d. An appointment of a proxy for partnership interests held jointly by two or more 5                   partners is valid if signed or consented to by authenticated electronic 6                   communication by any one of the partners, unless the limited partnership 7                   receives from any of those partners written notice or authenticated electronic 8                   communication either denying the authority of that person to appoint a proxy 9                   or appointing a different proxy.
- 10                  2. The appointment of a proxy is valid for eleven months, unless a longer period is 11                  expressly provided in the appointment. No appointment is irrevocable unless the 12                  appointment is coupled with an interest, including a security interest, in the 13                  partnership interests or in the limited partnership. A partner who revokes a proxy is 14                  not liable in any way for damages, restitution, or other claim.
- 15                  3. An appointment may be revoked at will, unless the appointment is coupled with an 16                  interest, in which case it may not be revoked except in accordance with the terms
17                  of an agreement, if any, between the parties to the appointment. Appointment of a 18                  proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy by:
- 19                  a. Attending a meeting and voting in person; or 20                  b. Signing and delivering to the partner or agent authorized to tabulate proxy 21                  votes either:
- 22                         (1) A writing stating the appointment of the proxy is revoked; or 23                         (2) A later appointment.
- 24                  4. Revocation in either manner provided in subsection 3 revokes all earlier proxy 25                  appointments and is effective when filed with a general partner or agent of the 26                  limited partnership.
- 27                  5. The death or incapacity of a person appointing a proxy does not affect the right of 28                  the limited partnership to accept the authority of the proxy, unless written notice of 29                  the death or incapacity is received by a partner or agent authorized to tabulate 30                  votes before the proxy exercises authority under that appointment.

- 1           6. Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are 2           appointed as proxies for a partner:
- 3           a. Then any one of them may vote the partnership interests on each item of 4           business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the 5           appointment; or
- 6           b. If no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to 7           voting the partnership interests on a particular item of business, then the 8           partnership interests must be voted as a majority of the proxies determine. If 9           the proxies are equally divided, then the partnership interests may not be 10           voted.
- 11          7. Subject to section 45-10.2-22 and an express restriction, limitation, or specific 12          reservation of authority of the proxy appearing on the appointment, the limited 13          partnership may accept a vote or action by the proxy as the action of the partner.
14          The vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge. However, the 15          proxy is liable to the partner or beneficial owner for damages resulting from a 16          failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the 17          authority granted in the appointment.
- 18          8. If a proxy is given authority by a partner to vote on less than all items of business 19          considered at a meeting of partners, then the partner is considered to be present 20          and entitled to vote by the proxy, only with respect to those items of business for 21          which the proxy has authority to vote. A proxy who is given authority by a partner 22          who abstains with respect to an item of business is considered to have authority to 23          vote on the item of business for purposes of this subsection.
- 24          45-10.2-22. Acceptance of partner act by the limited partnership.
- 25          1. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds 26          to the record name of a partner, then the limited partnership if acting in good faith 27          may accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as 28          the act of the partner.
- 29          2. Unless the certificate of limited partnership or partnership agreement provides 30          otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment 31          does not correspond to the record name of a partner, then the limited partnership if

- 1           acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment 2           and give it effect as the act of the partner if:
- 3           a.   The partner is an organization and the name signed purports to be that of an 4           officer, manager, or agent of the organization;
- 5           b.   The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or 6           conservator representing the partner, and, if the limited partnership requests,

- 9           c.   The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of 10           the partner, and, if the limited partnership requests, evidence of this status 11           acceptable to the limited partnership has been presented with respect to the 12           vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
- 13           d.   The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or

17           waiver, or proxy appointment; or
- 18           e.   Two or more persons hold the interests as cotenants or fiduciaries and the 19           name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders and the 20           person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders.
- 21           3.   The limited partnership may reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if 22           the partner or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has 23           reasonable basis to doubt the validity of the signature on it or the authority of the 24           signatory to sign for the partner.
- 25           4.   The limited partnership or its agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, 26           or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this 27           section is not liable in damages to the partner for the consequences of the 28           acceptance or rejection.
- 29           5.   Action of the limited partnership based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, 30           consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of 31           competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

2                   on the date the record is filed as evidenced by the endorsement of the 3                   secretary of state of the date on the record.
4           b. If the record specifies a delayed effective date within ninety days, then on the 9                   contains an inaccurate or erroneous statement, or was defectively or erroneously

10                  executed, sealed, acknowledged, or verified, the record may be corrected by filing

20                  (4) Identify the inaccuracy, error, or defect to be corrected; and 21                  (5) Set forth a statement in corrected form of the portion of the record to be 22                          corrected.
23           b. May not revoke or nullify the record.
24          3. The statement of correction shall be filed with the secretary of state.
25          4. With respect to the effective date of correction:
26           a. A certificate issued by the secretary of state before a record is corrected, with 27                   respect to the effect of filing the original record, is considered to be applicable
28                   to the record as corrected as of the date the record as corrected is considered 29                   to have been filed under this subsection.
30           b. After a statement of correction has been filed with the secretary of state, the 31                   original record as corrected is considered to have been filed:

- 1                   (1) On the date the statement of correction was filed:
2                   (a) As to persons adversely affected by the correction; and 6                                 all other purposes.

7                   45-10.2-29. (208) Liability for false information in filed record. If a record delivered
8 to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter and filed by the secretary of state contains 9 false information, then a person that suffers loss by reliance on the information may recover 10 damages for the loss from:

- 11                 1. A person that signed the record, or caused another to sign it on behalf of a person, 12                         and knew the information to be false at the time the record was signed; and 13                 2. A general partner that has notice that the information was false when the record 14                         was filed or has become false because of changed circumstances, if the general 15                         partner has notice for a reasonably sufficient time before the information is relied 16                         upon to enable the general partner to effect an amendment under section
17                         45-10.2-24, file a petition pursuant to section 45-10.2-26, or deliver to the secretary
18                         of state for filing a statement of change pursuant to section 45-10.2-18 or a 19                         statement of correction pursuant to section 45-10.2-28.

20                 45-10.2-30. (209) Certificate of existence or authorization.

- 21                 1. The secretary of state, upon request and payment of the fee provided in section 22                         45-10.2-109, shall furnish a certificate of existence for a limited partnership if the 23                         records filed in the office of the secretary of state show that the secretary of state 24                         has filed a certificate of limited partnership and has not filed a statement of 25                         termination. A certificate of existence must state:
26                         a. The name of the limited partnership;
27                         b. That it was duly formed under the laws of this state and date of formation; and 28                         c. Whether all fees and penalties due to the secretary of state under this chapter
29                                 have been paid.
30                 2. The secretary of state, upon request and payment of the fee provided in section
31                         45-10.2-109, shall furnish a certificate of authorization for a foreign limited

1           partnership if the records filed in the office of the secretary of state show that the 2           secretary of state has filed a certificate of authority, has not revoked the certificate
3           of authority, and has not filed a notice of cancellation. A certificate of authorization 4           must state:

- 5           a.   The name of the foreign limited partnership;
6           b.   That it is authorized to transact business in this state; and 7           c.   Whether all fees and penalties due to the secretary of state under this chapter
8           have been paid.

- 9           3.   Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or 10           authorization issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive 11           evidence that the limited partnership or foreign limited partnership is in existence or 12           is authorized to transact business in this state.

13           45-10.2-31. (301) Becoming a limited partner. A person becomes a limited partner:

- 14           1.   As provided in the partnership agreement;
15           2.   As the result of a conversion or merger under sections 45-10.2-94 through 16           45-10.2-106; or
17           3.   With the consent of all the partners.

18           45-10.2-32. (302) No right or power as limited partner to bind limited partnership.

19           A limited partner does not have the right or the power as a limited partner to act for or bind the 20           limited partnership.

21           45-10.2-33. (303) No liability as limited partner for limited partnership obligation.

22           An obligation of a limited partnership, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, is not the 23           obligation of a limited partner. A limited partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by 24           way of contribution or otherwise, for an obligation of the limited partnership solely by reason of 25           being a limited partner, even if the limited partner participates in the management and control of 26           the limited partnership.

27           45-10.2-34. (304) Right of limited partner and former limited partner to 28           information.

- 29           1.   On ten days' demand, made in a record received by the limited partnership, a 30           limited partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business

- 1           hours in the principal executive office of the limited partnership. The limited partner 2           need not have any particular purpose for seeking the information.
- 3           2. During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the limited 4           partnership, a limited partner may obtain from the limited partnership and inspect 5           and copy true and full information regarding the state of the activities and financial 6           condition of the limited partnership and other information regarding the activities of 7           the limited partnership as is just and reasonable if:
- 8           a. The limited partner seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to 9           an interest as a limited partner;
- 10           b. The limited partner makes a demand in a record received by the limited 11           partnership, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought 12           and the purpose for seeking the information; and
- 13           c. The information sought is directly connected to the purpose of the limited 14           partner.
- 15           3. Within ten days after receiving a demand pursuant to subsection 2, the limited 16           partnership in a record shall inform the limited partner that made the demand:
- 17           a. What information the limited partnership will provide in response to the 18           demand;
- 19           b. When and where the limited partnership will provide the information; and
- 20           c. If the limited partnership declines to provide any demanded information, the 21           reasons of the limited partnership for declining.
- 22           4. Subject to subsection 6, a person dissociated as a limited partner may inspect and 23           copy required information during regular business hours in the designated office of 24           the limited partnership if:
- 25           a. The information pertains to the period during which the person was a limited
26           partner;
- 27           b. The person seeks the information in good faith; and
- 28           c. The person meets the requirements of subsection 2.
- 29           5. The limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection 4 30           in the same manner as provided in subsection 3.
- 31           6. If a limited partner dies, then section 45-10.2-65 applies.

- 1           7. The limited partnership may impose reasonable restrictions on the use of 2           information obtained under this section. In a dispute concerning the 3           reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the limited partnership has 4           the burden of proving reasonableness.
- 5           8. A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section 6           reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.
- 7           9. Whenever this chapter or a partnership agreement provides for a limited partner to 8           give or withhold consent to a matter, before the consent is given or withheld, the 9           limited partnership shall, without demand, provide the limited partner with all 10          information material to the decision of the limited partner that the limited 11          partnership knows.
- 12          10. A limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner may exercise the rights 13          under this section through an attorney or other agent. Any restriction imposed 14          under subsection 7 or by the partnership agreement applies both to the attorney or 15          other agent and to the limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.
- 16          11. The rights stated in this section do not extend to a person as transferee, but may 17          be exercised by the legal representative of an individual under legal disability who 18          is a limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.

19          45-10.2-35. (305) Limited duties of limited partners.

- 20          1. A limited partner does not have any fiduciary duty to the limited partnership or to 21          any other partner solely by reason of being a limited partner.
- 22          2. A limited partner shall discharge the duties to the partnership and the other 23          partners under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any 24          rights consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.
- 25          3. A limited partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under 26          the partnership agreement merely because the conduct of the limited partner 27          furtheres the interest of that limited partner.

28          45-10.2-36. (306) Person erroneously believing self to be limited partner.

- 29          1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a person that makes an investment 30          in a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person 31          has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not liable for the obligations of the

- 1           enterprise by reason of making the investment, receiving distributions from the 2           enterprise, or exercising any rights of or appropriate to a limited partner, if, on 3           ascertaining the mistake, the person:
- 4           a.   Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or 5           statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the secretary of state for 6           filing; or
- 7           b.   Withdraws from future participation as an owner in the enterprise by signing
8           and delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of withdrawal 9           under this section.
- 10          2.   A person that makes an investment described in subsection 1 is liable to the same 11          extent as a general partner to any third party that enters into a transaction with the 12          enterprise, believing in good faith that the person is a general partner, before the 13          secretary of state files a statement of withdrawal, certificate of limited partnership, 14          amendment, or statement of correction to show that the person is not a general
15          partner.
- 16          3.   If a person makes a diligent effort in good faith to comply with subdivision a of 17          subsection 1 and is unable to cause the appropriate certificate of limited 18          partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to 19          the secretary of state for filing, then the person has the right to withdraw from the 20          enterprise pursuant to subdivision b of subsection 1 even if the withdrawal would 21          otherwise breach an agreement with others that are or have agreed to become 22          coowners of the enterprise.
- 23          45-10.2-37. (401) Becoming general partner. A person becomes a general partner:
- 24          1.   As provided in the partnership agreement;
- 25          2.   Under subdivision b of subsection 3 of section 45-10.2-66 following the dissociation 26          of the last general partner of a limited partnership;
- 27          3.   As the result of a conversion or merger under sections 45-10.2-94 through 28          45-10.2-106; or
- 29          4.   With the consent of all the partners.
- 30          45-10.2-38. (402) General partner agent of limited partnership.

- 1           1. Each general partner is an agent of the limited partnership for the purposes of its
2           activities. An act of a general partner, including the signing of a record in the name 3           of the partnership, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the activities of 4           the limited partnership or activities of the kind carried on by the limited partnership 5           binds the limited partnership, unless the general partner did not have authority to 6           act for the limited partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the 7           general partner was dealing knew, had received a notification, or had notice under 8           subsection 4 of section 45-10.2-06 that the general partner lacked authority.
9           2. An act of a general partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary 10          course the activities of the limited partnership or activities of the kind carried on by 11          the limited partnership binds the limited partnership only if the act was actually 12          authorized by all the other partners.

13           45-10.2-39. (403) Limited partnership liable for actionable conduct of general
14 partner.

- 15          1. A limited partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty 16          incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a 17          general partner acting in the ordinary course of activities of the limited partnership 18          or with authority of the limited partnership.
19          2. If, in the course of the activities of the limited partnership or while acting with 20          authority of the limited partnership, a general partner receives or causes the limited 21          partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner, and the money
22          or property is misapplied by a general partner, then the limited partnership is liable 23          for the loss.

24           45-10.2-40. (404) Liability of general partner.

- 25          1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, all general partners are liable
26          jointly and severally for all obligations of the limited partnership unless otherwise 27          agreed by the claimant or provided by law.
28          2. A person that becomes a general partner of an existing limited partnership is not 29          personally liable for an obligation of a limited partnership incurred before the 30          person became a general partner.

- 1           3. An obligation of a limited partnership incurred while the limited partnership is a 2           limited liability limited partnership, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, is 3           solely the obligation of the limited partnership.
- 4           a. A general partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of 5           contribution or otherwise, for such an obligation solely by reason of being or 6           acting as a general partner.
- 7           b. This subsection applies despite anything inconsistent in the partnership 8           agreement that existed immediately before the consent required under 9           subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 45-10.2-42 to become a limited 10          liability limited partnership pursuant to chapter 45-23.

11          45-10.2-41. (405) Actions by and against partnership and partners.

- 12          1. To the extent not inconsistent with section 45-10.2-40, a general partner may be 13          joined in an action against the limited partnership or named in a separate action.
- 14          2. A judgment against a limited partnership is not by itself a judgment against a 15          general partner. A judgment against a limited partnership may not be satisfied 16          from assets of a general partner unless there is also a judgment against the 17          general partner.
- 18          3. A judgment creditor of a general partner may not levy execution against the assets 19          of the general partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the limited
20          partnership, unless the partner is personally liable for the claim under section 21          45-10.2-40, and:
- 22               a. A judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the limited 23               partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned 24               unsatisfied in whole or in part;
- 25               b. The limited partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy;
- 26               c. The general partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust limited 27               partnership assets;
- 28               d. A court grants permissions to the judgment creditor to levy execution against 29               the assets of a general partner based on a finding:
- 30                     (1) That limited partnership assets subject to execution are clearly 31                     insufficient to satisfy the judgment;

- 1                   (2) That exhaustion of limited partnership assets is excessively 2                                   burdensome; or 3                   (3) That the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of equitable 4                                   powers of the court; or 5                   e. Liability is imposed on the general partner by law or contract independent of 6                                   the existence of the limited partnership.

7                   45-10.2-42. (406) Management rights of general partner.

- 8                   1. Each general partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the 9                                   activities of the limited partnership. Except as expressly provided in this chapter,
10                                  any matter relating to the activities of the limited partnership may be exclusively 11                                  decided by the general partner or, if there is more than one general partner, by a 12                                  majority of the general partners.
13                   2. The consent of each partner is necessary:
14                                  a. To amend the partnership agreement;
15                                  b. Subject to section 45-10.2-104, to amend the certificate of limited partnership 16                                  to convert the limited partnership to a limited liability limited partnership; and 17                                  c. To sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the 18                                  property of the limited partnership, with or without the good will, other than in 19                                  the usual and regular course of the activities of the limited partnership.
20                   3. A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for payments made and 21                                  indemnify a general partner for liabilities incurred by the general partner in the 22                                  ordinary course of the activities of the partnership or for the preservation of its 23                                  activities or property.
24                   4. A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for an advance to the 25                                  limited partnership beyond the amount of capital the general partner agreed to 26                                  contribute.
27                   5. A payment or advance made by a general partner which gives rise to an obligation
28                                  of the limited partnership under subsection 3 or 4 constitutes a loan to the limited 29                                  partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.
30                   6. A general partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the 31                                  partnership.

- 1           45-10.2-43. (407) Right of general partner and former general partner to 2 information.
- 3           1. A general partner, without having any particular purpose for seeking the 4 information, may inspect and copy during regular business hours:
- 5           a. In the principal executive office of the limited partnership, required 6 information; and
- 7           b. At a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, any other 8 records maintained by the limited partnership regarding the activities and 9 financial condition of the limited partnership.
- 10          2. Each general partner and the limited partnership shall furnish to a general partner:
- 11          a. Without demand, any information concerning the activities and financial 12 condition of the limited partnership reasonably required for the proper 13 exercise of the rights and duties of the general partner under the partnership 14 agreement or this chapter; and
- 15          b. On demand, any other information concerning the activities of the limited 16 partnership, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is 17 unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.
- 18          3. Subject to subsection 5, on ten days' demand made in a record received by the 19 limited partnership, a person dissociated as a general partner may have access to 20 the information and records described in subsection 1 at the location specified in 21 subsection 1 if:
- 22          a. The information or record pertains to the period during which the person was 23 a general partner;
- 24          b. The person seeks the information or record in good faith; and
- 25          c. The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by 26 subsection 2 of section 45-10.2-34.
- 27          4. The limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection 3 28 in the same manner as provided in subsection 3 of section 45-10.2-34.
- 29          5. If a general partner dies, then section 45-10.2-65 applies.
- 30          6. The limited partnership may impose reasonable restrictions on the use of 31 information under this section. In any dispute concerning the reasonableness of a

1           restriction under this subsection, the limited partnership has the burden of proving 2           reasonableness.

3           7. A limited partnership may charge a person dissociated as a general partner that 4           makes a demand under this section reasonable costs of copying, limited to the 5           costs of labor and material.

6           8. A general partner or person dissociated as a general partner may exercise the 7           rights under this section through an attorney or other agent. Any restriction 8           imposed under subsection 6 or by the partnership agreement applies both to the 9           attorney or other agent and to the general partner or person dissociated as a
10          general partner.

11          9. The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee, but the rights
12          under subsection 3 of a person dissociated as a general partner may be exercised
13          by the legal representative of an individual who dissociated as a general partner 14          under subdivisions b and c of subsection 7 of section 45-10.2-57.

15          45-10.2-44. (408) General standards of conduct of general partner.

16          1. The only fiduciary duties that a general partner has to the limited partnership and 17          the other partners are the duties of loyalty and care under subsections 2 and 3.

18          2. A duty of loyalty of the general partner to the limited partnership and the other 19          partners is limited to the following:

20           a. To account to the limited partnership and hold as trustee for it any property,
21           profit, or benefit derived by the general partner in the conduct and winding up 22           of the activities of the limited partnership or derived from a use by the general
23           partner of limited partnership property, including the appropriation of a limited 24           partnership opportunity;

25           b. To refrain from dealing with the limited partnership in the conduct or winding 26           up of the activities of the limited partnership as or on behalf of a party having 27           an interest adverse to the limited partnership; and

28           c. To refrain from competing with the limited partnership in the conduct or 29           winding up of the activities of the limited partnership.

30          3. Duty of care of a general partner to the limited partnership and the other partners in 31          the conduct and winding up of the activities of a limited partnership is limited to

1           refraining from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, intentional
2           misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

3           4. A general partner shall discharge the duties to the partnership and the other
4           partners under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any 5           rights consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

6           5. A general partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under 7           the partnership agreement merely because conduct of the general partner furthers
8           the interest of that general partner.

9           45-10.2-45. (409) Transfer of partnership property.

10          1. Subject to the effect of a notification effective under subsections 4 and 9 of section 11          45-10.2-06, property held in the name of a limited partnership may be transferred 12          by a record of transfer executed by a general partner in the limited partnership 13          name.

14          2. Where a transfer has been made to an initial transferee through a record of 15          transfer effective under subsection 1, a limited partnership may recover the 16          transferred limited partnership property from a transferee only if:

17           a. The limited partnership proves that execution of the record of initial transfer 18           did not bind the partnership under section 45-10.2-38; and

19           b. As to a subsequent transferee who gave value for the property, the limited 20           partnership proves that the subsequent transferee knew or had received a 21           notification that the person who executed the record of initial transfer lacked 22           authority to bind the partnership.

23          3. A partnership may not recover partnership property from a subsequent transferee if 24          the partnership would not have been entitled to recover the property under 25          subsection 2 from any earlier transferee of the property.

26          4. This section does not affect the power of a person dissociated as a general partner 27          to bind a limited partnership under subsection 1 of section 45-10.2-60 and 28          subsection 2 of section 45-10.2-70.

29          45-10.2-46. (501) Form of contribution. A contribution of a partner may consist of 30          tangible or intangible property or other benefit to the limited partnership, including money,

1 services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to contribute cash or property, and 2 contracts for services to be performed.

3 45-10.2-47. (502) Liability for contribution.

4 1. The obligation of a partner to contribute money or other property or other benefit to,
5 or to perform services for, a limited partnership is not excused by the death of a 6 partner, disability, or other inability to perform personally.

7 2. If a partner does not make a promised nonmonetary contribution, the partner is 8 obligated at the option of the limited partnership to contribute money equal to that 9 portion of the value, as stated in the required information, of the stated contribution 10 that has not been made.

11 3. The obligation of a partner to make a contribution or return money or other property
12 paid or distributed in violation of this chapter may be compromised only by consent
13 of all partners. A creditor of a limited partnership that extends credit or otherwise 14 acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1, without notice of any 15 compromise under this subsection, may enforce the original obligation.

16 45-10.2-48. (503) Sharing of distributions. A distribution by a limited partnership
17 must be shared among the partners of the basis of the value, as stated in the required
18 information when the limited partnership decides to make the distribution, of the contributions 19 the limited partnership has received from each partner.

20 45-10.2-49. (504) Interim distributions. A partner does not have a right to any 21 distribution before the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership unless the limited 22 partnership decides to make an interim distribution.

23 45-10.2-50. (505) No distribution on account of dissociation. A person does not 24 have a right to receive a distribution on account of dissociation.

25 45-10.2-51. (506) Distribution in kind. A partner does not have a right to demand or 26 receive any distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than cash. Subject to 27 subsection 2 of section 45-10.2-75, a limited partnership may distribute an asset in kind to the 28 extent each partner receives a percentage of the asset equal to the share of distributions of the 29 partner.

30 45-10.2-52. (507) Right to distribution. When a partner or transferee becomes 31 entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all

1 remedies available to, a creditor of the limited partnership with respect to the distribution.
2 However, the obligation of the limited partnership to make a distribution is subject to offset for 3 any amount owed to the limited partnership by the partner or dissociated partner on whose 4 account the distribution is made.

5 45-10.2-53. (508) Limitation on distribution.

- 6 1. A limited partnership may not make a distribution in violation of the partnership 7 agreement.
- 8 2. A limited partnership may not make a distribution if after the distribution:
- 9 a. The limited partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due 10 in the ordinary course of the activities of the limited partnership; or
- 11 b. The total assets of the limited partnership would be less than the sum of its 12 total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the limited partnership 13 were to be dissolved, wound up, and terminated at the time of the distribution, 14 to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution, winding up, and termination
15 of partners whose preferential rights are superior to those of persons 16 receiving the distribution.
- 17 3. A limited partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited
18 under subsection 2 on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting 19 practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair 20 valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- 21 4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, the effect of a distribution under 22 subsection 2 is measured:
- 23 a. In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a 24 transferable interest in the limited partnership, as of the date money or other 25 property is transferred or debt incurred by the limited partnership; and
- 26 b. In all other cases, as of the date:
- 27 (1) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs within one hundred 28 twenty days after that date; or
- 29 (2) The payment is made, if payment occurs more than one hundred 30 twenty days after the distribution is authorized.

- 1           5. Indebtedness of a limited partnership to a partner incurred by reason of a 2           distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the indebtedness
3           of the limited partnership to its general, unsecured creditors.
- 4           6. Indebtedness of a limited partnership, including indebtedness issued in connection 5           with or as part of a distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of 6           subsection 2 if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and 7           interest are made only to the extent that a distribution could then be made to 8           partners under this section.
- 9           7. If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on 10          the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the 11          date the payment is made.

12          45-10.2-54. (509) Liability for improper distributions.

- 13          1. A general partner that consents to a distribution made in violation of section 14          45-10.2-53 is personally liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the 15          distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the 16          violation if it is established that in consenting to the distribution the general partner 17          failed to comply with section 45-10.2-44.
- 18          2. A partner or transferee that received a distribution knowing that the distribution to 19          that partner or transferee was made in violation of section 45-10.2-53 is personally
20          liable to the limited partnership but only to the extent that the distribution received 21          by the partner or transferee exceeded the amount that could have been properly 22          paid under section 45-10.2-53.
- 23          3. A general partner against which an action is commenced under subsection 1 may:
24              a. Implead in the action any other person that is liable under subsection 1 and 25              compel contribution from the person; and 26              b. Implead in the action any person that received a distribution in violation of 27              subsection 2 and compel contribution from the person in the amount the 28              person received in violation of subsection 2.
- 29          4. An action under this section is barred if it is not commenced within two years after 30          the distribution.

31          45-10.2-55. (601) Dissociation as limited partner.

- 1           1. A person does not have a right to dissociate as a limited partner before the 2           termination of the limited partnership.
- 3           2. A person is dissociated from a limited partnership as a limited partner upon the 4           occurrence of any of the following events:
- 5           a. The limited partnership has notice of the express will of a person to withdraw 6           as a limited partner or on a later date specified by the person;
- 7           b. An event agreed to in the partnership agreement as causing the dissociation 8           of a person as a limited partner;
- 9           c. The expulsion of a person as a limited partner pursuant to the partnership 10          agreement;
- 11          d. The expulsion of a person as a limited partner by the unanimous consent of 12          the other partners if:
- 13               (1) It is unlawful to carry on the activities of the limited partnership with the 14               person as a limited partner;

11           partner;

12           d. The person may sign and deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement
13           of dissociation pertaining to the person and, at the request of the limited
14           partnership, shall sign an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership 15           which states that the person has dissociated; and

17           any transferable interest owned by the person immediately before dissociation 18           in the capacity as a general partner is owned by the person as a mere 19           transferee.

20           2. The dissociation of a person as a general partner does not of itself discharge the 21           person from any obligation to the limited partnership or the other partners which 22           the person incurred while a general partner.

23           45-10.2-60. (606) Power to bind and liability to limited partnership before
24 dissolution of partnership of person dissociated as general partner.

25           1. After a person is dissociated as a general partner and before the limited
26           partnership is dissolved, or is converted or merged out of existence under sections 27           45-10.2-94 through 45-10.2-106, the limited partnership is bound by an act of the 28           person if:

29           a. The act would have bound the limited partnership under section 45-10.2-38 30           before the dissociation; and

31           b. At the time the other party enters into the transaction:

- 1                   (1) Less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and
2                   (2) The other party does not have notice of the dissociation and reasonably
3                   believes that the person is a general partner.
- 4           2. If a limited partnership is bound under subsection 1, then the person dissociated as 5           a general partner which caused the limited partnership to be bound is liable:

11           liability.

12           45-10.2-61. (607) Liability to other persons of person dissociated as general
13 partner.

- 14           1. The dissociation of a person as a general partner does not of itself discharge the 15           liability of a person as a general partner for an obligation of the limited partnership
16           incurred before dissociation. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, 17           the person is not liable for an obligation of a limited partnership incurred after 18           dissociation.
- 19           2. A person whose dissociation as a general partner resulted in a dissolution and 20           winding up of the activities of the limited partnership is liable to the same extent as 21           a general partner under section 45-10.2-40 on an obligation incurred by the limited 22           partnership under section 45-10.2-70.
- 23           3. A person that has dissociated as a general partner but whose dissociation did not 24           result in a dissolution and winding up of the activities of the limited partnership is 25           liable on a transaction entered into by the limited partnership after the dissociation 26           only if:
- 27           a. A general partner would be liable on the transaction; and
- 28           b. At the time the other party enters into the transaction:
- 29                   (1) Less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and 30                   (2) The other party does not have notice of the dissociation and reasonably
31                   believes that the person is a general partner.

1           4. By agreement with a creditor of a limited partnership and the limited partnership, a 2           person dissociated as a general partner may be released from liability for an 3           obligation of the limited partnership.

4           5. A person dissociated as a general partner is released from liability for an obligation
5           of the limited partnership if the creditor of the limited partnership, with notice of the 6           dissociation of the person as a general partner but without the consent of the 7           person, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the 8           obligation.

9           45-10.2-62. (701) Transferable interest of a partner. The only interest of a partner
10          that is transferable is the transferable interest of the partner. A transferable interest is personal 11          property.

12          45-10.2-63. (702) Transfer of the transferable interest of a partner.

13          1. A transfer, in whole or in part, of the transferable interest of a partner:

14           a. Is permissible;

15           b. Does not by itself cause the dissociation of a partner or a dissolution and 16           winding up of the activities of the limited partnership; and 17           c. Does not, as against the other partners or the limited partnership, entitle the 18           transferee:

19           (1) To participate in the management or conduct of the activities of the 20           limited partnership;

21           (2) To require access to information concerning the transactions of the 22           limited partnership except as otherwise provided in subsection 3; or

23           (3) To inspect or copy the required information or the other records of the 24           limited partnership.

25          2. A transferee has a right to receive, in accordance with the transfer:

26           a. Distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled; and

27           b. Upon the dissolution and winding up of the activities of the limited partnership 28           the net amount otherwise distributable to the transferor.

29          3. In a dissolution and winding up, a transferee is entitled to an account of the 30          transactions of the limited partnership only from the date of dissolution.

- 1           4. Upon transfer, the transferor retains the rights of a partner other than the interest in 2           distributions transferred and retains all duties and obligations of a partner.
- 3           5. A limited partnership need not give effect to the rights of a transferee under this 4           section until the limited partnership has notice of the transfer.
- 5           6. A transfer of the transferable interest of a partner in the limited partnership in 6           violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is 7           ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.
- 8           7. A transferee that becomes a partner with respect to a transferable interest is liable 9           for the obligations of the transferor under sections 45-10.2-47 and 45-10.2-54.
10          However, the transferee is not obligated for liabilities unknown to the transferee at 11          the time the transferee became a partner.

12          45-10.2-64. (703) Rights of creditor of partner or transferee.

- 13          1. On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a 14          partner or transferee, the court may charge the transferable interest of the 15          judgment debtor with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with 16          interest. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of a 17          transferee. The court may appoint a receiver of the share of the distributions due 18          or to become due to the judgment debtor in respect of the partnership and make all 19          other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries the judgment debtor might have 20          made or which the circumstances of the case may require to give effect to the 21          charging order.
- 22          2. A charging order constitutes a lien on the transferable interest of the judgment
23          debtor. The court may order a foreclosure upon the interest subject to the charging 24          order at any time. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale has the rights of a 25          transferee.
- 26          3. At any time before foreclosure, an interest charged may be redeemed:
- 27               a. By the judgment debtor;
- 28               b. With property other than limited partnership property, by one or more of the 29               other partners; or
- 30               c. With limited partnership property, by the limited partnership with the consent 31               of all partners whose interests are not so charged.

1           4. This chapter does not deprive any partner or transferee of the benefit of any 2           exemption laws applicable to the transferable interest of the partner or transferee.

3           5. This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a 4           partner or transferee may satisfy a judgment out of the transferable interest of the 5           judgment debtor.

6           45-10.2-65. (704) Power of estate of deceased partner. If a partner dies, then the 7           personal representative or other legal representative of the deceased partner may exercise the 8           rights of a transferee as provided in section 45-10.2-63 and, for the purposes of settling the 9           estate, may exercise the rights of a current limited partner under section 45-10.2-34.

10          45-10.2-66. (801) Nonjudicial dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in section 11          45-10.2-67, a limited partnership is dissolved, and its activities must be wound up, only upon 12          the occurrence of any of the following:

13           1. The happening of an event specified in the partnership agreement;

14           2. The consent of all general partners and of limited partners owning a majority of the 15           rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the consent is to be 16           effective;

17           3. After the dissociation of a person as a general partner:

18           a. If the limited partnership has at least one remaining general partner, then the 19           consent to dissolve the limited partnership given within ninety days after the 20           dissociation by partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions 21           as partners at the time the consent is to be effective; or

22           b. If the limited partnership does not have a remaining general partner, then the 23           passage of ninety days after the dissociation unless before the end of the 24           period:

25           (1) Consent to continue the activities of the limited partnership and admit at 26           least one general partner is given by limited partners owning a majority 27           of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the 28           consent is to be effective; and

29           (2) At least one person is admitted as a general partner in accordance with 30           the consent;

- 1           4. The passage of ninety days after the dissociation of the last limited partner of the 2                   limited partnership, unless before the end of the period the limited partnership 3                   admits at least one limited partner; or 4           5. The issuing and filing of a notice of dissolution by the secretary of state under 5                   subsection 5 of section 45-10.2-108.

6           45-10.2-67. (802) Judicial dissolution. On application by a partner the district court 7 may order dissolution of a limited partnership if it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the 8 activities of the limited partnership in conformity with the partnership agreement.

9           45-10.2-68. (803) Winding up.

- 10          1. A limited partnership continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up 11                   its activities.
12          2. In winding up its activities, the limited partnership:
13              a. May:
14                  (1) Amend its certificate of limited partnership to state that the limited 15                      partnership is dissolved;
16                  (2) Preserve the limited partnership business or property as a going 17                      concern for a reasonable time;
18                  (3) Prosecute and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil, criminal, 19                      or administrative;
20                  (4) Transfer the property of the limited partnership;
21                  (5) Settle disputes by mediation or arbitration;
22                  (6) File a statement of termination as provided in section 45-10.2-69; and 23                  (7) Perform other necessary acts; and 24              b. Shall:
25                  (1) Discharge the liabilities of the limited partnership;
26                  (2) Settle and close the activities of the limited partnership; and 27                  (3) Marshall and distribute the assets of the partnership.
28          3. If a dissolved limited partnership does not have a general partner, then a person to 29                   wind up the activities of the dissolved limited partnership may be appointed by the 30                   consent of limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions

- 1           as limited partners at the time the consent is to be effective. A person appointed 2           under this subsection:

4           b.   Shall promptly amend the certificate of limited partnership to state:
5                 (1)   That the limited partnership does not have a general partner;
6                 (2)   The name of the person that has been appointed to wind up the limited 7                         partnership; and 15                   shall immediately remit them to the limited partnership.

16          2. If a derivative action is successful in whole or in part, then the court may award the 17                   plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable fees for services of an

11                   conduct activities in this state, then the street and mailing address of an 12                   office that the secretary of state may use for the purposes of 13                   subsection 2 of section 45-10.2-103.
- 14                  3. The articles of merger shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.
- 15                  4. A merger becomes effective under this chapter:
  - 16                  a. If the surviving organization is a limited partnership, upon the later of:
    - 17                   (1) Compliance with subsection 3; or
    - 18                   (2) Subject to subsection 3 of section 45-10.2-27, as specified in the 19                   articles of merger; or
  - 20                  b. If the surviving organization is not a limited partnership, then as provided by 21                   the governing statute of the surviving organization.

22                  45-10.2-103. (1109) Effect of merger.

- 23                  1. When a merger becomes effective:
  - 24                  a. The surviving organization continues or comes into existence;
  - 25                  b. Each constituent organization that merges into the surviving organization 26                   ceases to exist as a separate entity;
  - 27                  c. All property owned by each constituent organization that ceases to exist vest 28                   in the surviving organization;
  - 29                  d. All debts, liabilities, and other obligations of each constituent organization that 30                   ceases to exist continue as obligations of the surviving organization;

- 1           e. An action or proceeding pending by or against any constituent organization 2           that ceases to exist may be continued by the surviving organization as if the 3           merger had not occurred;
- 4           f. Except as prohibited by other law, all of the rights, privileges, immunities,
5           powers, and purposes of each constituent organization that ceases to exist 6           vest in the surviving organization;
- 7           g. Except as otherwise provided in the plan of merger, the terms and conditions 8           of the plan of merger take effect;
- 9           h. Except as otherwise agreed, if a constituent limited partnership ceases to 10           exist, then the merger does not dissolve the limited partnership for the 11           purposes of sections 45-10.2-66 through 45-10.2-75;
- 12           i. If the surviving organization is created by the merger:
- 13                 (1) If it is a limited partnership, then the certificate of limited partnership 14                 becomes effective; or
- 15                 (2) If it is an organization other than a limited partnership, then the 16                 organizational record that creates the organization becomes effective;
17                 and
- 18           j. If the surviving organization preexists the merger, then any amendments 19           provided for in the articles of merger for the organizational record that created 20           the organization become effective.
- 21           2. A surviving organization that is a foreign organization consents to the jurisdiction of 22           the courts of this state to enforce any obligation owed by a constituent 23           organization, if before the merger the constituent organization was subject to suit in 24           this state on the obligation. A surviving organization that is a foreign organization
25           and not authorized to transact business or conduct activities in this state appoints 26           the secretary of state as its agent for service of process for the purposes of 27           enforcing an obligation under this subsection.

28           45-10.2-104. (1110) Restrictions on approval of conversions and mergers and on 29           relinquishing limited liability limited partnership (LLLLP) status.

- 30           1. If a partner of a converting or constituent limited partnership will have personal 31           liability with respect to a converted or surviving organization, then approval and

- 1           amendment of a plan of conversion or merger are ineffective without the consent of 2           the partner, unless:
- 3           a.   The partnership agreement of the limited partnership provides for the approval
4                 of the conversion or merger with the consent of fewer than all the partners;
5                 and
- 6           b.   The partner has consented to the provision of the partnership agreement.
- 7           2.   An amendment to a certificate of limited partnership which converts the limited
8                 partnership to a limited liability limited partnership is ineffective without the consent 9                 of each general partner unless:
- 10           a.   The partnership agreement of the limited partnership provides for the 11                 conversion with the consent of less than all the general partners; and
- 12           b.   Each general partner that does not consent to the amendment of conversion 13                 has consented to that provision of the partnership agreement.
- 14           3.   A partner does not give the consent required by subsection 1 or 2 merely by 15                 consenting to a provision of the partnership agreement which permits the 16                 partnership agreement to be amended with the consent of fewer than all the 17                 partners.

18           45-10.2-105. (1111) Liability of general partner after conversion or merger.

- 19           1.   A conversion or merger under this chapter does not discharge any liability under

21                 dissociated as a general partner from a converting or constituent limited 22                 partnership, but:
- 23           a.   The provisions of this chapter pertaining to the collection or discharge of the 24                 liability continue to apply to the liability;
- 25           b.   For the purposes of applying those provisions, the converted or surviving 26                 organization is deemed to be the converting or constituent limited partnership;
27                 and
- 28           c.   If a person is required to pay any amount under this subsection, then:
- 29                 (1)   The person has a right of contribution from each other person that was 30                         liable as a general partner under section 45-10.2-40 when the

1                   obligation was incurred and has not been released from the obligation 2                   under section 45-10.2-61; and

3                   (2) The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the 4                   right to receive distributions in the capacity of general partner in effect
5                   for each of those persons when the obligations were incurred.

6                   2. In addition to any other liability provided by law:

24                   organization arising from a transaction with a third party after the conversion 25                   or merger becomes effective, if:

13                         effective was a general partner in a converting or constituent limited partnership
14                         binds the converted or surviving organization after the conversion or merger 15                         becomes effective, if:
16                         a. Before the conversion or merger became effective, the act would have bound
17                                 the converting or constituent limited partnership under section 45-10.2-38;

29                         merger becomes effective, if:

- 1           a. Before the conversion or merger became effective, the act would have bound
