19 SECTION 2. Section 10-19.1-01.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
20 enacted as follows:

21 10-19.1-01.2. Knowledge and notice.

- 22 1. A person knows or has knowledge of a fact if the person has actual knowledge of 23 it. A person does not know or have knowledge of a fact merely because the 24 person has reason to know or have knowledge of the fact.
25 2. A person has notice of a fact if the person:
26 a. Knows of the fact;
27 b. Has received notice of the fact as provided in subsection 35 of section 28 10-19.1-01;
29 c. Has reason to know the fact exists from all of the facts known to the person at 30 the time in question; or
31 d. Has notice of it under subsection 3.

- 1           3. Subject to subsection 8, a person has notice of:
- 2           a. The intention of a corporation to dissolve, ninety days after the effective date
- 3           of the filed notice of intent to dissolve;
- 4           b. The dissolution of a corporation, ninety days after the effective date of the
- 5           filed articles of dissolution;
- 6           c. The conversion of a corporation, ninety days after the effective date of the
- 7           filed articles of conversion; or
- 8           d. The merger of a corporation, ninety days after the effective date of the filed
- 9           articles of merger.
- 10          4. A person notifies or gives a notification to another person by taking the steps
- 11          provided in subsection 35 of section 19-19.1-01, whether or not the other person
- 12          learns of it.
- 13          5. A person receives a notification as provided in subsection 35 of section 10-19.1-01.
- 14          6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7 and except as otherwise provided in
- 15          subsection 35 of section 10-19.1-01, a person other than an individual knows, has
- 16          notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction
- 17          when the individual conducting the transaction for the person knows, has notice, or
- 18          receives a notification of the fact, or in any event when the fact would have been
- 19          brought to the attention of the individual if the person had exercised reasonable
- 20          diligence.
- 21          a. A person other than an individual exercises reasonable diligence if it
- 22          maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the
- 23          individual conducting the transaction for the person and there is reasonable
- 24          compliance with the routines.
- 25          b. Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the person to
- 26          communicate information unless the communication is part of the regular
- 27          duties of the individual or the individual has reason to know of the transaction
- 28          and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.
- 29          7. Knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the corporation by
- 30          an officer or director is effective immediately as knowledge of, notice to, or receipt
- 31          of a notification by the corporation, except in the case of a fraud on the corporation

1           committed by or with the consent of the officer or director. Knowledge, notice, or 2           receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the corporation by a shareholder who is 3           not an officer or director, is not effective as knowledge by, notice to, or receipt of a
4           notification by the corporation.

5           8. Notice otherwise effective under subsection 3 does not affect the power of a
6           person to transfer real property held in the name of a corporation unless at the time
7           of transfer a certified copy of the relevant statement, amendment, or articles, as
8           filed with the secretary of state, has been recorded in the office of the county
9           recorder in the county in which the real property affected by the statement,
10           amendment, or articles is located.

11          9. With respect to notice given by a form of electronic communication:
12           a. Consent by an officer or director to notice given by electronic communication
13           may be given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication. The 14           corporation is entitled to rely on any consent so given until revoked by the 15           officer or director. However, no revocation affects the validity of any notice
16           given before receipt by the corporation of revocation of the consent.
17           b. An affidavit of an officer or director or an authorized agent of the corporation, 18           that the notice has been given by a form of electronic communication is, in the 19           absence of fraud, prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit.

20           SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is
21 amended and reenacted as follows:

22           10-19.1-08. Purposes. A corporation may be incorporated under this chapter for any 23 ~~business~~ lawful purpose or purposes, unless some other statute of this state requires 24 incorporation for any of those purposes under a different law. Unless otherwise provided in its 25 articles, a corporation has general business purposes.

8           in subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-74.
- 9           n. Shares of a corporation acquired by the corporation may be reissued as 10          provided in subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-93.
- 11          o. An exchange need not be approved by shareholders of the acquiring 12          corporation unless the outstanding shares entitled to vote of that corporation
13          will be increased by more than twenty percent immediately after the exchange 14          as provided in subdivision c of subsection 3 of section 10-19.1-98.
- 15          p. An exchange need not be approved by shareholders of the acquiring 16          corporation unless the outstanding participating shares of that corporation will 17          be increased by more than twenty percent immediately after the exchange as 18          provided in subdivision d of subsection 3 of section 10-19.1-98.
- 19          q. Each share has one vote unless otherwise provided in the terms of the share 20          as provided in subsection 5 of section 10-19.1-73.2.
- 21          r. The board may effect share dividends, divisions, and combinations under 22          certain circumstances without shareholder approval as provided in section 23          10-19.1-61.1.
- 24          s. A written action of shareholders must be signed by all shareholders as 27 (2) May not be incorporated under this chapter.

28 ~~f. e.~~ May not be the same as, or deceptively similar to:

29 (1) The name, whether foreign and authorized to do business in this state
30 or domestic, unless there is filed with the articles a ~~document~~ record 31 that complies with subsection ~~7 3~~, of:

- 1 (a) Another corporation;
- 2 (b) A corporation incorporated or authorized to do business in this
- 3 state under another chapter of this code;
- 4 (c) A limited liability company;
- 5 (d) A limited partnership;
- 6 (e) A limited liability partnership; or
- 7 (f) A limited liability limited partnership;
- 8 (2) A name the right to which is, at the time of incorporation, reserved in
- 9 the manner provided in section 10-19.1-14, 10-32-11, 10-33-11,
- 10 ~~45-10.1-03~~ 45-10.2-11, 45-13-04.2, or 45-22-05;
- 11 (3) A fictitious name registered in the manner provided in chapter 45-11; or
- 12 (4) A trade name registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-25.
- 13 2. The secretary of state shall determine whether a corporate name is "deceptively
- 14 similar" to another name for purposes of this chapter.
- 15 3. If the secretary of state determines that a corporate name is "deceptively similar" to
- 16 another name for purposes of this chapter, then the corporate name may not be
- 17 used unless there is filed with the articles:
- 18 a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name to which the
- 19 proposed name has been determined to be deceptively similar; or
- 20 b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the prior
- 21 right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.
- 22 4. This subsection does not affect the right of a domestic corporation existing on
- 23 July 1, 1986, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state on that
- 24 date to continue the use of its name.
- 25 5. This section and section 10-19.1-14 do not:
- 26 a. Abrogate or limit:
- 27 (1) The law of unfair competition or unfair practices;
- 28 (2) Chapter 47-25;
- 29 (3) The laws of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and
- 30 protect copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service names, service
- 31 marks; or

- 1                   (4) Any other rights to the exclusive use of names or symbols; or
- 2                   b. Derogate the common law or the principles of equity.
- 3       4- 6. A corporation that is the surviving organization in a merger with one or more other
- 4                   organizations, or that acquires by sale, lease, or other disposition to or exchange
- 5                   with an organization all or substantially all of the assets of another organization
- 6                   including its name, may have the same name, subject to the requirements of
- 7                   subsection 1, as that used in this state by any of the other organizations, if the
- 8                   other organization whose name is sought to be used:
- 9                   a. Was incorporated, organized, formed, or registered under the laws of this
- 10                   state;
- 11                   b. Is authorized to transact business or conduct activities in this state;
- 12                   c. Holds a reserved name in the manner provided in section 10-19.1-14,
- 13                   10-32-11, 10-33-11, ~~45-10.1-03~~ 45-10.2-11, 45-13-04.2, or 45-22-05;
- 14                   d. Holds a fictitious name registered in the manner provided in chapter 45-11; or
- 15                   e. Holds a trade name registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-25.
- 16       5- 7. The use of a name by a corporation in violation of this section does not affect or
- 17                   vitate its corporate existence. However, a court in this state may, upon application
- 18                   of the state or of an interested or affected person, enjoin the corporation from doing
- 19                   business under a name assumed in violation of this section, although its articles
- 20                   may have been filed with the secretary of state and a certificate of incorporation
- 21                   issued.
- 22       6- 8. A corporation whose period of existence has expired or that is involuntarily
- 23                   dissolved by the secretary of state pursuant to section 10-19.1-146 may reacquire
- 24                   the right to use that name by refiling articles of incorporation pursuant to section
- 25                   10-19.1-11, unless the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another
- 26                   person, in which case the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by
- 27                   a written consent or judgment as provided in subsection 2. A corporation that
- 28                   cannot reacquire the use of its corporate name shall adopt a new corporate name
- 29                   that complies with the provisions of this section:
- 30                   a. By refiling articles of incorporation pursuant to section 10-19.1-11;
- 31                   b. By amending pursuant to section ~~40-19.1-127~~ 10-19.1-17; or

1 c. By reinstating pursuant to section 10-19.1-146;
2 unless the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another person, in 3 which case the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written
4 consent or judgment pursuant to subsection 2. A corporation that cannot reacquire
5 the use of its corporate name shall adopt a new corporate name which complies 6 with the provisions of this section.

7 ~~7.~~ If the secretary of state determines that a corporate name is "deceptively similar" to 8 another name for purposes of this chapter, then the corporate name may not be
9 used unless there is filed with the articles:

10 a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name to which the 11 proposed name has been determined to be deceptively similar; or

12 b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the prior
13 right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.

14 This subsection does not affect the right of a domestic corporation existing on 15 July 1, 1997, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state on that 16 date to continue the use of its name.

17 9. Subject to section 10-19.1-133, this section applies to any foreign corporation
18 transacting business in this state, having a certificate of authority to transact
19 business in this state, or applying for a certificate of authority.

20 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is
21 amended and reenacted as follows:

22 10-19.1-20. Class or series voting on amendments. The holders of the outstanding 23 shares of a class or series are entitled to vote as a class or series upon a proposed 24 amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles, if the 25 amendment would:

26 1. ~~Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class or~~ 27 ~~series;~~

28 2. Increase or decrease the par value of the shares of the class or series;

29 ~~3.~~ 2. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the shares of 30 the class or series or effect a combination of outstanding shares of a class or

- 1           series into a lesser number of shares of the class or series where each other class 2           and series is not subject to a similar combination;
- 3       4- 3. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of 4           another class or series for the shares of the class or series;
- 5       5- 4. Change the rights or preferences of the shares of the class or series;
- 6       6- ~~Change the shares of the class or series, whether with or without par value, into~~ 7           ~~the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of~~ 8           ~~another class or series;~~
- 9       7- 5. Create a new class or series of shares having rights and preferences prior and 10           superior to the shares of that class or series, or increase the rights and preferences 11           or the number of authorized shares, of a class or series having rights and 12           preferences prior or superior to the shares of that class or series;
- 13       8- 6. Divide the shares of the class into series and determine the designation of each 14           series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares 15           of each series, or authorize the board to do so;
- 16       9- 7. Limit or deny any existing preemptive rights of the shares of the class or series; or 17       10- 8. Cancel or otherwise affect distributions on the shares of the class or series that 18           have accrued but have not been declared.

19           SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is
20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21           10-19.1-27. Corporate seal. A corporation may, but need not, have a corporate seal.
22 The use or nonuse of a corporate seal does not affect the validity, recordability, or enforceability
23 of a ~~document~~ record or act. If a corporation has a corporate seal, the use of the seal by the 24 corporation on a ~~document~~ record is not necessary.

25           SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-39 of the North Dakota Century Code is
26 amended and reenacted as follows:

27           10-19.1-39. ~~Cumulative voting~~ Voting for directors - Cumulative voting. ~~Each~~ With 28 respect to the election of directors:

- 29           1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles and subject to subsection 2, directors are 30           elected by a plurality of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote 31           on the election of directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

1           2. As provided in article XII of the Constitution of North Dakota, each shareholder
2           entitled to vote for directors has the right to cumulate those votes in all elections of 3           directors by giving written notice of intent to cumulate those votes to any officer of 4           the corporation before the meeting, or to the presiding officer at the meeting at 5           which the election is to occur at any time before the election of directors at the 6           meeting, in which case:

7           4. a. The presiding officer at the meeting shall announce, before the election of 8           directors, that shareholders may cumulate their votes; and

9           2. b. Each shareholder shall cumulate those votes either by casting for one 10          candidate the number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected 11          multiplied by the number of votes represented by the shares entitled to vote, 12          or by distributing all of those votes on the same principle among any number 13          of candidates.

14           SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 5 of section 10-19.1-43 of the North
15   Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

16          3. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different time period, a director may call
17          a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice or, in the case of organizational 18          meetings pursuant to subsection 2 of section 10-19.1-30, at least three days'
19          notice, to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting.

20          a. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles or 21          bylaws require it.

22          b. Any notice to a director given under any provision of this chapter, the articles, 23          or the bylaws by a form of electronic communication consented to by the 24          director to whom the notice is given is effective when given.

25          c. Consent by a director to notice given by electronic communication may be 26          given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication.

27                (1) Any consent so given may be relied upon until revoked by the director.

28                (2) However, no revocation affects the validity of any notice given before a 29                receipt of revocation of the consent.

30          5. A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a
31          director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting,

1           and whether given in writing, by authenticated electronic communication, or by
2           attendance. Attendance by a director at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that
3           meeting, except when the director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the 4           transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and
5           does not participate in the meeting after the objection.

6           SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-52 of the North Dakota Century Code is
7           amended and reenacted as follows:

8           10-19.1-52. Officers. The officers of a corporation must be individuals who are 9           eighteen years of age or more and shall consist of a president, a secretary, and a treasurer and 10          may also include one or more vice presidents and any other officers or agents as may be 11          ~~prescribed by~~ provided in the bylaws. Each of the officers must be elected by the board at a 12          time and in a manner as may be provided in the bylaws unless the articles or bylaws provide 13          that the shareholders may elect the officers.

14          SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-55 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15          amended and reenacted as follows:

16          10-19.1-55. Multiple offices. Any number of offices or functions of those offices may 17          be held or exercised by the same individual. If a ~~document~~ record must be signed by 18          individuals holding different offices or functions and an individual holds or exercises more than 19          one of those offices or functions, that individual may sign the ~~document~~ record in more than 20          one capacity, but only if the ~~document~~ record indicates each capacity in which the individual 21          signs.

22          SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-19.1-61.1 of the North
23          Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

24                2. Articles of amendment must be adopted by the board and the shareholders under 25                ~~sections~~ section 10-19.1-19 and, if required, section 10-19.1-20 to effect a division 26                or combination if, as a result of the proposed division or combination:

- 27                    a. The rights or preferences of the holders of outstanding shares of any class or 28                    series will be adversely affected; or 29                    b. The percentage of authorized shares of any class or series remaining 30                    unissued after the division or combination will exceed the percentage of 1 authorized shares of that class or series that were unissued before the 2 division or combination.

3 SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-63 of the North Dakota Century Code is
4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 10-19.1-63. Consideration for shares - Value and payment - Liability.

6 1. ~~Subject to any restrictions in article XII of the articles:~~

7 a. ~~The Constitution of North Dakota,~~ consideration for the issuance of shares 8 may be paid, in whole or in part, in money; in other property, tangible or 9 intangible; or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation.
10 When payment of the consideration for which shares are to be issued is 11 received by the corporation, the shares are considered fully paid and 12 nonassessable. Neither promissory notes nor future services constitute 13 payment or part payment for shares of a corporation.

14 ~~b. Without~~

15 2. Subject to any restrictions in the articles, without any new or additional 16 consideration, a corporation may issue the corporation's own shares in exchange 17 for or in conversion of the corporation's outstanding shares, or may, subject to 18 authorization of share dividends, divisions, and combinations according to section 19 10-19.1-61.1, issue the corporation's own shares pro rata to the corporation's 20 shareholders or the shareholders of one or more classes or series, to effectuate 21 share dividends, divisions, or combinations. Shares of a class or series, shares of 22 which are then outstanding, may not be issued to the holders of shares of another 23 class or series, except in exchange for or in conversion of outstanding shares of 24 the other class or series, unless the issuance is expressly provided for in the 25 articles or is approved at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of a 26 majority of the voting power of all shares of the same class or series as the shares 27 to be issued.

28 ~~2.~~ 3. The determinations of the board or the shareholders as to the amount or fair value 29 or the fairness to the corporation of the consideration received or to be received by 30 the corporation for its shares or the terms of payment, as well as the agreement to 31 issue shares for that consideration, are presumed to be proper if they are made in

1 good faith and on the basis of accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other
2 method, reasonable in the circumstances. Directors or shareholders who are 3 present and entitled to vote, and who, intentionally or without reasonable 4 investigation, fail to vote against approving an issue of shares for a consideration 5 that is unfair to the corporation, or overvalue property or services received or to be 6 received by the corporation as consideration for shares issued, are jointly and 7 severally liable to the corporation for the benefit of the then shareholders who did 8 not consent to and are damaged by the action, to the extent of the damages of 9 those shareholders. A director or shareholder against whom a claim is asserted
10 pursuant to this section, except in case of knowing participation in a deliberate 11 fraud, is entitled to contribution on an equitable basis from other directors or 12 shareholders who are liable under this section.

13 ~~3.~~ 4. A corporation may issue only shares for which the agreed consideration has been 14 fully paid, delivered, or rendered to the corporation:

15 a. The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a 16 corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale 17 or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by the corporation out of 18 the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without rendering the 19 shares not fully paid and nonassessable.

20 b. If shares are issued in violation of this subsection, the following persons are 21 jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the difference between the 22 agreed consideration for the shares and the consideration actually received 23 by the corporation:

24 (1) A director or shareholder who was present and entitled to vote but who 25 failed to vote against the issuance of the shares knowing of the 26 violation;

27 (2) The person to whom the shares were issued; and

28 (3) A successor or transferee of the interest in the corporation of a person
29 described in paragraph 1 or 2, including a purchaser of shares, a 30 subsequent assignee, successor, or transferee, a pledgee, a holder of 31 any other security interest in the assets of the corporation or shares

1 granted by the person described in paragraph 1 or 2, or a legal 2 representative of or for the person or estate of the person, which 3 successor, transferee, purchaser, assignee, pledgee, holder, or 4 representative acquired the interest knowing of the violation.

5 ~~4.~~ 5. A pledgee or holder of any other security interest in all or any shares that have 6 been issued in violation of subsection ~~3 4~~ is not liable under subdivision b of 7 subsection ~~3 4~~ if all those shares are surrendered to the corporation. The 8 surrender does not impair any rights of the pledgee or holder of any other security 9 interest against the pledgor or person granting the security interest.

10 ~~5.~~ 6. A pledgee, holder of any other security interest, or legal representative is liable 11 under subdivision b of subsection ~~3 4~~ only in that capacity. The liability of the 12 person under subdivision a of subsection ~~3 4~~ is limited to the assets held in that 13 capacity for the person or estate of the person described in paragraph 1 or 2 of 14 subdivision b of subsection ~~3 4~~.

15 ~~6.~~ 7. Each person liable under subdivision b of subsection ~~3 4~~ has a full right of 16 contribution on an equitable basis from all other persons liable under that 17 subdivision for the same transaction.

18 ~~7.~~ 8. An action may not be maintained against a person under subdivision b of 19 subsection ~~3 4~~ unless commenced within two years from the date on which shares 20 are issued in violation of subsection ~~3 4~~.

21 SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-19.1-70 of the North Dakota
22 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23 2. A written restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of securities of a 24 corporation which is not manifestly unreasonable under the circumstances and is 25 noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate or included in information 26 sent to the holders of uncertificated shares in accordance with subsection 6 of 27 section 10-19.1-66 may be enforced against the holder of the restricted securities 28 or a successor or transferee of the holder, including a pledgee or a legal 29 representative. Unless noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate 30 or included in information sent to holders of uncertificated shares in accordance 31 with subsection 6 of section 10-19.1-66, a restriction, even though permitted by this

1 section, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction. A 2 restriction under this section is deemed to be noted conspicuously and is effective
3 if the existence of the restriction is stated on the certificate and reference is made 4 to a separate ~~document~~ record creating or describing the restriction.

5 SECTION 15. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-74 of the North Dakota Century Code is
6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7 10-19.1-74. Act of the shareholders.

8 1. Unless this chapter or the articles require a greater vote or voting by class and 9 except for the election of directors which is governed by section 10-19.1-39, the 10 shareholders shall take action by the affirmative vote of the holders of the greater 11 of:

12 a. A majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote on 13 that item of business; or

14 b. A majority of the voting power of the minimum number of shares entitled to 15 vote that would constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the 16 meeting.

17 If the articles require a larger proportion or number than is required by this chapter 18 for a particular action, then the articles control.

19 2. In any case when a class or series of shares is entitled by this chapter, the articles
20 of incorporation, or the terms of the shares to vote as a class or series, the matter
21 being voted upon must also receive the affirmative vote of the owners of the same 22 proportion of the shares as is required as provided in subsection 1, unless the 23 articles of incorporation require a larger proportion. Unless otherwise stated in the 24 articles or the bylaws in the case of voting as a class or series, the minimum 25 percentage of the total voting power of shares of the class or series that must be 26 present is equal to the minimum percentage of all shares entitled to vote required 27 to be present under section 10-19.1-76.

28 3. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, shareholders may take action 29 at a meeting by:

30 a. Voice or ballot;

31 b. Action without a meeting pursuant to section 10-19.1-75;

- 1           c. ~~Written ballot~~ Ballot pursuant to section 10-19.1-75.1; or 2           d. ~~Electronic Remote~~ communication pursuant to section 10-19.1-75.2.

3           SECTION 16. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-75 of the North Dakota
4 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 5           1. If the articles so provide, any action may be taken by written action signed, or 6 consented to by authenticated electronic communication, by the shareholders who 7 own voting power equal to the voting power that would be required to take the 8 same action at a meeting of the shareholders at which all shareholders were 9 present.
- 10          a. After the adoption of the initial articles, an amendment to the articles to permit
11 written action to be taken by less than all shareholders requires the approval 12 of all of the shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment.
- 13          b. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all shareholders, all 14 shareholders must be notified ~~immediately~~ of its text and effective date no 15 later than five days after the effective time of the action.
- 16          ~~b-~~ c. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action.
- 17          ~~e-~~ d. A shareholder who does not sign or consent to the written action has no 18 liability for the action or actions taken by the written actions.

19           SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-75.1 of the North Dakota Century Code
20 is amended and reenacted as follows:

21           10-19.1-75.1. ~~Action~~ Shareholder action by written ballot.

- 22           1. Except as provided in subsection 5 and unless prohibited or limited by the articles 23 or bylaws, an action that may be taken at a regular or special meeting of 24 shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the corporation mails or delivers a 25 ~~written~~ ballot to every shareholder entitled to vote on the matter.
- 26           2. A ~~written~~ ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to 27 vote for or against each proposed action.
- 28           3. Approval by ~~written~~ ballot under this section is valid only if:
- 29           a. The number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to 30 be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and

- 1           b. The number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would 2           be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of 3           votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.
- 4           4. Solicitations for votes by ~~written~~ ballot must:
- 5           a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;
6           b. State the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other 7           than election of directors; and
8           c. Specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in 9           order to be counted.
- 10          5. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a ~~written~~ ballot may not be 11          revoked.
- 12          6. With respect to a ballot by electronic communication:
- 13           a. A corporation may deliver a ballot by electronic communication only if the 14           corporation complies with subsection 4 of section 10-19.1-75.2 as if the ballot
15           were a notice.
- 16           b. Consent by a shareholder to receive notice by electronic communication in a 17           certain manner constitutes consent to receive a ballot by electronic 18           communication in the same manner.

19           SECTION 18. AMENDMENT. Subsection 7 of section 10-19.1-76.2 of the North
20   Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 21           7. Subject to section 10-19.1-76.3 and an express restriction, limitation, or specific 22           reservation of authority of the proxy appearing on the appointment, the corporation
23           may accept a vote or action by the proxy as the action of the shareholder. The 24           vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge, ~~but~~. However, the 25           proxy is liable to the shareholder or beneficial owner for damages resulting from a 26           failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the 27           authority granted in the appointment.

28           SECTION 19. AMENDMENT. Subsections 2 and 3 of section 10-19.1-76.3 of the 29   North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 30           2. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, 31           consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of

- 1 a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent 2 waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:
- 3 a. The shareholder is an organization and the name signed purports to be that of 4 an officer, manager, or agent of the organization;
- 5 b. The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or 6 conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests,
7 evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented 8 with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
- 9 c. The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of 10 the shareholder, and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status 11 acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, 12 consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
- 13 d. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or 14 attorney in fact of the shareholder, and if, the corporation requests, evidence 15 acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the 16 shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or 17 proxy appointment; or
- 18 e. Two or more persons hold the shares as cotenants or fiduciaries and the 19 name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders and the 20 person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders.
- 21 3. The corporation may reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the 22 officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable 23 basis ~~for to~~ doubt about the validity of the signature on it or ~~about the signatory's~~
24 authority of the signatory to sign for the shareholder.

25 SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Subsections 4 and 10 of section 10-19.1-84 of the North
26 Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 27 4. A shareholder or a holder of a voting trust certificate of a corporation that is not a 28 publicly held corporation has an absolute right, upon written demand, to examine 29 and copy, in person or by a legal representative, at any reasonable time, and the 30 corporation shall make available within ten days after receipt by an officer of the 31 corporation of the written demand:

- 1           a.    The share register; and
2           b.    All ~~documents~~ records referred to in subsection 2.
3        10.   Copies of the share register and all ~~documents~~ records referred to in subsection 2, 4           if required to be furnished under this section, must be furnished at the expense of 5           the corporation. In all other cases, the corporation may charge the requesting 6           party a reasonable fee to cover the expenses of providing the copy.

7           SECTION 21. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-87 of the North Dakota Century Code is
8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9           10-19.1-87. Rights of dissenting shareholders.

- 10          1.    A shareholder of a corporation may dissent from, and obtain payment for the fair 11           value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate 12           actions:
13           a.    ~~An~~ Unless otherwise provided in the articles, an amendment of the articles 14           that materially and adversely affects the rights or preferences of the shares of 15           a dissenting shareholder in that it:
16                (1)   Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;
17                (2)   Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of the redemption of the 18                shares, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the 19                redemption or repurchase of shares;
20                (3)   Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to 21                acquire shares, securities other than shares, or rights to purchase 22                shares or securities other than shares; ~~or~~ 23                (4)   Excludes or limits the right of a shareholder to vote on a matter, or to 24                accumulate votes, except as the right may be excluded or limited 25                through the authorization or issuance of securities of an existing or new 26                class or series with similar or different voting rights; or 27                (5)   Eliminates the right to obtain payment under this subdivision;
28           b.    A sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of ~~all or substantially all of the~~ 29           property and assets of the corporation, ~~but not including a transaction~~

17                  to which the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board directs 18                  that dissenting shareholders may obtain payment for their shares.
- 19                  2. A shareholder may not assert dissenters' rights as to less than all of the shares 20                  registered in the name of the shareholder, unless the shareholder dissents with 21                  respect to all the shares that are beneficially owned by another person but 22                  registered in the name of the shareholder and discloses the name and address of 23                  each beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents. In that event, the 24                  rights of the dissenter must be determined as if the shares as to which the 25                  shareholder has dissented and the other shares were registered in the names of 26                  different shareholders. The beneficial owner of shares who is not the shareholder
27                  may assert dissenters' rights with respect to shares held on behalf of the beneficial 28                  owner, and must be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this 29                  section and section 10-19.1-88, if the beneficial owner submits to the corporation at 30                  the time of or before the assertion of the rights a written consent of the 31                  shareholder.

- 1           3. Unless the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board otherwise 2           provide, the right to obtain payment under this section does not apply to the 3           shareholders of:
- 4           a. The surviving corporation in a merger with respect to shares of the 5           shareholders that are not entitled to be voted on the merger and are not 6           canceled or exchanged in the merger; or
- 7           b. The corporation whose shares will be acquired by the acquiring corporation in 8           a plan of exchange with respect to shares of the shareholders that are not 9           entitled to be voted on the plan of exchange and are not exchanged in the 10          plan of exchange.
- 11          4. The shareholders of a corporation who have a right under this section to obtain 12          payment for their shares do not have a right at law or in equity to have a corporate 13          action described in subsection 1 set aside or rescinded, except when the corporate 14          action is fraudulent with regard to the complaining shareholder or the corporation.
- 15          5. If a date is fixed according to subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-73.2 for the 16          determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote on an action
17          described under subsection 1, only shareholders as of the date fixed and beneficial 18          owners as of the date fixed who hold through shareholders, as provided in 19          subsection 2, may exercise dissenters' rights.
- 20          6. Notwithstanding subsection 1, the right to obtain payment under this section, other 21          than in connection with a plan of merger adopted under section 10-19.1-100, is 22          limited in accordance with the following provisions:
- 23          a. The right to obtain payment under this section is not available for the holders
24          of shares of any class or series of shares that is listed on the New York stock
25          exchange or the American stock exchange or designated as a national market
26          system security on an interdealer quotation system by the national association 27          of securities dealers, incorporated.
- 28          b. The applicability of subdivision a is determined as of:
- 29               (1) The record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive 30               notice of, and to vote at, the meeting of shareholders to act upon the 31               corporate action described in subsection 1; or

- 1                   (2) The day before the effective date of corporate action described in 2                                   subsection 1 if there is no meeting of shareholders.
- 3                   c. Subdivision a is not applicable, and the right to obtain payment under this 4                                   section is available pursuant to subsection 1, for the holders of any class or 5                                   series of shares who are required by the terms of the corporate action
6                                   described in subsection 1 to accept for such shares anything other than 7                                   shares, or cash in lieu of fractional shares, of any class or any series of 8                                   shares of the corporation, or any other proprietary interest of any other entity,
9                                   that satisfies the standards set forth in subdivision a at the time the corporate 10                                   action becomes effective.

11                   SECTION 22. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 4 of section 10-19.1-88 of the North
12 Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 13                   3. If the proposed action must be approved by the shareholders, and the corporation 14                                   calls a meeting of shareholders, then a shareholder who is entitled to dissent under 15                                   section 10-19.1-87 and who wishes to exercise dissenter's rights shall file with the 16                                   corporation before the vote on the proposed action a written notice of intent to 17                                   demand the fair value of the shares owned by the shareholder and may not vote 18                                   the shares in favor of the proposed action.
- 19                   4. After the proposed action has been approved by the board and, if necessary, the 20                                   shareholders, the corporation shall send to all shareholders who have complied 21                                   with subsection 3, to all shareholders who did not sign or consent to a written 22                                   action that gave effect to the action creating the right to obtain payment under 23                                   section 10-19.1-87, and to all shareholders entitled to dissent if no shareholder 24                                   vote was required, a notice that contains:
- 25                                   a. The address to which a demand for payment and share certificates must be 26                                   sent in order to obtain payment and the date by which they must be received;
- 27                                   b. A form to be used to certify the date on which the shareholder, or the 28                                   beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired the 29                                   shares or an interest in them and to demand payment; and
- 30                                   c. A copy of section 10-19.1-87 and this section.

1           SECTION 23. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-91 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3           1. For purposes of this section:

4           a. "Corporation" includes a domestic or foreign corporation that was the 5 predecessor of the corporation referred to in this section in a merger or other 6 transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation 7 of the transaction.

8           b. "Official capacity" means:

9           (1) With respect to a director, the position of director in a corporation;

10           (2) With respect to a person other than a director, the elective or appointive 11 office or position held by an officer, member of a committee of the 12 board, or the employment relationship undertaken by an employee of 13 the corporation; and

14           (3) With respect to a director, officer, or employee of the corporation who, 15 while a director, officer, or employee of the corporation, is or was 16 serving at the request of the corporation or whose duties in that position
17 involve or involved service as a governor, director, officer, manager, 18 partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or 19 employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a governor, 20 director, officer, manager, partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the 21 case may be, of the other organization or employee benefit plan.

22           c. "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal,
23 administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding
24 by or in the right of the corporation.

25           d. "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not represented the 26 corporation or a related organization, or a director, officer, member of a 27 committee of the board, or employee whose indemnification is in issue.

28           SECTION 24. Section 10-19.1-102.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
29 enacted as follows:

30           10-19.1-102.1. Continuance of corporate authority. When an act or record is 31 considered necessary or appropriate to evidence the vesting of property or other rights in the

1 single corporation, the persons with authority to do so under the articles or bylaws of each
2 constituent organization shall do the act or execute and deliver the record and for this purpose,
3 the existence of the constituent organizations and the authority of those persons is continued.

4 SECTION 25. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-103 of the North Dakota
5 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 6 1. A domestic corporation may merge with, including a merger pursuant to section 7 10-19.1-100, or participate in an exchange with a foreign corporation or foreign 8 limited liability company by following the procedures set forth in this section, if:
- 9 a. With respect to a merger, the merger is permitted by the laws of the 10 jurisdiction under which the foreign corporation or foreign limited liability 11 company is incorporated or organized.
- 12 b. With respect to an exchange, the constituent organization whose ownership 13 interests will be acquired is a domestic corporation or limited liability company, 14 regardless of whether the exchange is permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction 15 under which the foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company is 16 incorporated or organized.

17 SECTION 26. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-19.1-104 of the North Dakota
18 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 19 2. With respect to shareholders approval:
- 20 a. A corporation, by affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, may 21 sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its 22 property and assets, including its good will, not in the usual and regular 23 course of its business, upon those terms and conditions and for those 24 considerations, which may be money, securities, or other instruments for the 25 payment of money or other property, as the board deems expedient, when 26 approved at a regular or special meeting of the shareholders by the 27 affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares 28 entitled to vote.
- 29 (1) Written notice of the meeting must be given to all shareholders whether 30 or not they are entitled to vote at the meeting.

- 1                   (2)    The written notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to
2                                    consider the sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or 3                                    substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation.
4                   b.    Shareholder approval is not required under subdivision a if, following the sale,
5                                    lease, transfer, or other disposition of its property and assets, the corporation
6                                    retains a significant continuing business activity. The corporation will 7                                    conclusively be deemed to have retained a significant continuing business
8                                    activity if the corporation retains a business activity that represented at least:
9                                    (1)    Twenty-five percent of the corporation's total assets at the end of the 10                                   most recently completed fiscal year; and 11                                   (2)    Twenty-five percent of either income from continuing operations before
12                                   taxes or revenues from continuing operations for that fiscal year, 13                                   measured on a consolidated basis with its subsidiaries for each of 14                                   paragraphs 1 and 2.

15                   SECTION 27. Section 10-19.1-104.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
16 enacted as follows:

17                   10-19.1-104.1. Conversion.

- 18                   1.    An organization other than a corporation may convert to a corporation, and a 19                                    corporation may convert to another organization other than a general partnership 20                                    as provided in this section and sections 10-19.1-104.2 through 10-19.1-104.6 and 21                                    a plan of conversion, if:
22                                    a.    The governing statute of the other organization authorizes the conversion;
23                                    b.    The conversion is not prohibited by the law of the jurisdiction that enacted the 24                                    governing statute; and 25                                    c.    The other organization complies with its governing statute in effecting the 26                                    conversion.
27                   2.    For the purposes of sections 10-19.1-104.1 through 10-19.1-104.6, unless the

26                   SECTION 28. Section 10-19.1-104.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
27 enacted as follows:

28                   10-19.1-104.2. Plan of conversion. A plan of conversion must be in a record and 29 must contain:

- 30                   1. The name and form of the converting organization before conversion;
31                   2. The name and form of the converted organization after conversion;

- 1           3.   The terms and conditions of the proposed conversion;
- 2           4.   The manner and basis of converting each ownership interest in the converting
- 3                 organization into ownership interests in the converted organization or, in whole or
- 4                 in part, into money or other property;
- 5           5.   The organizational records of the converted organization; and
- 6           6.   Any other provisions with respect to the proposed conversion that are deemed
- 7                 necessary or desirable.

8           SECTION 29. Section 10-19.1-104.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
9 enacted as follows:

10           10-19.1-104.3. Plan approval and amendment.

- 11           1.   If the converting organization is a corporation, then:
  - 12                 a.   A resolution containing or amending the plan of conversion must be approved
  - 13                 by an act of the board of the converting corporation and must then be
  - 14                 approved by an act of its shareholders.
    - 15                         (1)   In the action by the shareholders, a class or series of shares is entitled
    - 16                         to vote as a class or series on the approval or amendment of the plan.
    - 17                         (2)   Any amendment of the plan shall be subject to any contractual rights.
  - 18                 b.   If the resolution containing or amending the plan of conversion is approved by
  - 19                 the shareholders:
    - 20                         (1)   At a shareholder meeting, then:
      - 21                                 (a)   Written notice must be given to every shareholder of the
      - 22                                 converting corporation, whether or not entitled to vote at the
      - 23                                 meeting, not less than fourteen days nor more than fifty days
      - 24                                 before the meeting, in the manner provided in section 10-19.1-73.
      - 25                                 (b)   The written notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to
      - 26                                 consider the proposed plan of conversion or an amendment to it.
      - 27                                 (c)   A copy or short description of the plan of conversion or the
      - 28                                 amendment to it must be included in or enclosed with the notice.
    - 29                         (2)   By a written action of the shareholders, then a copy or short description
    - 30                         of the plan of conversion or the amendment to it must be included in or
    - 31                         attached to the written action.

1           2. If the converting organization is not a corporation, then the approval and 2                   amendment of the plan of conversion must comply with its governing statute in 3                   effecting the conversion.

4           SECTION 30. Section 10-19.1-104.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
5 enacted as follows:

6           10-19.1-104.4. Articles of conversion.

7           1. Upon receiving the approval required by section 10-19.1-104.3, articles of 8                   conversion must be prepared in a record that must contain:

9                   a. A statement that the converting organization is being converted into another
10                   organization including:

11                           (1) The name of the converting organization immediately before the filing of 12                           the articles of conversion;

13                           (2) The name to which the name of the converting organization is to be 14                           changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the laws applicable to the 15                           converted organization;

16                           (3) The form of organization that the converted organization will be; and

17                           (4) The jurisdiction of the governing statute of the converted organization;

18                   b. A statement that the plan of conversion has been approved by the converting
19                   organization as provided in section 10-19.1-104.3;

20                   c. A statement that the plan of conversion has been approved as required by the 21                   governing statute of the converted organization;

22                   d. The plan of conversion;

23                   e. A copy of the originating record of the converted organization; and

24                   f. If the converted organization is a foreign organization not authorized to 25                   transact business or conduct activities in this state, then the street and mailing 26                   address of an office which the secretary of state may use for the purposes of 27                   subsection 4 of section 10-19.1-104.6.

28           2. The articles of conversion must be signed on behalf of the converting organization
29                   and filed with the secretary of state.

30                   a. If the converted organization is a domestic organization:

- 1           a. If the converting organization is a corporation, then:
- 2               (1) Before a plan of conversion has been approved by the converting
- 3               corporation as provided in section 10-19.1-104.3, it may be abandoned
- 4               by an act of its board.
- 5               (2) After a plan of conversion has been approved by the converting
- 6               corporation as provided in section 10-19.1-104.3, and before the
- 7               effective date of the plan, it may be abandoned:
- 8                   (a) If the shareholders of the converting corporation entitled to vote
- 9                   on the approval of the plan as provided in section 10-19.1-104.3
- 10                  have approved the abandonment by an act of the shareholders;
- 11                  or
- 12                  (b) If the plan provides for abandonment and if all conditions for
- 13                  abandonment set forth in the plan are met.
- 14           b. If the converting organization is not a corporation, then the abandonment of
- 15           the plan of conversion must comply with its governing statute.
- 16       2. If articles of conversion have been filed with the secretary of state, but have not yet
- 17       become effective, then the converting organization shall file with the secretary of
- 18       state articles of abandonment that contain:
- 19           a. The name of the converting organization;
- 20           b. The provision of this section under which the plan is abandoned; and
- 21           c. If the plan is abandoned:
- 22               (1) By an act of the board under paragraph 1 of subdivision a of
- 23               subsection 1, or by an act of the shareholders under subparagraph b of
- 24               paragraph 2 of subdivision a of subsection 1, then the text of the
- 25               resolution abandoning the plan; or
- 26               (2) As provided in the plan under subparagraph b of paragraph 2 of
- 27               subdivision a of subsection 1, then a statement that the plan provides
- 28               for abandonment and that all conditions for abandonment set forth in
- 29               the plan are met.

30           SECTION 32. Section 10-19.1-104.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
31 enacted as follows:

- 1           10-19.1-104.6. Effective date of conversion - Effect.
- 2           1.   A conversion is effective when the filing requirements of subsection 2 of section
- 3                 10-19.1-104.4 have been fulfilled or on a later date specified in the articles of
- 4                 conversion.
- 5           2.   With respect to the effect of conversion on the converting organization and on the
- 6                 converted organization:
- 7                 a.   An organization that has been converted as provided in sections
- 8                         10-19.1-104.1 through 10-19.1-104.6 is for all purposes the same entity that
- 9                         existed before the conversion.
- 10                b.   Upon a conversion becoming effective:
- 11                       (1)   If the converted organization:
- 12                                 (a)   Is a corporation, then the converted organization has all the
- 13   rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and is subject to all the
- 14   duties and liabilities, of a corporation incorporated under this
- 15   chapter; or
- 16                                 (b)   Is not a corporation, then the converted organization has all the
- 17   rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and is subject to the
- 18   duties and liabilities as provided in its governing statute;
- 19                       (2)   All property owned by the converting organization remains vested in the
- 20                                 converted organization;
- 21                       (3)   All debts, liabilities, and other obligations of the converting organization
- 22                                 continue as obligations of the converted organization;
- 23                       (4)   An action or proceeding pending by or against the converting
- 24                                 organization may be continued as if the conversion has not occurred;
- 25                       (5)   Except as otherwise provided by other law, all rights, privileges,
- 26                                 immunities, and powers of the converting organization remain vested in
- 27                                 the converted organization; and
- 28                       (6)   Except as otherwise provided in the plan of conversion, the terms and
- 29                                 conditions of the plan of conversion take effect.
- 30           3.   When a conversion becomes effective, each ownership interest in the converting
- 31                 organization is deemed to be converted into ownership interests in the converted

- 1           organization or, in whole or in part, into money or other property to be received
2           under the plan, subject to any dissenters' rights under section 10-19.1-87.
- 3           4. A converted organization that is a foreign organization consents to the jurisdiction
4           of the courts of this state to enforce any obligation owed by the converting limited
5           partnership, if before the conversion the converting limited partnership was subject 6           to suit in this state on the obligation.
- 7           5. A converted organization that is a foreign organization and not authorized to 8           transact business in this state appoints the secretary of state as its agent for 9           service of process for purposes of enforcing an obligation under this subsection.

10           SECTION 33. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-110 of the North Dakota
11 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 12           1. If notice to creditors and claimants is given, it must be given by:
- 13           a. Publishing the notice once each week for four successive weeks in an official 14           newspaper, as defined in chapter 46-06, in the county or counties where the 15           registered office and the principal executive office of the corporation are 16           located; and
- 17           b. Giving written notice to known creditors and claimants pursuant to 18           subsection ~~32~~ 35 of section 10-19.1-01.

19           SECTION 34. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-129 of the North Dakota Century Code
20 is amended and reenacted as follows:

21           10-19.1-129. Service of process on corporation, foreign corporation, and 22 nonresident directors.

- 23           1. The registered agent must be an agent of the corporation and any nonresident
24           director upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to 25           be served on the corporation or director may be served.
- 26           a. When a foreign corporation transacts business without a certificate of 27           authority, or when the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation is 28           suspended or revoked, the secretary of state is an agent of the foreign 29           corporation for service of process, notice, or demand.
- 30           b. Acceptance of a directorship includes the appointment of the secretary of 31           state as an agent for personal service of legal process, notice, or demand.

- 1           2. A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a 2           corporation may be served ~~either upon:~~
- 3           a. On the registered agent of the corporation, ~~or upon:~~
4           b. On an officer of the corporation;
5           c. On any responsible person found at the registered office or at the principal 6           executive office; or ~~upon~~
7           d. On the secretary of state as provided in this section.
- 8           3. If neither the ~~corporation's~~ registered agent nor ~~an officer of the corporation~~ a 9           responsible person can be found at the registered office, or if a ~~corporation fails to~~
10           ~~maintain a registered agent in this state and an officer of the corporation~~
11           responsible person cannot be found at the ~~registered office~~ principal executive

9 ~~foreign corporation is suspended or revoked, the secretary of state is an agent of the foreign~~
10 ~~corporation for service of process, notices, or demand.~~

11           SECTION 37. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1, 2, 4, and 6 of section 10-19.1-146 of the 12 North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 13           1. Each corporation and each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in 14           this state shall file, within the time ~~prescribed by~~ provided in subsection 3, an 15           annual report setting forth:
- 16           a. The name of the corporation or foreign corporation and the state or country 17           under the laws of which the corporation or foreign corporation is incorporated.
  - 18           b. The address of the registered office of the corporation or foreign corporation
19           in this state, the name of the corporation's or foreign corporation's registered 20           agent in this state at that address, and the address of the corporation's or 21           foreign corporation's principal executive office.
  - 22           c. A brief statement of the character of the business in which the corporation or 23           foreign corporation is actually engaged in this state.
  - 24           d. The names and respective addresses of the officers and directors of the 25           corporation or foreign corporation.
  - 26           e. A statement of the aggregate number of shares the corporation or foreign 27           corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes, par value of shares, 28           shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.
  - 29           f. A statement of the aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes, 30           par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a 31           class.

- 1 g. A statement, expressed in dollars, of the value of all the property owned by 2 the corporation, wherever located, and the value of the property of the 3 corporation located within this state, and a statement, expressed in dollars, of 4 the total gross income of the corporation for the twelve months ending on 5 December thirty-first preceding the date provided under this section for the 6 filing of the annual report and the gross amount accumulated by the 7 corporation at or from places of business in this state. If, on December 8 thirty-first preceding the time provided under this section for the filing of the 9 report, the corporation had not been in existence for a period of twelve 10 months, or, in the case of a foreign corporation, had not been authorized to 11 transact business in this state for a period of twelve months, the statement 12 with respect to total gross income must be furnished for the period between 13 the date of incorporation or the date of the corporation's authorization to 14 transact business in this state and December thirty-first.
- 15 h. Any additional information necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of 16 state to determine and assess the proper amount of fees payable by the 17 corporation.
- 18 2. The annual report must be submitted on forms prescribed by the secretary of state.
19 The information provided must be given as of the date of the execution of the 20 report except as to the information required by subdivision g of subsection 1 which 21 must be given as of the close of business on December thirty-first next preceding 22 the date herein provided for the filing of the report, or, in the alternative, data of the 23 fiscal year ending next preceding this report may be used. The annual report must 24 be signed as ~~prescribed~~ provided in subsection ~~48~~ 51 of section 10-19.1-01, or the 25 articles or the bylaws or a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of the 26 required proportion or number of the directors or holders of shares entitled to vote.
27 If the corporation or foreign corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, it 28 must be signed on behalf of the corporation or foreign corporation by the receiver 29 or trustee. The secretary of state may destroy all annual reports provided for in 30 this section after they have been on file for six years. The secretary of state, or 31 any employee or legal representative of the secretary of state, may not disclose the

1 information reported under subdivision g of subsection 1 to any person, except a 2 person who is verified to be a shareholder of the corporation or foreign corporation, 3 a legal representative of the shareholder for which information is requested, or to 4 the tax commissioner or any employee or legal representative of the tax
5 commissioner, who may not disclose the information and may use the information 6 only for the administration of the tax laws.

7 4. The secretary of state must file the annual report if the annual report conforms to 8 the requirements of this section and all fees have been paid as provided in section 9 10-19.1-147.

10 a. If the annual report does not conform, it must be returned to the corporation or 11 foreign corporation for any necessary correction or payment.

12 b. If the annual report is corrected and filed before the date provided in 13 subsection 3, or within thirty days after the annual report was returned by the 14 secretary of state for correction, then the penalties ~~prescribed~~ provided in 15 section 10-19.1-147 for the failure to file an annual report within the time 16 provided do not apply.

17 6. ~~Within three~~ Three months after the date provided in subsection 3, ~~the secretary of~~ 18 ~~state shall notify~~ any corporation or foreign corporation failing to file its annual 19 report is not in good standing. After the corporation or foreign corporation 20 becomes not in good standing, the secretary of state shall notify the corporation or 21 foreign corporation that its certificate of incorporation or certificate of authority is 22 not in good standing and that it may be dissolved or revoked as provided in 23 subsection 7 or 8.

24 a. The secretary of state must mail the notice of impending dissolution or 25 revocation to the last registered agent at the last registered office of record.

26 b. If the corporation or foreign corporation files its annual report after the notice 27 is mailed, together with the filing fee and the late filing penalty fee provided in 28 section 10-19.1-147, then the secretary of state shall restore its certificate of 29 incorporation or certificate of authority to good standing.

30 SECTION 38. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-147 of the North Dakota Century Code
31 is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 1           10-19.1-147. Fees for filing ~~documents~~ records - Issuing certificates - License
- 2 fees. The secretary of state shall charge and collect for:
- 3           1. Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, thirty
- 4           dollars.
- 5           2. Filing articles of amendment, twenty dollars.
- 6           3. Filing articles of correction, twenty dollars.
- 7           4. Filing restated articles of incorporation, thirty dollars.
- 8           5. Filing articles of conversion of a corporation, fifty dollars and:
- 9           a. If the organization resulting from the conversion will be a domestic
- 10           organization governed by the laws of this state, then the fees provided by the
- 11           governing laws to establish or register a new organization like the
- 12           organization resulting from the conversion; or
- 13           b. If the organization resulting from the conversion will be a foreign organization
- 14           that will transact business in this state, then the fees provided by the
- 15           governing laws to obtain a certificate of authority or register an organization
- 16           like the organization resulting from the conversion.
- 17           6. Filing abandonment of conversion, fifty dollars.
- 18           4: 7. Filing articles of merger or consolidation and issuing a certificate of merger or
- 19           consolidation, fifty dollars.
- 20           5: 8. Filing articles of abandonment of merger, fifty dollars.
- 21           6: 9. Filing an application to reserve a corporate name, ten dollars.
- 22           7: 10. Filing a notice of transfer of a reserved corporate name, ten dollars.
- 23           8: 11. Filing a cancellation of reserved corporate name, ten dollars.
- 24           9: 12. Filing a consent to use of name, ten dollars.
- 25           10: 13. Filing a statement of change of address of registered office or change of registered
- 26           agent, or both, ten dollars.
- 27           11: 14. Filing a statement of change of address of registered office by registered agent, ten
- 28           dollars for each corporation affected by such change.
- 29           12: 15. Filing a registered agent's consent to serve in such capacity, ten dollars.
- 30           13: 16. Filing a resignation as registered agent, ten dollars.
- 31           14: 17. Filing a statement of the establishment of a series of shares, twenty dollars.

- 1    ~~27.~~ 30.    License fee of fifty dollars for the first fifty thousand dollars of a corporation's
2                    authorized shares, or fraction, and the further sum of ten dollars if paid at the time
3                    of authorization, or twelve dollars if paid after authorized shares are issued, for 4                    every additional ten thousand dollars of its authorized shares, or fraction thereof, in 5                    excess of fifty thousand dollars.
- 6                    a.    A license fee is payable by a corporation at the time of:
- 7                            (1)    Filing articles of incorporation;
- 8                            (2)    Filing articles of amendment increasing the number or value of 9    authorized shares; or
- 10                            (3)    Filing articles of merger or consolidation increasing the number or value 11    of authorized shares a surviving or new corporation will have authority 12    to issue above the aggregate number or value of shares the constituent 13    corporations had authority to issue.
- 14                    b.    A license fee payable on an increase in authorized shares must be imposed 15    only on the additional shares, but the amount of previously authorized shares 16    must be taken into account in determining the rate applicable to the additional 17    authorized shares.
- 18                    c.    For the purposes of this subsection, shares without par value are considered 19    worth one dollar per share.
- 20                    d.    The minimum sum of fifty dollars must be paid for authorized shares at the 21    time of filing articles of incorporation.
- 22                    e.    A corporation increasing authorized shares by articles of amendment or 23    articles of merger must have previously paid for a minimum of fifty thousand 24    dollars of authorized shares.
- 25                            (1)    Thereafter, a corporation may postpone the payment for any additional 26    amount until the filing of an annual report after the unpaid shares are 27    issued.
- 28                            (2)    Any additional amount must be paid in increments of ten thousand 29    dollars of authorized shares.
- 30                    f.    The provisions of this subsection do not apply to a building and loan or 31    savings and loan association.

1    ~~28.~~ 31.    License fee of eighty-five dollars from each foreign corporation at the time of filing
2                    an application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

3                    Thereafter, the secretary of state shall fix the license fee for each foreign 4                    corporation as follows:

5                    a.    The secretary of state shall first ascertain the license fee which a newly 6                    organized corporation would be required to pay if it had authorized shares of 7                    the same kind and amount as the issued or allotted shares of the reporting
8                    foreign corporation shown by its filed annual report.

9                    b.    Said amount must be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which must be 10                    the sum of the value of the property of the foreign corporation located in this 11                    state and the gross receipts of the foreign corporation derived from that 12                    foreign corporation's business transacted within this state, and the 13                    denominator of which must be the sum of the value of all of that foreign 14                    corporation's property wherever located and the gross receipts of the foreign 15                    corporation derived from that foreign corporation's business wherever 16                    transacted. The amounts used in determining the numerator and 17                    denominator must be determined from the foreign corporation's filed annual 18                    report.

19                    c.    From the product of such multiplication, there must be deducted the 20                    aggregate amount of license fee previously paid by the foreign corporation, 21                    and the remainder, if any, must be the amount of additional fee to be paid by 22                    the foreign corporation.

23                    The secretary of state shall enter the amount of any additional license fee in the 24                    records of the foreign corporation in the secretary of state's office and shall mail a 25                    notice of the amount of additional license fee due to the foreign corporation at the 26                    foreign corporation's principal office. The additional license fee must be paid by 27                    the foreign corporation before the annual report may be filed by the secretary of 28                    state. Amounts less than five dollars are not collected.

29    ~~29.~~ 32.    Any ~~document~~ record submitted for approval before the actual time of submission
30                    for filing, one-half of the fee provided in this section for filing the ~~document~~ record.

31    ~~30.~~ 33.    Filing any other statement of a corporation or foreign corporation, ten dollars.

1           SECTION 39. AMENDMENT. Section 10-19.1-148 of the North Dakota Century Code
2 is amended and reenacted as follows:

3           10-19.1-148. Secretary of state - Powers - Enforcement - Penalty - Appeal.

- 4           1. The secretary of state has the power and authority reasonably necessary to 5           efficiently administer this chapter and to perform the duties imposed thereby.
- 6           2. The secretary of state may propound to any corporation or foreign corporation that 7           is subject to this chapter and to any officer, director, or employee thereof, any 8           interrogatory reasonably necessary and proper to ascertain whether the 9           corporation has complied with all provisions of this chapter applicable to the 10          corporation.
- 11          a. The interrogatory must be answered within thirty days after mailing, or within 12          any additional time as must be fixed by the secretary of state. The answer to 13          the interrogatory must be full and complete and must be made in writing and 14          under oath.
- 15          b. If the interrogatory is directed:
- 16             (1) To an individual, it must be answered by that individual; or 17             (2) To a corporation, it must be answered by the president, vice president,
18             secretary, or assistant secretary of the corporation.
- 19          c. The secretary of state is not required to file any ~~document~~ record to which the 20          interrogatory relates until the interrogatory has been answered, and not then if 21          the answers disclose the ~~document~~ record is not in conformity with this 22          chapter.
- 23          d. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for action the 24          attorney general may deem appropriate, an interrogatory and answers
25          thereto, which discloses a violation of this chapter.
- 26          e. Each officer, director, or employee of a corporation or foreign corporation who 27          fails or refuses within the time provided by subdivision a to answer truthfully
28          and fully an interrogatory propounded to that person by the secretary of state
29          is guilty of an infraction.
- 30          f. An interrogatory propounded by the secretary of state and the answers are 31          not open to public inspection. The secretary of state may not disclose any

1 facts or information obtained from the interrogatory or answers except insofar
2 as permitted by law or insofar as required for evidence in any criminal 3 proceedings or other action by this state.

4 3. If the secretary of state rejects any ~~document~~ record required by this chapter to be
5 approved by the secretary of state before the ~~document~~ record may be filed, then 6 the secretary of state shall give written notice of the rejection to the person who
7 delivered the ~~document~~ record, specifying the reasons for rejection.

8 a. ~~From such rejection the person~~ Within thirty days after the service of the

- 19                   1.    A person knows or has knowledge of a fact if the person has actual knowledge of 20                               it. A person does not know or have knowledge of a fact merely because the 21                               person has reason to know or have knowledge of the fact.
- 22                   2.    A person has notice of a fact if the person:
- 23                               a.    Knows of the fact;
- 24                               b.    Has received notice of the fact as provided in subsection 42 of section 25                               10-32-02;
- 26                               c.    Has reason to know the fact exists from all of the facts known to the person at 27                               the time in question; or
- 28                               d.    Has notice of it under subsection 3.
- 29                   3.    Subject to subsection 8, a person has notice of:
- 30                               a.    The intention of a limited liability company to dissolve, ninety days after the 31                               effective date of the filed notice of dissolution;

- 1            b. The dissolution of a limited liability company, ninety days after the effective 2            date of the filed articles of dissolution;
- 3            c. The conversion of a limited liability company, ninety days after the effective 4            date of the filed articles of conversion; or
- 5            d. The merger of the limited liability company, ninety days after the effective date 6            of the filed articles of merger.
- 7            4. A person notifies or gives a notification to another person by taking the steps
8            provided in subsection 42 of section 10-32-03, whether or not the other person
9            learns of it.
- 10           5. A person receives a notification as provided in subsection 42 of section 10-32-02.
- 11           6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7 and except as otherwise provided in 12           subsection 42 of section 10-32-02, a person other than an individual knows, has
13           notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction
14           when the individual conducting the transaction for the person knows, has notice, or 15           receives a notification of the fact, or in any event when the fact would have been 16           brought to the attention of the individual if the person had exercised reasonable 17           diligence.
- 18           a. A person other than an individual exercises reasonable diligence if it
19           maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the 20           individual conducting the transaction for the person and there is reasonable

30           the manager or governor. Knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact

1 relating to the limited liability company by a manager or governor is not effective as 2 knowledge by, notice to, or receipt of a notification by the limited liability company.

3 8. Notice otherwise effective under subsection 3 does not affect the power of a
4 person to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company
5 unless at the time of transfer a certified copy of the relevant statement, 6 amendment, or articles, as filed with the secretary of state, has been recorded in 7 the office of the county recorder in the county in which the real property affected by 8 the statement, amendment, or articles is located.

9 9. With respect to notice given by a form of electronic communication:

10 a. Consent by a manager or governor to notice given by electronic 11 communication may be given in writing or by authenticated electronic 12 communication. The limited liability company is entitled to rely on any 13 consent so given until revoked by the manager or governor. However, no 14 revocation affects the validity of any notice given before receipt by the limited 15 liability company of revocation of the consent.

16 b. An affidavit of a manager or governor or authorized agent of the limited 17 liability company that the notice has been given by a form of electronic 18 communication is, in the absence of fraud, prima facie evidence of the facts 19 stated in the affidavit.

21          SECTION 52. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is
22 amended and reenacted as follows:

23          10-32-17. Class or series voting on amendments. The owners of the outstanding 24 membership interests of a class or series are entitled to vote as a class or series upon a 25 proposed amendment to the articles of organization, whether or not entitled to vote on the 26 amendment by the provisions of the articles of organization, if the amendment would:

- 27          1. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the membership 28          interests of the class or series, or effect a combination of outstanding membership 29          interests of a class or series into a lesser number of membership interests of the 30          class or series where each other class or series is not subject to a similar 31          combination;

- 1           2.    Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the
- 2                    membership interests of another class or series for the membership interests of the
- 3                    class or series;
- 4           3.    Change the rights or preferences of the membership interests of the class or
- 5                    series;
- 6           4.    ~~Change the membership interests of the class or series into the same or a different~~
- 7                    ~~number of membership interests of another class or series;~~
- 8           ~~5.~~ 5.    Create a new class or series of membership interests having rights and
- 9                    preferences prior and superior to the membership interests of that class or series,
- 10                   or increase the rights and preferences or the number of membership interests, of a
- 11                   class or series having rights and preferences prior or superior to the membership
- 12                   interests of that class or series;
- 13    ~~6.~~ 5.    Divide the membership interests of the class into series and determine the
- 14                    designation of each series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences
- 15                    between the membership interests of each series or authorize the board to do so;
- 16    ~~7.~~ 6.    Limit or deny any existing preemptive rights of the membership interests of the
- 17                    class or series; or
- 18    ~~8.~~ 7.    Cancel or otherwise affect distributions on the membership interests of the class or
- 19                    series.

20           SECTION 53. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is
21 amended and reenacted as follows:

22           10-32-20. Filing of articles of amendment. An original of the articles of amendment
23 must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of 24 amendment conform to law, and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-32-150,
25 then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state. A 26 limited liability company that amends its name and is the owner of a trademark or trade name,
27 is a general partner named in a fictitious name certificate, or is a general partner in a limited
28 partnership that is on file with the secretary of state must change or amend the limited liability 29 company's name in each registration when the limited liability company files an amendment.

30           SECTION 54. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-24 of the North Dakota Century Code is
31 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           10-32-24. Limited liability company seal. A limited liability company may have a
2 limited liability company seal. The use or nonuse of a limited liability company seal does not
3 affect the validity, recordability, or enforceability of a ~~document~~ record or act. If a limited liability
4 company has a limited liability company seal, the use of the seal by the limited liability company
5 on a ~~document~~ record is not necessary.

6           SECTION 55. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-42 of the North Dakota Century Code is
7 amended and reenacted as follows:

8           10-32-42. Act of members. Unless this chapter or the articles of organization require 9 a greater vote or voting by class or series:

10           1. ~~The~~ Unless this chapter or the articles or a member-control agreement require a 11 larger proportion or voting by class and except for the election of governors which 12 is governed by section 10-32-76, the members shall take action by the affirmative 13 vote of the owners of the greater of a:

14           a. A majority of the voting power of the membership interests present and 15 entitled to vote on that item of business; or a

16           b. A majority of the voting power of the membership interests with voting rights 17 that would constitute the minimum voting power needed for a quorum for the 18 transaction of business at a meeting, ~~except if this chapter, the articles of~~ 19 ~~organization, or a member-control agreement require a larger proportion.~~

20           If the articles or a member-control agreement require a larger proportion than is 21 required by this chapter for a particular action, then the articles or member-control 22 agreement control.

23           2. In any case when a class or series of membership interests is entitled by this 24 chapter, the articles of organization, a member-control agreement, or the terms of 25 the membership interests to vote as a class or series, the matter being voted upon 26 must also receive the affirmative vote of the owners of the same proportion of the 27 membership interests as is required pursuant to subsection 1, unless the articles of 28 organization or a member-control agreement requires a larger proportion. Unless 29 otherwise stated in the articles, a member-control agreement or the bylaws in the 30 case of voting as a class or series, the minimum percentage of the total voting 31 power of membership interests of the class or series that must be present is equal

1 to the minimum percentage of all membership interests entitled to vote required to 2 be present under section 10-32-44.

3 3. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, a member-control
4 agreement, or the bylaws, members may take action at a meeting by ~~voice~~;

5 a. Voice or ballot, ~~action~~;

6 b. Action without a meeting pursuant to section 10-32-43, ~~written ballot~~;

7 c. Ballot pursuant to section 10-32-43.1; ~~or by electronic~~

8 d. Remote communication pursuant to section 10-32-43.2.

9 SECTION 56. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-32-43 of the North Dakota
10 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

11 1. If the articles or a member-control agreement so provide, any action may be taken 12 by written action signed, or consented to by authenticated electronic 13 communication, by the members who own voting power equal to the voting power 14 that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the members at 15 which all members were present. After the adoption of the initial articles or the first 16 making of a member-control agreement, an amendment to the articles or to a 17 member-control agreement to permit written action to be taken by less than all 18 members requires the approval of all the members entitled to vote on the 19 amendment.

20 SECTION 57. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-43.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
21 amended and reenacted as follows:

22 10-32-43.1. ~~Action~~ Member action by written ballot.

23 1. Except as provided in subsection 5, and unless prohibited or limited by the articles 24 or the bylaws, an action that may be taken at a regular or special meeting of 25 members may be taken without a meeting if the limited liability company mails or 26 delivers a ~~written~~ ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter.

27 2. A ~~written~~ ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to 28 vote for or against each proposed action.

29 3. Approval by ~~written~~ ballot under this section is valid only if:

30 a. The number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to 31 be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and

- 1           b. The number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would
2           be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of 3           votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.
- 4           4. Solicitations for votes by ~~written~~ ballot must:
- 5           a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;
6           b. State the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other 7           than election of governors; and 8           c. Specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the limited liability 9           company in order to be counted.
- 10          5. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or the bylaws, a written ballot may not 11          be revoked.
- 12          6. With respect to a ballot by electronic communication:
- 13           a. A limited liability company may deliver a ballot by electronic communication 14           only if the limited liability company complies with subsection 4 of section 15           10-32-43.2 as if the ballot were a notice.
- 16           b. Consent by a member to receive notice by electronic communication in a 17           certain manner constitutes consent to receive a ballot by electronic 18           communication in the same manner.

19           SECTION 58. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-32-51 of the North Dakota
20 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 21           2. A member of a limited liability company has an absolute right, upon written 22           demand, to examine and copy, in person or by a legal representative, at any 23           reasonable time, and the limited liability company shall make available within ten 24           days after receipt by a manager of the limited liability company of the written 25           demand, all ~~documents~~ records referred to in subsection 1.

26           SECTION 59. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-53 of the North Dakota Century Code is
27 amended and reenacted as follows:

- 28           10-32-53. Actions by members. No action may be brought in this state for violations 29 of this chapter by a member in the right of a ~~domestic~~ limited liability company or foreign limited 30 liability company unless the plaintiff is a member at the time of the transaction of which the

1 plaintiff complains, or the plaintiff's membership interests thereafter devolved upon the plaintiff
2 by operation of law from a person who was a member at such time.

3 1. In any action thereafter instituted in the right of any ~~domestic~~ limited liability 4 company or foreign limited liability company by the member, the court having 5 jurisdiction, upon final judgment and finding that the action was brought without 6 reasonable cause, may require the plaintiff to pay the parties named as defendant
7 the reasonable expenses, including fees of attorneys, incurred by them in defense 8 of such action.

9 2. In any action now pending or hereafter instituted or maintained in the right of any 10 ~~domestic~~ limited liability company or foreign limited liability company by the owner
11 of less than five percent of the membership interests, unless the membership 12 interest of such owner has a market value in excess of twenty-five thousand 13 dollars, the limited liability company in whose right such action is brought is entitled 14 at any time before final judgment to require the plaintiff to give security for the 15 reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, that may be incurred by it in 16 connection with such action or may be incurred by other parties named as 17 defendant for which it may become legally liable.

18 a. Market value must be determined on the date the plaintiff institutes the action 19 or, in the case of an intervenor, on the date the intervenor becomes a party to 20 the action.

21 b. The amount of the security may from time to time be increased or decreased, 22 in the discretion of the court, upon showing that the security provided has or 23 may become inadequate or is excessive.

24 c. The limited liability company has recourse to such security in such amount as 25 the court having jurisdiction determines upon the termination of the action, 26 whether or not the court finds the action was brought without reasonable 27 cause.

28 SECTION 60. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-54 of the North Dakota Century Code is
29 amended and reenacted as follows:

30 10-32-54. Rights of dissenting members.

- 1           1. Subject to a member-control agreement under section 10-32-50, a member of a 2           limited liability company may dissent from, and obtain payment for the fair value of 3           the member's membership interests in the event of, any of the following limited 4           liability company actions:
- 5           a. ~~An~~ Unless otherwise provided in the articles, an amendment of the articles of 6           organization, but not an amendment to a member-control agreement, which 7           materially and adversely affects the rights or preferences of the membership 8           interests of the dissenting member in that it:
- 9           (1) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the membership interests;
10          (2) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of the redemption of the 11          membership interests, including a provision respecting a sinking fund 12          for the redemption or repurchase of the membership interests;
13          (3) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the owner of the membership
14          interests to make a contribution;
15          (4) Excludes or limits the right of a member to vote on a matter, or to 16          cumulate votes, except as the right may be excluded or limited through 17          the acceptance of contributions or the making of contribution 18          agreements pertaining to membership interests with similar or different 19          voting rights;
20          (5) Changes a member's right to resign or retire; ~~or~~ 21          (6) Establishes or changes the conditions for or consequences of 22          expulsion; or
23          (7) Eliminates the right to obtain payment under this subdivision;
- 24          b. A sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of ~~all or substantially all of the~~ 25          property and assets of the limited liability company, ~~but not including a~~ 26          ~~transaction permitted without~~ that requires member approval under 27          subsection 2 of section 10-32-108, a but not including:
- 28          (1) A disposition in dissolution described in subsection 4 of section 29          10-32-113, ~~a~~;
30          (2) A disposition pursuant to an order of a court; ~~i~~ or a

- 1                   (3) A disposition for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of 2                   the net proceeds of disposition be distributed to the members in 3                   accordance with the member's respective membership interests within 4                   one year after the date of disposition;
- 5                   c. A plan of merger to which the limited liability company is a constituent 6                   organization;
- 7                   d. A plan of exchange to which the limited liability company is a constituent 8                   organization as the organization whose ownership interests will be acquired 9                   by the acquiring organization if the membership interests being acquired are 10                  entitled to be voted on the plan; ~~or~~
- 11                  e. A plan of conversion adopted by the limited liability company; or
- 12                  f. Any other limited liability company action taken pursuant to a member vote 13                  with respect to which the articles of organization, a member-control 14                  agreement, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board directs that 15                  dissenting members may obtain payment for the dissenting members' 16                  membership interests.
- 17                  2. A member may not assert dissenters' rights as to less than all the membership 18                  interests registered in the name of the member, unless the member dissents with 19                  respect to all the membership interests that are beneficially owned by another 20                  person but registered in the name of the member and discloses the name and 21                  address of each beneficial owner on which behalf the member dissents. In that 22                  event, the rights of the dissenter must be determined as if the membership
23                  interests as to which the member has dissented and the other membership
24                  interests were registered in the names of different members. The beneficial owner 25                  of membership interests who is not the member may assert dissenters' rights with 26                  respect to membership interests held on behalf of the beneficial owner, and must 27                  be treated as a dissenting member under the terms of this section and section
28                  10-32-55, if the beneficial owner submits to the limited liability company at the time 29                  of or before the assertion of the rights a written consent of the member.

- 1           3. Unless the articles, the bylaws, a member-control agreement, or a resolution 2           approved by the board otherwise provide, the right to obtain payment under this 3           section does not apply to the members of:
- 4           a. The surviving limited liability company in a merger with respect to membership
5           interests of the members are not entitled to be voted on the merger and are 6           not canceled or exchanged in the merger; or
- 7           b. The limited liability company whose membership interests will be acquired by 8           the acquiring limited liability company in a plan of exchange with respect to 9           membership interests of the members that are not entitled to be voted on the 10          plan of exchange and are not exchanged in the plan of exchange.
- 11          4. The members of a limited liability company who have a right under this section to 12          obtain payment for their membership interests do not have a right at law or in 13          equity to have a limited liability company action described in subsection 1 set aside 14          or rescinded, except when the limited liability company action is fraudulent with 15          regard to the complaining member or the limited liability company.
- 16          ~~3.~~ 5. If a date is fixed according to subsection 1 of section 10-32-40.1 for the 17          determination of members entitled to receive notice of and to vote on an action
18          described in subsection 1, only members as of the date fixed may exercise 19          dissenters' rights.

20           SECTION 61. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 4 of section 10-32-55 of the North
21          Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 22          3. If the proposed action must be approved by the members and the limited liability 23          company calls a meeting of members, then a member who is entitled to dissent 24          under section 10-32-54 and who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights shall file with 25          the limited liability company before the vote on the proposed action a written notice 26          of intent to demand the fair value of the membership interests owned by the 27          member and may not vote the membership interests in favor of the proposed 28          action.
- 29          4. After the proposed action is approved by the board and, if necessary, the 30          members, the limited liability company shall send to all members who complied 31          with subsection 3, and all members who did not sign or consent to a written action

1           that gave effect to the action creating the right to obtain payment under section
2           10-32-54 and to all members entitled to dissent if no member vote was required, a 3           notice that contains:

- 4           a.    The address to which a demand for payment must be sent in order to obtain 5                payment and the date by which the demand must be received;
6           b.    A form to be used to certify the date on which the member acquired the 7                membership interests and to demand payment; and 8           c.    A copy of section 10-32-54 and this section.

9           SECTION 62. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-56 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10          amended and reenacted as follows:

11           10-32-56. Authorization, form, and acceptance of contributions.

- 12          1.    Subject to any restrictions in the articles of organization or a member-control
13                agreement and only when authorized by the board or pursuant to a 14                member-control agreement, a limited liability company may accept contributions 15                under subsections 2 and 3, make contribution agreements under section 10-32-58, 16                and make contribution allowance agreements under section 10-32-59.
- 17          2.    Subject to subsection 3, a person may make a contribution to a limited liability 18                company.
- 19          3.    No purported contribution is to be treated or considered as a contribution, unless:
20                a.    The board accepts the contribution on behalf of the limited liability company 21                       and in that acceptance describes the contribution and states the value being 22                       accorded to the contribution; and 23                b.    The fact of contribution and the contribution's accorded value are both 24                       reflected in the required records of the limited liability company.
- 25          4.    The determinations of the board as to the amount or fair value or the fairness to the 26                limited liability company of the contribution accepted or to be accepted by the 27                limited liability company or the terms of payment or performance, including under a 28                contribution agreement in section 10-32-58, and a contribution allowance 29                agreement in section 10-32-59, are presumed to be proper if they are made in 30                good faith and on the basis of accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other
31                method, reasonable in the circumstances. Governors who are present and entitled

- 1 to vote, and who, intentionally or without reasonable investigation, fail to vote
2 against approving a consideration that is unfair to the limited liability company, or 3 overvalue property or services received or to be received by the limited liability
4 company as a contribution, are jointly and severally liable to the limited liability 5 company for the benefit of the then members who did not consent to and are 6 damaged by the action, to the extent of the damages of those members. A 7 governor against whom a claim is asserted pursuant to this subsection, except in 8 case of knowing participation in a deliberate fraud, is entitled to contribution on an 9 equitable basis from other governors who are liable under this subsection.
- 10 5. All the membership interests of a limited liability company must:
- 11 a. Be of one class, without series, unless a member-control agreement or the 12 articles of organization establish, or authorize the board to establish, more 13 than one class or series within classes;
- 14 b. Be ordinary membership interests entitled to vote as provided in section 15 10-32-40.1, and have equal rights and preferences in all matters not 16 otherwise provided for by the board unless and to the extent the articles of 17 organization or a member-control agreement fixes the relative rights and 18 preferences of different classes and series; and
- 19 c. Share profits and losses as provided in section 10-32-36 and be entitled to 20 distributions as provided in sections 10-32-60 and 10-32-61 and subdivision c 21 of subsection 1 of section 10-32-131.
- 22 6. Subject to any restrictions in the articles of organization or a member-control
23 agreement, the power granted in subsection 5 may be exercised by a resolution 24 approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present establishing 25 a class or series, setting forth the designation of the class or series, and fixing the 26 relative rights and preferences of the class or series established in the articles of 27 organization, in a member-control agreement, or by resolution of the board.
- 28 ~~7.~~ a. A statement signed by a manager setting forth the name of the limited liability 29 company and the text of the resolution and certifying the adoption of the 30 resolution and the date of adoption must be filed with the secretary of state 31 together with the fees provided in section 10-32-150 before the acceptance of

1 any contributions for which the resolution creates rights or preferences not set
2 forth in the articles of organization or a member-control agreement.

3 b. The resolution is effective when the statement has been filed with the 4 secretary of state unless the statement specifies a later effective date within 5 thirty days of filing the statement with the secretary of state.

6 ~~8.~~ 7. Without limiting the authority granted in this section, a limited liability company may 7 have membership interests of a class or series:

8 a. Subject to the right of the limited liability company to redeem any of those 9 membership interests at the price fixed for their redemption by the articles of 10 organization or by the board;

11 b. Entitling the members to cumulative, partially cumulative, or noncumulative 12 distributions;

13 c. Having preference over any class or series of membership interests for the 14 payment of distributions of any or all kinds;

15 d. Convertible into membership interests of any other class or any series of the 16 same or another class; or

17 e. Having full, partial, or no voting rights, except as provided in section 10-32-17.

18 SECTION 63. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-76 of the North Dakota Century Code is
19 amended and reenacted as follows:

20 10-32-76. ~~Cumulative voting~~ Voting for governors and cumulative voting.

21 1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles and subject to subsection 2, governors
22 are elected by a plurality of the voting power of the membership interests present 23 and entitled to vote on the election of governors at a meeting at which a quorum is 24 present.

25 2. Unless the articles of organization or a member-control agreement provides that 26 there is no cumulative voting, each member entitled to vote for governors has the 27 right to cumulate voting power in the election of governors by giving written notice
28 of intent to cumulate voting power to any manager of the limited liability company
29 before the meeting or to the presiding manager at the meeting at which the election 30 is to occur at any time before the election of governors at the meeting, in which 31 case:

- 1           a. The presiding manager at the meeting shall announce, before the election of 2           governors, that members shall cumulate their voting power; and 3           b. Each member shall cumulate that member's voting power either by casting for 4           one candidate the amount of voting power equal to the number of governors
5           to be elected multiplied by the voting power represented by the membership 6           interests owned by that member, or by distributing all of that voting power on 7           the same principle among any number of candidates.
- 8       ~~2.~~ 3. An amendment to the articles, a member-control agreement, or the bylaws which 9           has the effect of denying, limiting, or modifying the right to cumulative voting for 10          members provided in this section may not be adopted if the votes of a proportion of 11          the voting power sufficient to elect a governor at an election of the entire board 12          under cumulative voting are cast against the amendment.

13           SECTION 64. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 5 of section 10-32-80 of the North
14   Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 15          3. Unless the articles of organization, a member-control agreement, or the bylaws 16          provide for a different time period, a governor may call a board meeting by giving at 17          least ten days' notice or, in the case of organizational meetings under subsection 2
18          of section 10-32-67, at least three days' notice to all governors of the date, time, 19          and place of the meeting.
- 20          a. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles, a 21          member-control agreement, or the bylaws otherwise require.
- 22          b. Any notice to a governor given under any provision of this chapter, the 23          articles, a member-control agreement, or the bylaws by a form of electronic 24          communication consented to by the governor to whom the notice is given is 25          effective when given.
- 26          c. Consent by a governor to notice given by electronic communication may be 27          given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication.
- 28               (1) Any consent so given may be relied upon until revoked by the governor.
29               (2) However, no revocation affects the validity of any notice given before
30               receipt of revocation of the consent.

1           5. A governor may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a 2           governor entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the 3           meeting, and whether given in writing, by authenticated electronic communication,
4           or by attendance. Attendance by a governor at a meeting is a waiver of notice of 5           that meeting, except when the governor objects at the beginning of the meeting to 6           the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened 7           and does not participate in the meeting after the objection.

8           SECTION 65. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-91 of the North Dakota Century Code is
9           amended and reenacted as follows:

10           10-32-91. Multiple managerial positions. Any number of managerial positions or 11           functions of those positions may be held or exercised by the same individual. If a ~~document~~
12           record must be signed by individuals holding different positions or functions and an individual 13           holds or exercises more than one of those positions or functions, that individual may sign the 14           ~~document~~ record in more than one capacity, but only if the ~~document~~ record indicates each 15           capacity in which the individual signs.

16           SECTION 66. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-32-99 of the North Dakota
17           Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

18           1. For purposes of this section:

19           a. "Limited liability company" includes a ~~domestic~~ limited liability company or 20           foreign limited liability company that was the predecessor of the limited liability 21           company referred to in this section in a merger or other transaction in which 22           the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

23           b. "Official capacity" means:

24           (1) With respect to a governor, the position of governor in a limited liability
25           company;

26           (2) With respect to a person other than a governor, the elective or 27           appointive office or position held by a manager, member of a committee 28           of the board, the employment relationship undertaken by an employee, 29           agent of the limited liability company, or the scope of the services 30           provided by members of the limited liability company who provide 31           services to the limited liability company; and

- 1                   (3) With respect to a governor, manager, member, employee, or agent of 2                   the limited liability company who, while a governor, manager, member,
3                   or employee of the limited liability company, is or was serving at the 4                   request of the limited liability company or whose duties in that position
5                   involve or involved service as a governor, director, manager, officer, 6                   member, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or 7                   employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a governor, 8                   director, manager, officer, member, partner, trustee, employee, or 9                   agent, as the case may be, of the other organization or employee 10                  benefit plan.
- 11                  c. "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal,
12                  administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding
13                  by or in the right of the limited liability company.
- 14                  d. "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not represented the limited 15                  liability company or a related organization, or a governor, manager, member 16                  of a committee of the board, employee, or agent whose indemnification is in 17                  issue.

18                  SECTION 67. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 2 of section 10-32-100 of the North
19                  Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 20                  1. With or without a business purpose, a limited liability company may merge:
- 21                    a. With another limited liability company pursuant to a plan of merger approved 22                    in the manner provided in sections 10-32-101 through 10-32-106.
- 23                    b. With a ~~domestic~~ domestic corporation under a plan of merger approved in the manner 24                    provided in sections 10-32-101 through 10-32-107 and in chapter 10-19.1.
- 25                    c. With any foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company pursuant to a 26                    plan of merger approved in the manner provided in section 10-32-107.
- 27                  2. With respect to an exchange:
- 28                    a. A limited liability company may acquire all of the ownership interests of one or 29                    more classes or series of another limited liability company pursuant to a plan 30                    of exchange approved in the manner provided in sections 10-32-101 through 31                    10-32-106.

- 1           b. A limited liability company may acquire all of the ownership interests of one or 2           more classes or series of a ~~domestic~~ corporation pursuant to a plan of 3           exchange approved in the manner provided in sections 10-32-101 through
4           10-32-107 and in chapter 10-19.1.
- 5           c. A ~~domestic~~ corporation may acquire all of the ownership interests of one or 6           more classes or series of a limited liability company pursuant to a plan of 7           exchange approved in the manner provided in sections 10-32-101 through
8           10-32-106 and in chapter 10-19.1.
- 9           d. A foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company may acquire all of the 10          ownership interests of one or more classes or series of a limited liability 11          company pursuant to a plan of exchange approved in the manner provided in 12          section 10-32-107.

13           SECTION 68. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 5 of section 10-32-102 of the North
14 Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 15          1. A resolution containing the plan of merger or exchange must be approved by the 16          governing board as required by section 10-19.1-46 or 10-32-83 of each constituent 17          organization and must then be submitted at a regular or special meeting to the 18          owners of each constituent organization in the case of a plan of merger; and the 19          constituent organization whose ownership interests will be acquired by the 20          acquiring constituent organization in the exchange, in the case of an exchange.
21          The plan of merger or exchange may require that it be submitted to the owners 22          whether or not the governing board determines at any time after the governing 23          board's initial approval of the plan that the plan is no longer advisable and 24          recommends that the owners reject it. If owners owning any class or series of 25          ownership interests in a constituent organization are entitled to vote on the plan of 26          merger or exchange pursuant to this subsection, written notice must be given to 27          every owner of that constituent organization, whether or not entitled to vote at the 28          meeting, not less than fourteen days nor more than sixty days before the meeting, 29          in the manner provided in section 10-19.1-73 for notice of meetings of 30          shareholders in the case of a ~~domestic~~ corporation and in the manner provided in 31          section 10-32-40 for notice of meetings of members in the case of a limited liability

1            company. The written notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to 2            consider the proposed plan of merger or exchange. A copy or short description of 3            the plan of merger or exchange must be included in or enclosed with the notice.

4            5. If the merger or exchange is with a ~~domestic~~ corporation, the plan of merger or 5            exchange must also be approved in the manner provided in chapter 10-19.1.

6            SECTION 69. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-32-106 of the North Dakota
7 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

8            2. When a merger becomes effective:

9            a. The constituent organizations become a single entity, the surviving 10            corporation, or surviving limited liability company;

11            b. The separate existence of all constituent organizations except the surviving 12            constituent organization ceases;

13            c. As to any limited liability company that was a constituent organization and is 14            not the surviving constituent organization, the articles of merger serve as the 15            articles of termination and, unless previously filed, the notice of dissolution;

16            d. As to rights, privileges, immunities, powers, duties, and liabilities:

17            (1) If the surviving organization is a limited liability company, the surviving 18            limited liability company has all the rights, privileges, immunities, and 19            powers, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities of a limited liability 20            company organized under this chapter; and

21            (2) If the surviving organization is a ~~domestic~~ corporation, the surviving 22            ~~domestic~~ corporation has all the rights, privileges, immunities, and 23            powers, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities of a ~~domestic~~ 24            corporation;

25            e. The surviving constituent organization, whether a limited liability company or a 26            domestic or foreign corporation, possesses all the rights, privileges, 27            immunities, and franchises, of a public as well as of a private nature, of each 28            of the constituent organizations.

29            (1) All property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due on any 30            account, including subscriptions to shares and contribution agreements, 31            as the case may be, and all other choses in action, and every other

- 1 interest of or belonging to or due to each of the constituent
2 organizations vests in the surviving constituent organization without any 3 further act or deed.
- 4 (2) Confirmatory deeds, assignments, or similar instruments to accomplish 5 that vesting may be signed and delivered at any time in the name of a 6 constituent organization by its current officers or managers, as the case 7 may be, or, if the organization no longer exists, by its last officers or 8 managers, as the case may be.
- 9 (3) The title to any real estate or any interest in real estate vested in any of 10 the constituent organizations does not revert nor in any way become 11 impaired by reason of the merger;
- 12 f. The surviving constituent organization is responsible and liable for all the 13 liabilities and obligations of each of the constituent organizations.
- 14 (1) A claim of or against or a pending proceeding by or against a 15 constituent organization may be prosecuted as if the merger had not 16 taken place, or the surviving organization may be substituted in the 17 place of the constituent organization.
- 18 (2) Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of a 19 constituent organization are impaired by the merger; and
- 20 g. The articles of organization or articles of incorporation, as the case may be, of 21 the surviving organization are considered to be amended to the extent that 22 changes in its articles, if any, are contained in the plan of merger.

23 SECTION 70. Section 10-32-106.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
24 enacted as follows:

25 10-32-106.1. Continuance of limited liability authority. When an act or record is 26 considered necessary or appropriate to evidence the vesting of property or other rights in the 27 single limited liability company, the persons with authority to do so under the articles or bylaws
28 of each constituent organization shall do the act or execute and deliver the record and for this 29 purpose, the existence of the constituent organizations and the authority of those persons are 30 continued.

1           SECTION 71. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 4 of section 10-32-107 of the North
2 Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 3           1. A limited liability company may merge with, including a merger pursuant to section 4           10-32-104, or participate in an exchange with a foreign corporation or a foreign 5           limited liability company by following the procedures set forth in this section, if:
- 6           a. With respect to a merger, the merger is permitted by the laws of the 7           jurisdiction under which the foreign corporation or foreign limited liability
8           company is incorporated or organized; and
  - 9           b. With respect to an exchange, the constituent organization of which the 10           ownership interests will be acquired is a limited liability company or a 11           ~~domestic~~ corporation, regardless of whether the exchange is permitted by the 12           laws of the jurisdiction under which the foreign corporation or foreign limited 13           liability company is incorporated or organized.
- 14          4. If the surviving organization in a merger will be a foreign corporation or foreign 15          limited liability company and will transact business in this state, the surviving 16          organization shall comply, as the case may be, with the provisions of chapter 17          10-19.1 with respect to foreign corporations or with the provisions of this chapter
18          with respect to foreign limited liability companies. In every case, the surviving 19          foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company shall file with the secretary of 20          state:
- 21          a. An agreement that the surviving organization may be served with process in 22          this state in a proceeding for the enforcement of an obligation of a constituent 23          organization and in a proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a 24          dissenting owner of an ownership interest of a constituent organization 25          against the surviving foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company;
  - 26          b. An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state as the surviving 27          organization's agent to accept service of process in any proceeding, and an 28          address to which process may be forwarded; and
  - 29          c. An agreement that the surviving organization promptly will pay to the 30          dissenting owners of ownership interests of each constituent ~~domestic~~ limited 31          liability company and constituent ~~domestic~~ corporation the amount, if any, to 1                   which the dissenting owners are entitled under section 10-19.1-88 or 2                   10-32-55.

3                   SECTION 72. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-32-108 of the North Dakota
4 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5                   2. With respect to member approval:

6                   a. A limited liability company, by affirmative vote of a majority of the governors
7                   present, may sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially 8                   all of its property and assets, including its goodwill, not in the usual and 9                   regular course of its business, upon those terms and conditions and for those 10                  considerations, which may be money, securities, or other instruments for the 11                  payment of money or other property, as the board considers expedient, when 12                  approved at a regular or special meeting of the members by the affirmative 13                  vote of the owners of a majority of the voting power of the interests entitled to 14                  vote.

15                  (1) Written notice of the meeting must be given to all members whether or 16                  not they are entitled to vote at the meeting.

17                  (2) The written notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to 18                  consider the sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or 19                  substantially all of the property and assets of the limited liability
20                  company.

21                  b. Member approval is not required under subdivision a if, following the sale, 22                  lease, transfer, or other disposition of its property and assets, the limited
23                  liability company retains a significant continuing business activity. The limited 24                  liability company will conclusively be deemed to have retained a significant 25                  continuing business activity if the limited liability company retains a business 26                  activity that represented at least:

27                  (1) Twenty-five percent of the limited liability company's total assets at the 28                  end of the most recently completed fiscal year; and

29                  (2) Twenty-five percent of either income from continuing operations before
30                  taxes or revenues from continuing operations for that fiscal year,

1                   measured on a consolidated basis with its subsidiaries for paragraph 1 2                   and this paragraph.

3           SECTION 73. Section 10-32-108.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
4 enacted as follows:

- 24           5. The organizational records of the converted organization; and
- 25           6. Any other provisions with respect to the proposed conversion that are deemed
- 26                                   necessary or desirable.

27           SECTION 75. Section 10-32-108.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
28 enacted as follows:

29           10-32-108.3. Plan approval and amendment.

- 30           1. If the converting organization is a limited liability company, then:

1           a. A resolution containing or amending the plan of conversion must be approved
2           by an act of the board of the converting limited liability company and must 3           then be approved by an act of its members.

4           (1) In the action by the members, a class or series of membership interests 5           is entitled to vote as a class or series on the approval or amendment of 6           the plan.

7           (2) Any amendment of the plan shall be subject to any contractual rights.

8           b. If the resolution containing or amending the plan of conversion is approved by 9           the members:

10          (1) At a member meeting, then:

11           (a) Written notice must be given to every member of the converting 12           limited liability company, whether or not entitled to vote at the 13           meeting, not less than fourteen days nor more than fifty days
14           before the meeting, in the manner provided in section 10-32-40.

15           (b) The written notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to 16           consider the proposed plan of conversion or an amendment to it.

17           (c) A copy or short description of the plan of conversion or the 18           amendment to it must be included in or enclosed with the notice.

19          (2) By a written action of the members, then a copy or short description of 20           the plan of conversion or the amendment to it must be included in or 21           attached to the written action.

22          2. If the converting organization is not a limited liability company, then the approval 23           and amendment of the plan of conversion must comply with its governing statute in 24           effecting the conversion.

25          SECTION 76. Section 10-32-108.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
26          enacted as follows:

27          10-32-108.4. Articles of conversion.

28          1. Upon receiving the approval required by section 10-32-108.3, articles of conversion 29           must be prepared in a record that must contain:

30           a. A statement that the converting organization is being converted into another
31           organization including:

- 1                   (1) The name of the converting organization immediately before the filing of 2                   the articles of conversion;
- 3                   (2) The name to which the name of the converting organization is to be 4                   changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the laws applicable to the
5                   converted organization;
- 6                   (3) The form of organization that the converted organization will be; and
- 7                   (4) The jurisdiction of the governing statute of the converted organization;
- 8                   b. A statement that the plan of conversion has been approved by the converting 9                   organization as provided in section 10-32-108.3;
- 10                  c. A statement that the plan of conversion has been approved as required by the 11                  governing statute of the converted organization;
- 12                  d. The plan of conversion;
- 13                  e. A copy of the originating record of the converted organization; and 17                  subsection 4 of section 10-32-108.6.

- 18                  2. The articles of conversion must be signed on behalf of the converting organization 19                  and filed with the secretary of state.
- 20                  a. If the converted organization is a domestic organization:
- 21                       (1) Then the filing of the articles of conversion must also include the filing 22                       with the secretary of state of the originating record of the converted 23                       organization.
- 24                       (2) Upon both the articles of conversion and the originating record of the 25                       converted organization being filed with the secretary of state, the 26                       secretary of state shall issue a certificate of conversion and the 27                       appropriate certificate of creation to the converted organization or its 28                       legal representative.
- 29                  b. If the converted organization is a foreign organization:
- 30                       (1) That is transacting business or conducting activities in this state, then:

- 1                   (a) The filing of the articles of conversion must include the filing with 2                   the secretary of state of an application for a certificate of authority 3                   by the converted organization.
- 4                   (b) Upon both the articles of conversion and the application for a 5                   certificate of authority by the converted organization being filed
6                   with the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall issue a 7                   certificate of conversion and a certificate of authority to the 8                   converted organization or the legal representative.
- 9                   (2) That is not transacting business or conducting activities in this state, 10                  then, upon the articles of conversion being filed with the secretary of 11                  state, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of conversion to the 12                  converted organization or its legal representative.
- 13                  3. A converting organization that is the owner of a trademark or trade name, is a 14                  general partner named in a fictitious name certificate, or is a general partner in a 15                  limited partnership that is on file with the secretary of state must change or amend
16                  the name of the converting organization to the name of the converted organization 17                  in each registration when filing the articles of conversion.

18                  SECTION 77. Section 10-32-108.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
19 enacted as follows:

20                  10-32-108.5. Abandonment of conversion.

- 21                  1. If the articles of conversion have not been filed with the secretary of state, and:
- 22                  a. If the converting organization is a limited liability company, then:
- 23                       (1) Before a plan of conversion has been approved by the converting 24                       limited liability company as provided in section 10-32-108.3, it may be 25                       abandoned by an act of its board.
- 26                       (2) After a plan of conversion has been approved by the converting limited 27                       liability company as provided in section 10-32-108.3, and before the 28                       effective date of the plan, it may be abandoned:
- 29                       (a) If the members of the converting limited liability company entitled 30                       to vote on the approval of the plan as provided in section

- 1                                   10-32-108.3 have approved the abandonment by an act of the 2                                   members; or
3                                   (b) If the plan provides for abandonment and if all conditions for 4                                   abandonment set forth in the plan are met.
5                                   b. If the converting organization is not a limited liability company, then the 6                                   abandonment of the plan of conversion must comply with its governing
7                                   statute.
8                                   2. If articles of conversion have been filed with the secretary of state, but have not yet
9                                   become effective, then the converting organization shall file with the secretary of 10                                   state articles of abandonment that contain:
11                                   a. The name of the converting organization;
12                                   b. The provision of this section under which the plan is abandoned; and 13                                   c. If the plan is abandoned:
14                                   (1) By an act of the board under paragraph 1 of subdivision a of 15                                   subsection 1, or by an act of the members under subparagraph a of 16                                   paragraph 2 of subdivision a of subsection 1, then the text of the 17                                   resolution abandoning the plan; or
18                                   (2) As provided in the plan under subparagraph b of paragraph 2 of 19                                   subdivision a of subsection 1, then a statement that the plan provides 20                                   for abandonment and that all conditions for abandonment set forth in
21                                   the plan are met.

22                                   SECTION 78. Section 10-32-108.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
23 enacted as follows:

24                                   10-32-108.6. Effective date of conversion - Effect.

- 25                                   1. A conversion is effective when the filing requirements of subsection 2 of section
26                                   10-32-108.4 have been fulfilled or on a later date specified in the articles of
27                                   conversion.
28                                   2. With respect to the effect of conversion on the converting organization and on the 29                                   converted organization:

- 1           a. An organization that has been converted as provided in sections 10-32-108.1 2           through 10-32-108.6 is for all purposes the same entity that existed before the
3           conversion.
- 4           b. Upon a conversion becoming effective:
- 5           (1) If the converted organization:
- 6               (a) Is a limited liability company, then the converted organization has 7               all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and is subject to 8               all the duties and liabilities, of a limited liability company 9               organized under this chapter; or
- 10           (b) Is not a limited liability company, then the converted organization 11           has all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and is 12           subject to the duties and liabilities as provided in its governing 13           statute;
- 14           (2) All property owned by the converting organization remains vested in the 15           converted organization;
- 16           (3) All debts, liabilities, and other obligations of the converting organization
17           continue as obligations of the converted organization;
- 18           (4) An action or proceeding pending by or against the converting 19           organization may be continued as if the conversion had not occurred;
- 20           (5) Except as otherwise provided by other law, all rights, privileges,
21           immunities, and powers of the converting organization remain vested in 22           the converted organization; and
- 23           (6) Except as otherwise provided in the plan of conversion, the terms and 24           conditions of the plan of conversion take effect.
- 25        3. When a conversion becomes effective, each ownership interest in the converting 26        organization is deemed to be converted into ownership interests in the converted
27        organization or, in whole or in part, into money or other property to be received
28        under the plan, subject to any dissenters' rights under section 10-32-54.
- 29        4. A converted organization that is a foreign organization consents to the jurisdiction
30        of the courts of this state to enforce any obligation owed by the converting limited

1            liability company, if before the conversion the converting limited liability company
2            was subject to suit in this state on the obligation.

3            5. A converted organization that is a foreign organization and not authorized to 4            transact business in this state appoints the secretary of state as its agent for
5            service of process for purposes of enforcing an obligation under this subsection.

6            SECTION 79. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-32-114 of the North Dakota
7 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

8            1. If notice to creditors and claimants is given, the notice must be given by publishing 9            the notice once each week for four successive weeks in an official newspaper as

2 North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

3           1. Each limited liability company, and each foreign limited liability company authorized 4 to transact business in this state, shall file, within the time ~~prescribed~~ provided by 5 subsection 3, an annual report setting forth:

6           a. The name of the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company
7 and the state or country under the laws of which it is organized.

8           b. The address of the registered office of the limited liability company or foreign 9 limited liability company in this state, the name of its registered agent in this 10 state at that address, and the address of its principal executive office.

11           c. A brief statement of the character of the business in which the limited liability 12 company or foreign limited liability company is actually engaged in this state.

13           d. The names and respective addresses of the managers and governors of the 14 limited liability company or foreign limited liability company or the name or 15 names and respective address or addresses of the managing member or 16 members of the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company.

17           2. The annual report must be submitted on forms prescribed by the secretary of state.
18 The information provided must be given as of the date of the execution of the 19 report. The annual report must be signed as ~~prescribed~~ provided in subsection ~~53~~ 20 56 of section 10-32-02, the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the 21 affirmative vote of the required proportion or number of the governors or members 22 entitled to vote. If the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company is 23 in the hands of a receiver or trustee, the annual report must be signed on behalf of 24 the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company by the receiver or 25 trustee. The secretary of state may destroy any annual report provided for in this 26 section after the annual report is on file for six years.

27           3. The annual report of a limited liability company or foreign limited liability company
28 must be delivered to the secretary of state before November sixteenth of each 29 year, except that the first annual report of a limited liability company or foreign 30 limited liability company must be delivered before November sixteenth of the year

- 1 following the calendar year in which the certificate of organization or certificate of 2 authority was issued by the secretary of state.
- 3 a. An annual report in a sealed envelope postmarked by the United States postal 4 service before November sixteenth, or an annual report in a sealed packet
5 with a verified shipment date by any other carrier service before November 6 sixteenth, is in compliance with this requirement.
- 7 b. The secretary of state must file the report if the report conforms to the 8 requirements of subsection 2.
- 9 (1) If the report does not conform, it must be returned to the limited liability 10 company or foreign limited liability company for any necessary
11 corrections.
- 12 (2) If the report is filed before the deadlines ~~prescribed~~ provided in this 13 subsection, penalties for the failure to file a report within the time 14 provided do not apply if the report is corrected to conform to the 15 requirements of subsection 2 and returned to the secretary of state
16 within thirty days after the annual report was returned by the secretary
17 of state for correction.
- 18 c. The secretary of state may extend the annual filing date of any limited liability 19 company or foreign limited liability company, if a written application for an 20 extension is delivered before November sixteenth.
- 21 4. After the date established under subsection 3, the secretary of state shall notify 22 any limited liability company or foreign limited liability company failing to file its 23 annual report that its certificate of organization or certificate of authority is not in 24 good standing and that it may be terminated or revoked pursuant to subsection 5.
- 25 a. The secretary of state must mail notice of termination or revocation to the last 26 registered agent at the last registered office of record.
- 27 b. If the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company files its 28 annual report after the notice is mailed, together with the annual report filing 29 fee and late filing penalty fee as ~~prescribed~~ provided by section 10-32-150, 30 the secretary of state will restore its certificate of organization or certificate of 31 authority to good standing.

- 1           7. A limited liability company that was terminated for failure to file an annual report, or 2           a foreign limited liability company whose authority was forfeited by failure to file an 3           annual report, may be reinstated by filing a past-due report, together with the 4           statutory filing and penalty fees for an annual report and a reinstatement fee as 5           ~~prescribed~~ provided in section 10-32-150. The fees must be paid and the report
6           filed within one year following the involuntary dissolution or revocation.
7           Reinstatement under this subsection does not affect the rights or liability for the 8           time from the termination or revocation to the reinstatement.

9           SECTION 84. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-150 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10          amended and reenacted as follows:

11           10-32-150. Secretary of state - Fees and charges.

26     amended and reenacted as follows:

27                  10-32-152. Secretary of state - Powers - Enforcement - Appeal.

28                  1. The secretary of state has the power and authority reasonably necessary to 29                  efficiently administer this chapter and to perform the duties imposed thereby.

30                  2. The secretary of state may propound to any limited liability company, domestic or 31                  foreign, subject to the provisions of this chapter and to any manager or governor

- 1           thereof, such interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to 2           ascertain whether such limited liability company has complied with all provisions of 3           this chapter applicable to such limited liability company.
- 4           a.    Such interrogatories must be answered within thirty days after mailing or 5           within such additional time as must be fixed by the secretary of state. The 6           answers to such interrogatories must be full and complete and must be made 7           in writing and under oath.
- 8           b.    If such interrogatories be directed:
- 9                (1)   To an individual, they must be answered by that individual; or 10               (2)   To a limited liability company, they must be answered by the president, 11               vice president, secretary, or assistant secretary of the limited liability 12               company.
- 13          c.    The secretary of state need not file any ~~document~~ record to which such 14           interrogatories relate until such interrogatories have been answered, and not 15           then if the answers disclose that such ~~document~~ record is not in conformity 16           with the provisions of this chapter.
- 17          d.    The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for such action as 18           the attorney general may deem appropriate, all interrogatories and answers 19           thereto, which disclose a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.
- 20          e.    Each manager or governor of a limited liability company, domestic or foreign,
21           who fails or refuses within the time provided by subdivision a of subsection 2 22           to answer truthfully and fully all interrogatories propounded to that person by 23           the secretary of state is guilty of an infraction.
- 24          f.    Interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state and the answers thereto 25           are not open to public inspection. The secretary of state may not disclose any 26           facts or information obtained from such interrogatories or answers except 27           insofar as may be permitted by law or insofar as is required for evidence in 28           any criminal proceedings or other action by this state.
- 29          3.    If the secretary of state rejects any ~~document~~ record required by this chapter to be 30           approved by the secretary of state before the same may be filed, then the

- 1 secretary of state shall give written notice of the rejection to the person who
2 delivered the ~~document~~ record, specifying the reasons for rejection.
- 3 a. ~~From such rejection such person~~ Within thirty days after the service of the 4 notice of denial, the limited liability company or foreign limited liability 5 company, as the case may be, may appeal to the district court of the county in 6 which the registered office of such limited liability company is, or is proposed 7 to be, situated in the judicial district serving Burleigh County by filing with the 8 clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of the ~~document~~ record 9 sought to be filed and a copy of the written rejection of the ~~document~~ record 10 by the secretary of state.
- 11 b. The matter must be tried de novo by the court. The court shall either sustain 12 the action of the secretary of state or direct the secretary of state to take such 13 action as the court may deem proper.
- 14 4. If the secretary of state dissolves a limited liability company or revokes the 15 certificate of authority to transact business in this state of any foreign limited liability
16 company, pursuant to the provisions of section 10-32-144, ~~such~~ then the limited 17 liability company or foreign limited liability company may appeal to district court of 18 the county where the registered office of such limited liability company in this state 19 is situated in the judicial district serving Burleigh County by filing with the clerk of 20 such court a petition ~~setting forth a~~ including:
- 21 a. A copy of its limited liability company's articles of organization and a copy of 22 the notice of dissolution given by the secretary of state; or
- 23 b. A copy of the foreign limited liability company's certificate of authority to 24 transact business in this state and a copy of the notice of revocation given by 25 the secretary of state.
- 26 The matter must be tried de novo by the court. The court shall either sustain the 27 action of the secretary of state or direct the secretary of state to take such action 28 as the court may deem proper.
- 29 5. If the court order sought is one for reinstatement of a limited liability company that 30 has been dissolved as provided in subsection 5 of section 10-32-149, or for 31 reinstatement of the certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company that

1           has been revoked as provided in subsection 6 of section 10-32-149, then together
2           with any other actions the court deems proper, any such order which reverses the 3           decision of the secretary of state shall require the limited liability company or 4           foreign limited liability company to:

- 5           a. File all past-due annual reports;
6           b. Pay the fees to the secretary of state for each annual report as provided in 7           subsection 26 of section 10-32-150; and 8           c. Pay the reinstatement fee to the secretary of state as provided in 9           subsection 26 of section 10-32-150.

10          6. Appeals from all final orders and judgments entered by the district court under this 11           section in review of any ruling or decision of the secretary of state may be taken as 12           in other civil actions.

13          SECTION 86. Section 10-32-152.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
14          enacted as follows:

15          10-32-152.1. Delivery to and filing of records by secretary of state and effective
16          date.

- 17          1. A record authorized or required to be delivered to the secretary of state for filing
18           under this chapter must be captioned to describe the purpose of the record, be in a 19           medium permitted by the secretary of state, and be delivered to the secretary of 20           state. If the secretary of state determines that a record complies with the filing
21           requirements of this chapter, then the secretary of state shall file the record and 22           return a copy of the filed record to the person who delivered it to the secretary of 23           state for filing. That person shall then send a copy of the filed record to the person
24           on whose behalf the record was filed.
- 25          2. Upon request and payment of a fee provided in section 10-32-150, the secretary of 26           state shall send to the requester a certified copy of the requested record.
- 27          3. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, a record delivered to the 28           secretary of state for filing under this chapter may specify a delayed effective date
29           within ninety days. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a record filed by 30           the secretary of state is effective:

- 1           a. If the record does not specify a delayed effective date within ninety days, then 2                   on the date the record is filed as evidenced by the endorsement of the 3                   secretary of state of the date on the record.
4           b. If the record specifies a delayed effective date within ninety days, then on the 5                   specified date.

22                   (4) Identify the inaccuracy, error, or defect to be corrected; and 23                   (5) Set forth a statement in corrected form of the portion of the record to be 24                       corrected.
25               b. May not revoke or nullify the record.
26           3. The statement of correction shall be filed with the secretary of state.
27           4. With respect to the effective date of correction:
28               a. A certificate issued by the secretary of state before a record is corrected, with 29                   respect to the effect of filing the original record, is considered to be applicable
30                   to the record as corrected as of the date the record as corrected is considered
31                   to have been filed under this subsection.

- 1           b. After a statement of correction has been filed with the secretary of state, the
2           original record as corrected is considered to have been filed:
3           (1) On the date the statement of correction was filed:
4                 (a) As to persons adversely affected by the correction; and
5                 (b) For the purposes of subsection 3 of section 10-32-02.2; and
6           (2) On the date the original record was filed as to all other persons and for 7                 all other purposes.

8           SECTION 88. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-153 of the North Dakota Century Code is

16           SECTION 92. Section 10-33-01.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
17   enacted as follows:

18           10-33-01.2. Knowledge and notice.

19           1. A person knows or has knowledge of a fact if the person has actual knowledge of 20           it. A person does not know or have knowledge of a fact merely because the 21           person has reason to know or have knowledge of the fact.

22           2. A person has notice of a fact if the person:

23           a. Knows of the fact;

24           b. Has received notice of the fact as provided in subsection 18 of section
25           10-33-01;

26           c. Has reason to know the fact exists from all of the facts known to the person at 27           the time in question; or

28           d. Has notice of it under subsection 3.

29           3. Subject to subsection 8, a person has notice of:

- 1           a. The intention of a corporation to dissolve, ninety days after the effective date
2                   of the filed notice of intent to dissolve stating that the corporation intends to 3                   dissolve;
- 4           b. The dissolution of a corporation, ninety days after the effective date of the 5                   filed; and
- 6           c. A merger under sections 10-33-86 through 10-33-92, ninety days after the 7                   effective date of the filed articles of merger.
- 8           4. A person notifies or gives a notification to another person by taking the steps
9                   provided in subsection 18 of section 10-33-01, whether or not the other person
10                  learns of it.
- 11           5. A person receives a notification as provided in subsection 18 of section 10-33-01.
- 12           6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7 and except as otherwise provided in 13                  subsection 18 of section 10-33-01, a person other than an individual knows, has
14                  notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction
15                  when the individual conducting the transaction for the person knows, has notice, or 16                  receives a notification of the fact, or in any event when the fact would have been
17                  brought to the attention of the individual if the person had exercised reasonable 18                  diligence.
- 19           a. A person other than an individual exercises reasonable diligence if it
20                   maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the 21                   individual conducting the transaction for the person and there is reasonable 22                   compliance with the routines.
- 23           b. Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the person to 24                   communicate information unless the communication is part of the regular
25                   duties of the individual or the individual has reason to know of the transaction
26                   and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.
- 27           7. Knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the corporation by 28                  an officer or director is effective immediately as knowledge of, notice to, or receipt
29                  of a notification by the corporation, except in the case of a fraud on the corporation
30                  committed by or with the consent of the officer or director. Knowledge, notice, or 31                  receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the corporation by a member who is not

- 1           an officer or director, is not effective as knowledge by, notice to, or receipt of a 2           notification by the corporation.
- 3           8. Notice otherwise effective under subsection 3 does not affect the power of a
4           person to transfer real property held in the name of a corporation unless at the time
5           of transfer a certified copy of the relevant statement, amendment, or articles, as
6           filed with the secretary of state, has been recorded in the office of the county
7           recorder in the county in which the real property affected by the statement,
8           amendment, or articles is located.
- 9           9. With respect to notice given by a form of electronic communication:
- 10          a. Consent by an officer or director to notice given by electronic communication
11          may be given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication. The 12          corporation is entitled to rely on any consent so given until revoked by the 13          officer or director. However, no revocation affects the validity of any notice
14          given before receipt by the corporation of revocation of the consent.
- 15          b. An affidavit of an officer or director or an authorized agent of the corporation,
16          that the notice has been given by a form of electronic communication is, in the 17          absence of fraud, prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit.

18           SECTION 93. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 10-33-06 of the North Dakota
19 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 20          3. The following articles govern a corporation unless modified by the articles:

- 9 ~~2. If the secretary of state determines that a corporate name is "deceptively similar" to~~
- 10 ~~another name for purposes of this chapter, then the corporate name may not be~~
- 11 ~~used unless there is filed with the articles:~~
- 12 ~~a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name the proposed name~~
- 13 ~~is determined to be deceptively similar to; or~~
- 14 ~~b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the prior~~
- 15 ~~right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.~~
- 16 ~~This subsection does not affect the right of a domestic corporation existing on~~
- 17 ~~August 1, 1997, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state on~~
- 18 ~~that date to continue the use of its name.~~
- 19 ~~3.~~ The secretary of state shall determine whether a corporate name is "deceptively
- 20 similar" to another name for purposes of this chapter.
- 21 3. If the secretary of state determines that a corporate name is "deceptively similar" to
- 22 another name for purposes of this chapter, then the corporate name may not be
- 23 used unless there is filed with the articles:
- 24 a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name the proposed name
- 25 is determined to be deceptively similar to; or
- 26 b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the prior
- 27 right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.
- 28 4. Subsection 3 does not affect the right of a corporation existing on August 1, 1997,
- 29 or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state on that date to
- 30 continue the use of its name.
- 31 ~~4.~~ 5. This section and section 10-33-11 do not:

- 1           a. Abrogate or limit:

- 31                     incorporation pursuant to section 10-33-08; ~~amending pursuant to section~~

1           ~~10-33-118; or reinstating pursuant to section 10-33-139.~~ If unless the name has 2           been adopted for use or reserved by another person, in which case the filing will be
3           rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written consent or judgment
4           pursuant to subsection 2. A corporation that cannot reacquire the use of its 5           corporate name must adopt a new corporate name that complies with the 6           provisions of this section:

7           a. By refiling articles of incorporation pursuant to section 10-33-08;

8           b. By amending pursuant to section 10-33-14; or

9           c. By reinstating pursuant to section 10-33-139.

10          9. Subject to section 10-33-126, this section applies to any foreign corporation
11          transacting business in this state, having a certificate of authority to transact
12          business in this state, or applying for a certificate of authority.

13          SECTION 95. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-33-12 of the North Dakota
14 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15          2. A corporation shall appoint and continuously maintain a registered agent. The 16          registered agent may be an individual residing in this state, ~~a domestic~~ another 17          corporation whether incorporated under this chapter or under another ~~provision~~ 18          chapter of this code, a limited liability company, a foreign corporation whether 19          authorized to do business or conduct activities in the state under this chapter or 20          under another provision of this code, or foreign limited liability company authorized
21          to conduct activities in this state. The registered agent shall maintain a business
22          office that is identical with the registered office. Proof of the registered agent's 23          consent to serve in that capacity must be filed with the secretary of state, together 24          with the fees provided in section 10-33-140.

25          SECTION 96. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 10-33-13 of the North Dakota
26 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

27          4. With respect to fees:

28          a. The fee ~~prescribed~~ provided in section 10-33-140 for change of registered 29          office must be refunded if in the secretary of state's opinion a change of 30          address of registered office results from rezoning or postal reassignment.

1           b. The fees ~~prescribed~~ provided in section 10-33-140 for change of registered
2           agent, change of registered office, and consent of registered agent do not 3           apply if the registered agent or registered office is established or changed in 4           the annual report.

5           SECTION 97. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is
6           amended and reenacted as follows:

7           10-33-18. Filing articles of amendment. An original of the articles of amendment
8           must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of 9           amendment conform to the filing requirements of this chapter and that all fees have been paid
10          as provided in section 10-33-140, then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office
11          of the secretary of state. A corporation that amends the corporate name and is the owner of a 12          trademark or trade name, is a general partner named in a fictitious name certificate, or is a 13          general partner in a limited partnership that is on file with the secretary of state must change or 14          amend the corporation's name in each registration when the corporation files an amendment.

15          SECTION 98. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-22 of the North Dakota Century Code is
16          amended and reenacted as follows:

17          10-33-22. Corporate seal. A corporation may, but need not, have a corporate seal.
18          The use or nonuse of a corporate seal does not affect the validity, recordability, or enforceability
19          of a ~~document~~ record or act. If a corporation has a corporate seal, the use of the seal by the 20          corporation on a ~~document~~ record is not necessary.

21          SECTION 99. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-34 of the North Dakota Century Code is
22          amended and reenacted as follows:

23          10-33-34. Cumulative voting for directors. Unless the articles provide otherwise or 24          except as provided in ~~section 4~~ of article XII of the Constitution of North Dakota, there is no 25          cumulative voting.

26          SECTION 100. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 5 of section 10-33-39 of the North
27          Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

28          3. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different time period, a director may call
29          a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice or, in the case of organizational 30          meetings pursuant to subsection 2 of section 10-33-25, at least three days' notice, 31          to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting.

- 1           a. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles or 2           bylaws require it.
- 3           b. Any notice to a director given under any provision of this chapter, the articles,
4           or the bylaws by a form of electronic communication consented to by the 5           director to whom the notice is given is effective when given.
- 6           c. Consent by a director to notice given by electronic communication may be 7           given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication. Any consent
8           so given may be relied upon until revoked by the director, provided that no
9           revocation affects the validity of any notice given before receipt of revocation 10          of the consent.
- 11          5. A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a 12          director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting,
13          and whether given in writing, by authenticated electronic communication, or by 14          attendance. Attendance by a director at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that 15          meeting, except when the director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the 16          transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and 17          does not participate in the meeting after the objection.

18           SECTION 101. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-47 of the North Dakota Century Code is
19          amended and reenacted as follows:

20           10-33-47. Immunity of officers, directors, and trustees. Any person who serves as 21          a director, officer, or trustee of a corporation that is, or would qualify as a nonprofit organization 22          that is described in paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 19 of section ~~501(e)(3)~~ 501(c) of the 23          Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended [26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (10), and 24          (19)], is immune from civil liability for any act or omission resulting in damage or injury if at the 25          time of the act or omission all of the following are met:

- 26           1. The officer, director, or trustee was acting in good faith and in the scope of that 27           person's official duties as a director, officer, or trustee.
- 28           2. The act or omission did not constitute willful misconduct or gross negligence on the 29           part of the officer, director, or trustee.
- 30           3. The officer, director, or trustee did not receive or expect to receive reimbursement 31           for or payment of expenses in excess of two thousand dollars per year for

1 expenses actually incurred as a result of providing services as a director, officer, or 2 trustee, and did not receive or expect to receive compensation or anything in lieu of 3 compensation as payment for services provided as a director, officer, or trustee.

4 SECTION 102. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-51 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 10-33-51. Multiple offices. Any number of offices or functions of those offices may be 7 held or exercised by the same individual. If a ~~document~~ record must be signed by individuals 8 holding different offices or functions and an individual holds or exercises more than one of 9 those offices or functions, that individual may sign the ~~document~~ record in more than one 10 capacity, but only if the ~~document~~ record indicates each capacity in which the individual signs.

11 SECTION 103. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-72 of the North Dakota Century Code is
12 amended and reenacted as follows:

13 10-33-72. Act of the members.

- 14 1. Unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by 15 class and except for the election of directors which is governed by section 16 10-32-34, the members shall take action by the affirmative vote of the greater of:
17 a. A majority of the members with voting rights present and entitled to vote on 18 that item of business; or
19 b. A majority of the voting power of the minimum number of members with voting 20 rights that would constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the 21 meeting.

22 If the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion or number than is required by 23 this chapter for a particular action, then the articles or bylaws control.

- 24 2. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, members may take action at a 25 meeting:
26 a. By voice or ballot.
27 b. By action without a meeting pursuant to section 10-33-73.
28 c. By ~~written~~ ballot pursuant to section 10-33-74.
29 d. By ~~electronic~~ remote communication pursuant to section 10-33-75.

30 SECTION 104. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-73 of the North Dakota Century Code is
31 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           10-33-73. Action without a meeting by the members. An action required or 2 permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting by written 3 action signed, or consented to by authenticated electronic communication, by all of the 4 members entitled to vote on that action.

- 5           1. If the articles so provide, any action may be taken by written action signed, or 6 consented to by authenticated electronic communication, by the members who 7 hold voting power equal to the voting power that would be required to take the 8 same action at a meeting of the members at which all members were present.
- 9           a. After the adoption of the initial articles, an amendment to the articles to permit
10 written action to be taken by less than all members requires the approval of all 11 members entitled to vote on the amendment.
- 12           b. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all members, all 13 members must be notified immediately of its text and effective date no later 14 than five days after the effective time of the action.
- 15           b- c. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action.
- 16           e- d. A member who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability 17 for the action or actions taken by the written action.
- 18           2. The written action is effective when signed by the required members, unless a 19 different effective time is provided in the written action.
- 20           3. When this chapter requires or permits a certificate concerning an action to be filed 21 with the secretary of state, the certificate must indicate if the action was taken 22 under this section.

23           SECTION 105. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-74 of the North Dakota Century Code is
24 amended and reenacted as follows:

25           10-33-74. ~~Action~~ Shareholder action by ~~written~~ ballot.

- 26           1. Except as provided in subsection 5 and unless prohibited or limited by the articles
27 or bylaws, an action that may be taken at a regular or special meeting of members
28 may be taken without a meeting if the corporation mails or delivers a ~~written~~ ballot 29 to every member entitled to vote on the matter.
- 30           2. A ~~written~~ ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to 31 vote for or against each proposed action.

- 1           3. Approval by ~~written~~ ballot under this section is valid only if:
- 2           a. The number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to
- 3           be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and
- 4           b. The number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would
- 5           be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of
- 6           votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.
- 7           4. Solicitations for votes by ~~written~~ ballot must:
- 8           a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;
- 9           b. State the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other
- 10           than election of directors; and
- 11           c. Specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in
- 12           order to be counted.
- 13           5. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a ~~written~~ ballot may not be
- 14           revoked.
- 15           6. With respect to a ballot by electronic communication:
- 16           a. A corporation may deliver a ballot by electronic communication only if the
- 17           corporation complies with subsection 4 of section 10-33-68 as if the ballot
- 18           were a notice.
- 19           b. Consent by a member to receive notice by electronic communication in a
- 20           certain manner constitutes consent to receive a ballot by electronic
- 21           communication in the same manner.

22           SECTION 106. AMENDMENT. Subsections 2, 5, and 7 of section 10-33-80 of the

23 North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 24           2. A member or a director, or the agent or attorney of a member or a director, may
- 25           inspect all ~~documents~~ records referred to in subsection 1 or 3 for any proper
- 26           purpose at any reasonable time. A proper purpose is one reasonably related to the
- 27           interest of the person as a member or director of the corporation.
- 28           5. The corporation may charge the requesting party a reasonable fee to cover the
- 29           expenses of providing copies of ~~documents~~ records under this section.

1           7. A member or a director who is wrongfully denied access to or copies of ~~documents~~
2           records under this section may bring an action for injunctive relief, damages, and 3           costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

4           SECTION 107. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-120 of the North Dakota Century Code
5 is amended and reenacted as follows:

6           10-33-120. Service of process on corporation, foreign corporation, and 7 nonresident directors.

8           1. The registered agent must be an agent of the corporation and any nonresident
9           director upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to 10          be served on the corporation or director may be served.

11          a. When a foreign corporation transacts business without a certificate of 12          authority, or when the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation is 13          suspended or revoked, the secretary of state is an agent of the foreign 14          corporation for service of process, notice, or demand.

15          b. Acceptance of a directorship includes the appointment of the secretary of 16          state as an agent for personal service of legal process, notice, or demand.

17          2. A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a
18          corporation may be served ~~either upon:~~

19          a. On the registered agent of the corporation, ~~or upon:~~

20          b. On an officer of the corporation, ~~or upon:~~

21          c. On any responsible person found at the registered office or at the principal 22          executive office; or

23          d. On the secretary of state as provided in this section.

24          3. If neither the ~~corporation's~~ registered agent nor ~~an officer of the corporation~~ a
25          responsible person can be found at the registered office, or if a ~~corporation fails to~~
26          ~~maintain a registered agent in this state and an officer of the corporation~~
27          responsible person cannot be found at the ~~registered~~ principal executive office, 28          then the secretary of state is ~~the~~ an agent of the corporation upon whom the 29          process, notice, or demand may be served.

30          a. Service on the secretary of state:

1           SECTION 108. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 2 of section 10-33-123 of the North
2 Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

3           1. When it appears to the attorney general it is in the public interest that an 4 investigation should be made to ascertain whether a proceeding by the attorney
5 general, as provided in this chapter, should be commenced, the attorney general 6 may:

7           a. Examine under oath any person in connection with the affairs of the 8 corporation.

9           b. Examine any record, book, ~~document~~ record, account, or paper as the 10 attorney general determines necessary.

11           c. Pursuant to an order of the district court, impound any record, book, 12 ~~document~~, account, or paper, and retain it in the attorney general's 13 possession until the completion of all proceedings undertaken under this 14 chapter.

15           2. To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties ~~prescribed~~ provided by 16 this chapter, the attorney general may issue subpoenas to any person.

17           SECTION 109. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-33-134 of the North Dakota
18 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

19           1. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct activities in this state 20 may be revoked by the secretary of state if:

21           a. The foreign corporation has failed to:

22                   (1) Maintain a registered office as required by this chapter;

23                   (2) Appoint and maintain a registered agent as required by this chapter;

24                   (3) File a report upon any change in the address of its registered office;

25                   (4) File a report upon any change in the name or business address of the 26 registered agent; or

27                   (5) File in the office of the secretary of state any amendment to its 28 application for a certificate of authority as specified in section

29                   10-33-130; or

- 1           b. A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, 2           report, affidavit, or other ~~document~~ record submitted by the foreign 3           corporation pursuant to this chapter.

4           SECTION 110. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-138 of the North Dakota Century Code
5 is amended and reenacted as follows:

6           10-33-138. Foreign corporation - Service of process. Service of process on a
7 foreign corporation must be as provided in section 10-33-120. ~~When the certificate of authority~~
8 ~~of a foreign corporation is suspended or revoked, the secretary of state is an agent of the~~ 9 ~~foreign corporation for service of process, notice, or demand.~~

10          SECTION 111. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-139 of the North Dakota Century Code
11 is amended and reenacted as follows:

12          10-33-139. Secretary of state - Annual report of corporations and foreign 13 corporations.

- 14          1. Each corporation, and each foreign corporation authorized to conduct activities in 15 this state, shall file, within the time ~~prescribed by~~ provided in subsection 3, an 16 annual report setting forth:
- 17           a. The name of the corporation or foreign corporation and the state or country 18           under the laws of which it is incorporated.
  - 19           b. The address of the registered office of the corporation or foreign corporation 20           in this state, the name of its registered agent in this state at that address, and 21           the address of its principal executive office.
  - 22           c. A brief statement of the character of the activities in which the corporation or 23           foreign corporation is actually engaged in this state.
  - 24           d. The names and respective addresses of the officers and directors of the 25           corporation or foreign corporation.
  - 26           e. The section of the Internal Revenue Code by which its tax status is 27           established.
- 28          2. The annual report must be submitted on forms prescribed by the secretary of state.
29          The information provided must be given as of the date of the execution of the 30          report. The annual report must be signed as ~~prescribed~~ provided in subsection 34
31          of section 10-33-01 or in the articles or bylaws, or in a resolution approved by the

- 1 affirmative vote of the required proportion or number of the directors or members
2 entitled to vote. If the corporation or foreign corporation is in the hands of a 3 receiver or trustee, it must be signed on behalf of the corporation or foreign 4 corporation by the receiver or trustee. The secretary of state may destroy all 5 annual reports provided for in this section after they have been on file for six years.
- 6 3. The annual report must be delivered to the secretary of state before February first 7 of each year, except that the first annual report must be delivered before February 8 first of the year following the calendar year in which the certificate of incorporation 9 or certificate of authority was issued by the secretary of state.
- 10 a. An annual report in a sealed envelope postmarked by the United States postal 11 service before February first, or an annual report in a sealed packet with a 12 verified shipment date by any other carrier service before February first, 13 complies with this requirement. When the filing date falls on a Saturday or 14 holiday as defined in section 1-03-01, a postmark or verified shipment date on 15 the next business day complies with this requirement.
- 16 b. The secretary of state must file the report if the report conforms to the 17 requirements of subsection 2.
- 18 (1) If the report does not conform, it must be returned to the corporation for 19 any necessary corrections.
- 20 (2) If the report is filed before the deadlines ~~prescribed~~ provided in this
21 subsection, penalties for the failure to file a report within the time
22 provided do not apply, if the report is corrected to conform to the 23 requirements of subsection 2 and returned to the secretary of state
24 within thirty days after the annual report was returned by the secretary
25 of state for correction.
- 26 c. The secretary of state may extend the annual filing date of any corporation or 27 foreign corporation if a written application for an extension is delivered before 28 February first.
- 29 4. After the date established under subsection 3, the secretary of state shall notify 30 any corporation or foreign corporation failing to file its annual report that its 31 certificate of incorporation or certificate of authority is not in good standing and that

- 1           it may be dissolved or revoked pursuant to subsections 5 and 6. The secretary of 2           state must mail the notice to the last registered agent at the last registered office of 3           record. If the corporation or foreign corporation files its annual report after the 4           notice is mailed, together with the annual report filing fee and late filing penalty fee
5           as ~~prescribed by~~ provided in section 10-33-140, the secretary of state shall restore 6           its certificate of incorporation or certificate of authority to good standing.
- 7           5. A corporation that does not file its annual report, along with the statutory filing and 8           penalty fees, within one year after the date established in subsection 3 ceases to 9           exist and is considered involuntarily dissolved by operation of law.
- 10          a. ~~The~~ Thereafter, the secretary of state shall note the termination of the 11           corporation's certificate of incorporation on the records of the secretary of 12           state and shall give notice of the action to the dissolved corporation.
- 13          b. Notice by the secretary of state must be mailed to the last registered agent at 14           the last registered office of record.
- 15          6. A foreign corporation that does not file its annual report, along with the statutory 16           filing and penalty fees, within one year after the date established by subsection 3 17           forfeits its authority to conduct activities in this state.
- 18          a. The secretary of state shall note the revocation of the foreign corporation's 19           certificate of authority on the records of the secretary of state and shall give 20           notice of the action to the foreign corporation.
- 21          b. Notice by the secretary of state must be mailed to the foreign corporation's 22           last registered agent at the last registered office of record.
- 23          c. The decision by the secretary of state that a certificate of authority must be 24           revoked under this subsection is final.
- 25          7. A corporation that was dissolved for failure to file an annual report, or a foreign 26           corporation whose authority was forfeited by failure to file an annual report, may be 27           reinstated by filing a past-due report, together with the statutory filing and penalty
28           fees for an annual report and a reinstatement fee as ~~prescribed~~ provided in section 29           10-33-140. The fees must be paid and the report filed within one year following the 30           involuntary dissolution or revocation. Reinstatement under this subsection does

1 not affect the rights or liability for the time from the dissolution or revocation to the 2 reinstatement.

3 8. The secretary of state may waive any penalties provided in ~~the~~ this section when 4 an annual report form could not be delivered to the corporation.

5 SECTION 112. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-140 of the North Dakota Century Code
6 is amended and reenacted as follows:

7 10-33-140. Secretary of state - Fees and charges.

8 1. The secretary of state shall charge and collect for:

9 a. Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, thirty 10 dollars.

11 b. Filing articles of amendment, twenty dollars.

12 c. Filing articles of correction, twenty dollars.

21 ~~i.~~ j. Filing a resignation as registered agent, ten dollars.

22 ~~j.~~ k. Filing an application to reserve a corporate name, ten dollars.

23 ~~k.~~ l. Filing a notice of transfer of a reserved corporate name, ten dollars.

24 ~~l.~~ m. Filing a cancellation of reserved corporate name, ten dollars.

25 ~~m.~~ n. Filing a consent to use of a deceptively similar name, ten dollars.

26 ~~n.~~ o. Filing an application of a foreign corporation for a certificate of authority to 27 conduct affairs in this state and issuing a certificate of authority, forty dollars.

28 ~~o.~~ p. Filing an application of a foreign corporation for an amended certificate of 29 authority, forty dollars.

30 ~~p.~~ q. Filing a certified statement of merger of a foreign corporation holding a 31 certificate of authority to conduct activities in this state, fifty dollars.

- 1           2. The secretary of state may propound to any corporation or foreign corporation that
2           is subject to this chapter and to any officer, director, or employee thereof any 3           interrogatory as may be reasonably necessary and proper to ascertain whether the 4           corporation has complied with this chapter applicable to the corporation.
- 5           a. The interrogatory must be answered within thirty days after mailing or within 6           any additional time as must be fixed by the secretary of state. The answers to 7           the interrogatory must be full and complete and must be made in writing and 8           under oath.
- 9           b. If the interrogatory is directed:
- 10           (1) To an individual, it must be answered by that individual; or 11           (2) To a corporation, it must be answered by the president, vice president,
12           secretary, or assistant secretary of the corporation.
- 13           c. The secretary of state need not file any ~~document~~ record to which the 14           interrogatory relates until the interrogatory has been answered, and not then if 15           the answers disclose that the ~~document~~ record is not in conformity with this 16           chapter.
- 17           d. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for action the 18           attorney general may deem appropriate, an interrogatory and answers
19           thereto, which discloses a violation of this chapter.
- 20           e. Each officer, director, or employee of a corporation or foreign corporation who 21           fails or refuses within the time provided by subdivision a to answer truthfully
22           and fully an interrogatory propounded to that person by the secretary of state
23           is guilty of an infraction.
- 24           f. An interrogatory propounded by the secretary of state and the answers are 25           not open to public inspection. The secretary of state may not disclose any 26           facts or information obtained from the interrogatory or answers except insofar 27           as may be permitted by law or insofar as is required for evidence in any 28           criminal proceedings or other action by this state.
- 29           3. If the secretary of state rejects any ~~document~~ record required by this chapter to be 30           approved by the secretary of state before the ~~document~~ record may be filed, then

- 1 the secretary of state shall give written notice of the rejection to the person who
2 delivered the ~~document~~ record, specifying the reasons for rejection.
- 3 a. ~~From such rejection the person~~ Within thirty days after the service of the 4 notice of denial, the corporation or foreign corporation as the case may be,
5 may appeal to the district court of the county in which the registered office of 6 such corporation is, or is proposed to be, situated in the judicial district
7 serving Burleigh County by filing with the clerk of the court a petition setting 8 forth a copy of the ~~document~~ record sought to be filed and a copy of the 9 written rejection of the ~~document~~ record by the secretary of state.
- 10 b. The matter must be tried de novo by the court. The court shall either sustain 11 the action of the secretary of state or direct the secretary of state to take the 12 action the court determines proper.
- 13 4. If the secretary of state dissolves a corporation or revokes the certificate of 14 authority to conduct activities in this state of any foreign corporation, pursuant to 15 section 10-33-134, then, the corporation or foreign corporation may appeal to the 16 district court ~~of the county where the registered office of the foreign corporation in~~ 17 ~~this state is situated~~ in the judicial district serving Burleigh County by filing with the 18 clerk of the court a petition ~~setting forth a~~ including:
- 19 a. A copy of the corporation's articles of incorporation and a copy of the notice of 20 dissolution given by the secretary of state; or
- 21 b. A copy of the foreign corporation's certificate of authority to conduct activities 22 in this state and a copy of the notice of revocation given by the secretary of 23 state. The matter must be tried de novo by the court. The court shall sustain 24 the action of the secretary of state or shall direct the secretary of state to take 25 the action the court determines proper.
- 26 5. If the court order sought is one for reinstatement of a corporation that has been 27 dissolved as provided in subsection 5 of section 10-33-139, or for reinstatement of 28 the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation that has been revoked as 29 provided in subsection 6 of section 10-33-139, then together with any other actions 30 the court deems proper, any such order which reverses the decision of the 31 secretary of state shall require the corporation or foreign corporation to:

- 1           a. File all past-due annual reports;
- 2           b. Pay the fees to the secretary of state for each annual report as provided in
- 3           subdivision s of subsection 1 of section 10-33-140; and

- 5           subdivision s of subsection 1 of section 10-33-140.
- 6        6. Appeals from all final orders and judgments entered by the district court under this
- 7           section in review of any ruling or decision of the secretary of state may be taken as
- 8           in other civil actions.

9           SECTION 114. Section 10-33-141.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
10 enacted as follows:

11           10-33-141.1. Delivery to and filing of records by secretary of state and effective
12 date.

- 13        1. A record authorized or required to be delivered to the secretary of state for filing
- 14           under this chapter must be captioned to describe the purpose of the record, be in a
- 15           medium permitted by the secretary of state, and be delivered to the secretary of
- 16           state. If the secretary of state determines that a record complies with the filing
- 17           requirements of this chapter, then the secretary of state shall file the record and
- 18           return a copy of the filed record to the person who delivered it to the secretary of
- 19           state for filing. That person shall then send a copy of the filed record to the person
- 20           on whose behalf the record was filed.
- 21        2. Upon request and payment of a fee provided in section 10-33-139, the secretary of
- 22           state shall send to the requester a certified copy of the requested record.
- 23        3. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, a record delivered to the
- 24           secretary of state for filing under this chapter may specify a delayed effective date
- 25           within ninety days. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a record filed by
- 26           the secretary of state is effective:
- 27           a. If the record does not specify a delayed effective date within ninety days, then
- 28           on the date the record is filed as evidenced by the endorsement of the
- 29           secretary of state of the date on the record.
- 30           b. If the record specifies a delayed effective date within ninety days, then on the
- 31           specified date.

1           SECTION 115. Section 10-33-141.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
2 enacted as follows:

3           10-33-141.2. Correcting a filed record. With respect to correction of a filed record:

4           1. Whenever a record authorized by this chapter to be filed with the secretary of state
5 has been filed and inaccurately records the action referred to in the record,
6 contains an inaccurate or erroneous statement, or was defectively or erroneously 7 executed, sealed, acknowledged, or verified, the record may be corrected by filing
8 a statement of correction.

9           2. A statement of correction:

10          a. Must:

11           (1) Be signed by:

12           (a) The person who executed the original record; or

13           (b) By a person authorized to sign on behalf of that person;

14           (2) Set forth the name of the corporation that filed the record;

15           (3) Identify the record to be corrected by description and by the date of its 16 filing with the secretary of state;

17           (4) Identify the inaccuracy, error, or defect to be corrected; and

18           (5) Set forth a statement in corrected form of the portion of the record to be 19 corrected.

20          b. May not revoke or nullify the record.

21          3. The statement of correction shall be filed with the secretary of state.

22          4. With respect to the effective date of correction:

23          a. A certificate issued by the secretary of state before a record is corrected, with 24 respect to the effect of filing the original record, is considered to be applicable
25 to the record as corrected as of the date the record as corrected is considered
26 to have been filed under this subsection.

27          b. After a statement of correction has been filed with the secretary of state, the 28 original record as corrected is considered to have been filed:

29           (1) On the date the statement of correction was filed:

30           (a) As to persons adversely affected by the correction; and

31           (b) For the purposes of subsection 3 of section 10-33-01.2; and

1                   (2) On the date the original record was filed as to all other persons and for
2                   all other purposes.

3                   SECTION 116. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-142 of the North Dakota Century Code
4 is amended and reenacted as follows:

5                   10-33-142. Secretary of state - Evidence.

- 6                   1. All certificates issued by the secretary of state and all copies of ~~documents~~ records
7                   filed in accordance with this chapter, when certified by the secretary of state, must 8                   be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie 9                   evidence of the facts stated.
- 10                  2. A certificate by the secretary of state under the great seal of this state, as to the 11                  existence or nonexistence of the facts relating to corporations which would not 12                  appear from a certified copy of any of the foregoing ~~documents~~ records or 13                  certificates, must be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official 14                  bodies as prima facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the facts stated.

15                  SECTION 117. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-142.1 of the North Dakota Century Code
16 is amended and reenacted as follows:

17                  10-33-142.1. Secretary of state - Confidential records. Any social security number 18                  or federal tax identification number disclosed or contained in any ~~document~~ record filed with the 19                  secretary of state under this chapter is confidential. The secretary of state shall delete or 20                  obscure any social security number or federal tax identification number before a copy of any 21                  ~~document~~ record is released to the public.

22                  SECTION 118. AMENDMENT. Section 10-33-143 of the North Dakota Century Code
23 is amended and reenacted as follows:

24                  10-33-143. Secretary of state - Forms. All annual reports required by this chapter to 25                  be filed in the office of the secretary of state must be made on forms prescribed by the 26                  secretary of state. Forms for all other ~~documents~~ records to be filed in the office of the 27                  secretary of state may be furnished by the secretary of state upon request. However, the use 28                  of the forms, unless otherwise specifically required by law, is not mandatory.

29                  SECTION 119. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-33-145 of the North Dakota
30 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 1           2.   Upon receipt of a notice under section 10-33-144, the attorney general may review
2           the proposed agreement or transaction to determine whether consummation of the 3           proposed agreement or transaction by the nonprofit corporation or entity operating 4           or controlling a hospital or nursing home is consistent with the purposes of the 5           nonprofit corporation or entity operating or controlling a hospital or nursing home
6           and the fiduciary obligations of the officers and directors of the nonprofit 7           corporation or entity operating or controlling a hospital or nursing home and is in 8           accordance with law. The attorney general shall consider the following factors in 9           reviewing and evaluating a proposed agreement or transaction:
- 10          a.   Whether appropriate steps were taken by the nonprofit corporation or entity 11           operating or controlling a hospital or nursing home to safeguard restricted 12           assets transferred to the acquiring entity;
- 13          b.   Whether appropriate steps were taken by the nonprofit corporation or entity 14           operating or controlling a hospital or nursing home to ensure that any 15           proceeds of the proposed agreement or transaction are used for purposes 16           consistent with restrictions placed on assets of and with the purposes of the 17           nonprofit corporation or entity operating or controlling a hospital or nursing 18           home;
- 19          c.   Whether the terms and conditions of the proposed agreement or transaction 20           are fair and reasonable to the nonprofit corporation or entity operating or 21           controlling a hospital or nursing home, including whether the nonprofit 22           corporation or entity operating or controlling the hospital or nursing home will 23           receive fair market value for its assets and, in a proposed agreement or 24           transaction involving a nursing home, whether the proposed agreement or 25           transaction constitutes a bona fide transaction;
- 26          d.   Whether any conflict of interest or breach of fiduciary duty exists or was 27           disclosed, including any conflict of interest or breach of fiduciary duty related 28           to directors and officers of, executives of, and experts retained by the 29           nonprofit corporation or entity operating or controlling a hospital or nursing 30           home and any other party to the agreement or transaction;

- 1 e. Whether the agreement or transaction will result in inurement, pecuniary gain, 2 or excess benefit to any person associated with the nonprofit corporation or 3 entity operating or controlling a hospital or nursing home or to any other 4 person;
- 5 f. Whether the transaction is in the best interests of the nonprofit corporation or 6 entity operating or controlling a hospital or nursing home; and
- 7 g. Whether the transaction is authorized by the nonprofit corporation's governing 8 ~~documents~~ records.

25 enacted as follows:

26                   45-13-01.1. Legal recognition of electronic records and electronic signatures. For 27 purposes of this chapter:

- 28                   1. A record of signature may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely 29 because it is in electronic form;
30                   2. A contract may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because an 31 electronic record was used in its formation;

1           3. If a provision requires a record to be in writing, an electronic record satisfies the 2           requirement; and

3           4. If a provision requires a signature, an electronic signature satisfies the 4           requirement.

5           SECTION 122. AMENDMENT. Section 45-13-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7           45-13-02. (102) Knowledge and notice.

8           1. A person knows a fact if the person has actual knowledge of it. A person does not 9           know or have knowledge of a fact merely because the person has reason to know
10           or have knowledge of the fact.

11          2. A person has notice of a fact if the person:

12           a. Knows of ~~it~~ the fact;

13           b. Has received ~~a notification of it~~ notice of the fact as provided in subsection 17 14           of section 45-13-01; or

15           c. Has reason to know ~~it~~ the fact exists from all of the facts known to the person 16           at the time in question.

17          3. A person notifies or gives a notification to another by taking the steps reasonably 18           ~~required to inform the other person in ordinary course~~ provided in subsection 17 of 19           section 45-13-01, whether or not the other person learns of it.

20          4. A person receives a notification ~~when the notification:~~ as provided in subsection 17
21           of section 45-13-01.

22           a. ~~Comes to the person's attention;~~ or

23           b. ~~Is duly delivered at the person's place of business or at any other place held~~
24           ~~out by the person as a place for receiving communications.~~

25          5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, and except as otherwise provided in 26           subsection 17 of section 45-13-01, a person other than an individual knows, has
27           notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction
28           when the individual conducting the transaction for the person knows, has notice, or 29           receives a notification of the fact, or in any event when the fact would have been 30           brought to the ~~individual's~~ individual's attention of the individual if the person had exercised 31           reasonable diligence. ~~The~~

- 1           a. A person other than an individual exercises reasonable diligence if it
2           maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the
3           individual conducting the transaction for the person and there is reasonable
4           compliance with the routines.
- 5           b. Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the person to 6           communicate information unless the communication is part of the ~~individual's~~ 7           regular duties of the individual or the individual has reason to know of the 8           transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the 9           information.
- 10          6. ~~A partner's knowledge~~ Knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact 11          relating to the partnership by a managing partner is effective immediately as 12          knowledge by, notice to, or receipt of a notification by the partnership, except in the 13          case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.
- 14          7. With respect to notice given by a form of electronic communication:
- 15           a. Consent by a managing partner to notice given by electronic communication 16           may be given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication. The 17           partnership is entitled to rely on any consent so given until revoked by the 18           managing partner. However, no revocation affects the validity of any notice 19           given before receipt by the partnership of revocation of the consent.
- 20           b. An affidavit of a managing partner or an authorized agent of the partnership, 21           that the notice has been given by a form of electronic communication is, in the 22           absence of fraud, prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit.

- 22 (e) A limited liability partnership; or
- 23 (f) A limited liability limited partnership;
- 24 (2) A name, the right of which is, at the time of filing, reserved in the 25 manner provided in section 10-19.1-14, 10-32-11, 10-33-11, ~~45-10.1-03~~
26 45-10.2-11, 45-13-04.2, or 45-22-05;
- 27 (3) A fictitious name registered in the manner provided in chapter 45-11; or
- 28 (4) A trade name registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-25.
- 29 2. The secretary of state shall determine whether a partnership name is deceptively 30 similar to another name for purposes of this chapter.

- 1           3. ~~This subsection does not affect the right of a domestic partnership existing on~~
2           ~~July 1, 1999, or a foreign partnership authorized to do business in this state on~~
3           ~~July 1, 1999, to continue the use of the foreign partnership's name.~~ If the secretary
4           of state determines a partnership name is deceptively similar to another name for 5           purposes of this chapter, then the partnership name may not be used unless there 6           is filed with the statement:
- 7           a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name to which the 8           proposed name is determined to be deceptively similar; or
- 9           b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the earlier
10          right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.
- 11          4. This section does not affect the right of a partnership existing on July 1, 1999, or a 12          foreign partnership authorized to do business in this state on July 1, 1999, to 13          continue the use of the foreign partnership's name.
- 14          5. This section and section 45-13-04.2 do not:
- 15          a. Abrogate or limit the law of unfair competition or unfair practices; chapter
16          47-25; the laws of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and 17          protect copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service names, service marks;

25           SECTION 132. Section 45-21-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
26 enacted as follows:

27           45-21-04.2. Effective date of conversion - Effect.

28           1. A conversion is effective when the filing requirements of subsection 2 of section 29 45-21-04 have been fulfilled or on a later date specified in the statement of 30 conversion.

- 1           2. With respect to the effect of conversion on the converting organization and on the 2           converted organization:
- 3           a. An organization that has been converted as provided in sections 45-21-01
4           through 45-21-07.1 is for all purposes the same entity that existed before the
5           conversion.
- 6           b. Upon a conversion becoming effective:
- 7           (1) If the converted organization is not a partnership, then the converted 8           organization has all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and 9           is subject to the duties and liabilities as provided in its governing 10           statute;
- 11           (2) All property owned by the converting organization remains vested in the 12           converted organization;
- 13           (3) All debts, liabilities, and other obligations of the converting organization
14           continue as obligations of the converted organization;
- 15           (4) An action or proceeding pending by or against the converting 16           organization may be continued as if the conversion had not occurred;
- 17           (5) Except as otherwise provided by other law, all rights, privileges,
18           immunities, and powers of the converting organization remain vested in 19           the converted organization;
- 20           (6) Except as otherwise provided in the plan of conversion, the terms and 21           conditions of the plan of conversion take effect; and
- 22           (7) Except as otherwise agreed, the conversion does not dissolve a 23           converting partnership for the purposes of sections 45-20-01 through 24           45-20-07.
- 25           3. When a conversion becomes effective, each ownership interest in the converting 26           organization is deemed to be converted into ownership interests in the converted
27           organization or, in whole or in part, into money or other property to be received 28           under the plan.
- 29           4. A converted organization that is a foreign organization consents to the jurisdiction
30           of the courts of this state to enforce any obligations owed by the converting

1            partnership, if before the conversion the converting partnership was subject to suit
2            in this state on the obligation.

3            5. A converted organization that is a foreign organization and not authorized to 4            transact business or conduct activities in this state appoints the secretary of state 5            as its agent for service of process for purposes of enforcing an obligation under 6            this subsection.

7            SECTION 133. AMENDMENT. Section 45-21-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is
8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9            45-21-05. (905) Merger of partnerships.

- 10           1. Pursuant to a plan of merger approved as provided in subsection 3, a partnership 11           may be merged with one or more other organizations.
- 12           2. The plan of merger must set forth:

28           or a number or percentage specified for merger in the partnership agreement; 29           and
- 30           b. In the case of a ~~limited~~ constituent organization other than a partnership that 31           is a party to the merger, by the vote required for approval of a merger by the

1 ~~law of the state or foreign jurisdiction in which the limited partnership~~
2 ~~governing statute of the constituent organization in the jurisdiction in which~~
3 ~~the constituent organization is organized and, in the absence of such a~~
4 ~~specifically applicable law, by all of the partners, notwithstanding a provision~~
5 ~~to the contrary in the partnership agreement.~~

6 4. After a plan of merger is approved and before the merger takes effect, the plan 7 may be amended or abandoned as provided in the plan.

8 5. The merger takes effect on the later of:

9 a. The approval of the plan of merger by all ~~parties to the merger~~ constituent 10 organizations, as provided in subsection 3;

11 b. The filing of all ~~documents~~ records required by law to be filed as a condition to 12 the effectiveness of the merger; or

13 c. Any effective date specified in the plan of merger.

14 SECTION 134. AMENDMENT. Section 45-21-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is
15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 45-21-06. (906) Effect of merger.

17 1. When a merger takes effect:

18 a. The separate existence of ~~every partnership or limited~~ each constituent 19 partnership that is a party to the merger, other than the surviving ~~entity~~
20 organization, ceases;

21 b. All property owned by each of the ~~merged partnerships or limited~~ constituent 22 partnerships vests in the surviving ~~entity~~ organization;

23 c. All obligations of ~~every partnership or limited~~ each constituent partnership ~~that~~ 24 ~~is a party to the merger~~ become the obligations of the surviving ~~entity~~ 25 organization; and

26 d. An action or proceeding pending against a constituent partnership ~~or limited~~ 27 ~~partnership that is a party to the merger~~ may be continued as if the merger
28 had not occurred, or the surviving ~~entity~~ organization may be substituted as a 29 party to the action or proceeding.

30 2. The secretary of state of this state is the agent for service of process in an action 31 or proceeding against a surviving foreign partnership ~~or limited partnership~~ to

- 1 enforce an obligation of a ~~domestic partnership or limited partnership~~ that is a party
2 ~~to a merger~~ constituent organization. The surviving entity organization shall 3 promptly notify the secretary of state of the mailing address of its principal 4 executive office and of any change of address. Upon receipt of process, the 5 secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the surviving foreign 6 partnership ~~or limited partnership~~.
- 7 3. A general partner of the surviving partnership ~~or limited partnership~~ is liable for:
- 8 a. All obligations of a party to the merger for which the general partner was 9 personally liable before the merger;
- 10 b. All other obligations of the surviving entity organization incurred before the 11 merger by a ~~party to the merger~~ constituent organization, but those 12 obligations may be satisfied only out of property of the entity surviving 13 organization; and
- 14 c. All obligations of the surviving entity organization incurred after the merger 15 takes effect, ~~but those obligations may be satisfied only out of property of the~~ 16 ~~entity if the partner is a limited partner~~.
- 17 4. If the obligations incurred before the merger by a ~~party to the merger~~ constituent 18 partnership are not satisfied out of the property of the surviving ~~partnership or~~ 19 ~~limited partnership~~ organization, then the general partners of ~~that party~~ the 20 constituent partnership immediately before the effective date of the merger shall 21 contribute the amount necessary to satisfy ~~that party's~~ the obligations of the 22 constituent partnership to the surviving entity organization, in the manner provided 23 in section 45-20-07 ~~or in the Limited Partnership Act of the jurisdiction in which the~~ 24 ~~party was formed, as the case may be, as if the merged party were dissolved~~.
- 25 5. A partner of a ~~party to a merger~~ constituent partnership who does not ~~become a~~
26 ~~partner~~ receive an ownership interest of the surviving ~~partnership or limited~~ 27 ~~partnership~~ organization is dissociated from the entity partnership, of which that 28 partner was a partner, as of the date the merger takes effect. The surviving entity
29 organization shall cause the partner's ownership interest of the partner in the entity
30 constituent partnership to be purchased under section 45-19-01 or another statute 31 specifically applicable to that partner's ownership interest of that partner with

1           respect to a merger. The surviving ~~entity~~ organization is bound under section 2           45-19-02 by an act of a general partner dissociated under this subsection, and the 3           partner is liable under section 45-19-03 for transactions entered into by the 4           surviving ~~entity~~ organization after the merger takes effect.

5           SECTION 135. AMENDMENT. Section 45-21-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is
6           amended and reenacted as follows:

23          which before the merger was held in the name of another party to the merger is 24          property held in the name of the surviving ~~entity~~ organization upon filing a 25          statement of merger.
- 26          4. For the purposes of section 45-15-02, real property of the surviving ~~partnership or~~ 27          ~~limited partnership~~ organization which before the merger was held in the name of 28          another ~~party to the merger~~ constituent organization is property held in the name of 29          the surviving ~~entity~~ organization upon recording a certified copy of the statement of 30          merger in the office for recording transfers of that real property.

1           5. A filed and, if appropriate, recorded statement of merger, executed and declared to 2           be accurate pursuant to subsection 3 of section 45-13-05, stating the name of a
3           constituent partnership or limited partnership that is a ~~party to the merger~~ 4           constituent organization in whose name property was held before the merger and 5           the name of the surviving ~~entity~~ organization, but not containing all of the other 6           information required by subsection 2, operates with respect to the ~~partnerships or~~ 7           ~~limited partnerships named~~ constituent partnership and the surviving organization
8           to the extent provided in subsections 3 and 4.

9           SECTION 136. Section 45-21-07.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
10          enacted as follows:

11          45-21-07.1. Liability of general partner after conversion or merger.

12          1. A conversion or merger under this chapter does not discharge any liability under 13          sections 45-15-06, 45-15-07, and 45-15-08 of a person that was a general partner
14          in or dissociated as a general partner from a converting or constituent partnership, 15          but:

16          a. The provisions of this chapter pertaining to the collection or discharge of the 17          liability continue to apply to the liability;

18          b. For the purposes of applying those provisions, the converted or surviving 19          organization is deemed to be the converting or constituent partnership; and 20          c. If a person is required to pay any amount under this subsection, then:

21                  (1) The person has a right of contribution from each other person that was 22                  liable as a general partner under section 45-15-06 when the obligation 23                  was incurred and has not been released from the obligation under 24                  section 45-20-06; and

25                  (2) The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the 26                  right to receive distributions in the capacity of general partner in effect 27                  for each of those persons when the obligations were incurred as 28                  provided in section 45-20-07.

29          2. In addition to any other liability provided by law:

30                  a. A person that immediately before a conversion or merger became effective 31                  was a general partner in a converting or constituent partnership is personally

- 1                   liable for each obligation of the converted or surviving organization arising 2                   from a transaction with a third party after the conversion or merger becomes 3                   effective, if, at the time the third party enters into the transaction, the third 4                   party:
- 5                   (1) Does not have notice of the conversion or merger; and 6                   (2) Reasonably believes that:

8 under a name other than the name as registered under this chapter.
- 9 2. The secretary of state shall determine whether a name is deceptively similar to 10 another name for purposes of this ~~section~~ chapter.
- 11 3. If the secretary of state determines that a limited liability partnership name is 12 deceptively similar to another name for purposes of this chapter, the limited liability 13 partnership name may not be used unless there is filed with the registration:
- 14 a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name to which the 15 proposed name has been determined to be deceptively similar; or
- 16 b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the earlier
17 right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.
- 18 4. This section and section 45-22-05 do not:
- 19 a. Abrogate or limit:
- 20 (1) The law of unfair competition or unfair practices;
- 21 (2) Chapter 47-25;
- 22 (3) The laws of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and 23 protect copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service names, and 24 service marks; or
- 25 (4) Any other rights to the exclusive use of names or symbols.
- 26 b. Derogate the common law or principles of equity.
- 27 5. A limited liability partnership that is the surviving organization in a merger with one 28 or more organizations, or that acquires by sale, lease, or other disposition to or

- 1 requirements of subsection 1, as that used in this state by any of the other 2 organizations, if the other organization whose name is sought:
- 3 a. Is incorporated, organized, formed, or registered under the laws of this state;
  - 4 b. Is authorized to transact business or conduct activities in this state;
  - 5 c. Holds a reserved name in the manner provided in section 10-19.1-14,
6 10-32-11, 10-33-11, ~~45-10.1-03~~ 45-10.2-11, 45-13-04.2, or 45-22-05;
  - 7 d. Holds a fictitious name registered in the manner provided in chapter 45-11; or
  - 8 e. Holds a trade name registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-25.
- 9 6. The use of a name by a limited liability partnership in violation of this section does 10 not affect or vitiate the limited liability partnership's status as a limited liability 11 partnership. However, a court of this state may, upon application of the state or of 12 an interested or affected person, enjoin the limited liability partnership from doing 13 business under a name assumed in violation of this section, even though the 14 limited liability partnership's registration may have been filed with the secretary of 15 state.
- 16 7. A limited liability partnership whose registration has expired or whose registration 17 has been forfeited as provided in section 45-22-21.1 may reacquire the right to use 18 that name by refiling a registration as provided in section 45-22-03 unless the 19 name has been adopted for use or reserved by another person, in which case the 20 filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written consent or 21 judgment pursuant to subsection 3. A limited liability partnership that cannot 22 reacquire the use of its limited liability partnership name shall adopt a new limited 23 liability partnership name that complies with this section:
- 24 a. By refiling a registration as provided in section 45-22-03;
  - 25 b. By amending its registration as provided in section 45-22-03; or
  - 26 c. By reinstating the limited liability partnership pursuant to section 45-22-21.1, 27 unless the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another person, in 28 which case the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a 29 written consent or judgment as provided in subsection 3.
- 30 8. With respect to foreign limited liability partnerships:

- 1           a. A foreign limited liability partnership may register under any name that would 2           be available to a domestic limited liability partnership, regardless of whether 3           the name is the same under which the foreign limited liability partnership is 4           authorized in the jurisdiction of original registration.
- 5           b. A fictitious name certificate must be filed as provided in chapter 45-11 only if 6           registering under a name other than the name as authorized in the jurisdiction
7           of original registration.

8           SECTION 139. AMENDMENT. Section 45-22-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is
9 amended and reenacted as follows:

10           45-22-05. Reserved name.

- 11           1. The exclusive right to the use of a limited liability partnership name otherwise 12           permitted by section 45-22-04 may be reserved by any person.
- 13           2. The reservation is made by filing with the secretary of state a request that the 14           name be reserved ~~together with the fees provided in section 45-22-22.:~~
- 15           a. If the name is available for use by the applicant, the secretary of state shall 16           reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of twelve 17           months.
- 18           b. The reservation may be renewed for successive twelve-month periods.
- 19           3. The right to the exclusive use of a limited liability partnership name reserved 20           pursuant to this section may be transferred to another person by or on behalf of the 21           applicant for whom the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a 22           notice of the transfer and specifying the name and address of the transferee
23           ~~together with the fees provided in section 45-22-22.~~
- 24           4. The right to the exclusive use of a limited liability partnership name reserved 25           pursuant to this section may be canceled by or on behalf of the applicant for whom 26           the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of cancellation
27           ~~together with the fees provided in section 45-22-22.~~
- 28           5. The secretary of state may destroy ~~any~~ all reserved name ~~request~~ requests and 29           ~~name request~~ the index thereof one year after expiration.

30           SECTION 140. AMENDMENT. Section 45-22-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is
31 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           45-22-17. Service of process on a limited liability partnership or a foreign limited
2 liability partnership and on a nonresident partner.

3           1. The registered agent must be an agent of the limited liability partnership and any 4 nonresident partner upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or 5 permitted by law to be served on the limited liability partnership or partner may be 6 served.

7           a. When a foreign limited liability partnership transacts business without a 8 registration or when the registration of a foreign limited liability partnership is 9 suspended or revoked, the secretary of state is an agent of the foreign limited 10 liability partnership for service of process, notice, or demand.

11           b. Acceptance of a managing partnership status in a limited liability partnership 12 includes the appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for personal 13 service of legal process, notice, or demand.

14           2. A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on a 15 limited liability partnership may be served ~~on~~:

16           a. On the registered agent ~~or on~~;

17           b. On any responsible person found at the registered office ~~or on~~;

18           c. On a managing partner of the partnership; or

19           d. On the secretary of state as provided in this section.

20           ~~2.~~ 3. If neither the registered agent nor a responsible person can be found at the 21 registered office and if a responsible person affiliated with the limited liability 22 partnership cannot be found at the principal place of business in this state, then the 23 secretary of state is ~~the~~ an agent of the limited liability partnership on whom the 24 process, notice, or demand may be served.

25           a. Service on the secretary of state:

26           a- (1) Shall be made by registered mail or personal delivery to the secretary 27 of state and not by electronic communication.

28           b- (2) Shall include the return of the sheriff or affidavit of a person not a party, 29 verifying that neither a registered agent nor a responsible person can 30 be found at the registered office or at the principal place of business in 31 this state.

- 1 e. (3) Is deemed personal service on the limited liability partnership and may 2 be made by filing with the secretary of state:
- 3 ~~(1)~~ (a) Three copies of the process, notice, or demand; and 4 ~~(2)~~ (b) The fees provided in section 45-22-22.
5 (4) Is returnable in not less than thirty days, notwithstanding a shorter 6 period specified in the process, notice, or demand.
- 7 e. b. The secretary of state immediately shall forward, by certified mail addressed 8 to the limited liability partnership at the limited liability partnership's registered 9 office or principal place of business in this state, a copy of the process, notice, 10 or demand.
- 11 e. ~~Service on the secretary of state is returnable in not less than thirty days,~~ 12 ~~notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process, notice, or demand.~~
- 13 4. Process, notice, or demand may be served on a limited liability partnership which 14 has voluntarily withdrawn its registration or which has forfeited its registration as 15 provided in section 45-22-21.1. The court shall determine if service is proper:
- 16 a. If a limited liability partnership has voluntarily withdrawn its registration, then 17 service may be made as provided in subsection 2.
- 18 b. If a limited liability partnership has forfeited its registration as provided in 19 section 45-22-21.1, then service may be made as provided in subsection 3.
- 20 ~~3.~~ 5. The secretary of state shall maintain a record of every process, notice, and 21 demand served on the secretary of state under this section, including the date of 22 service and the action taken with reference to the process, notice, or demand.
- 23 4. 6. This section does not limit the right of a person to serve process, notice, or 24 demand required or permitted by law to be served on a limited liability partnership 25 in any other manner permitted by law.

26 SECTION 141. AMENDMENT. Section 45-22-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code
27 is amended and reenacted as follows:

28 45-22-21.1. Secretary of state - Annual report of domestic limited liability
29 partnership and foreign limited liability partnership.

- 1           1. Each domestic limited liability partnership and each foreign limited liability
2           partnership authorized to transact business in this state, shall file, within the time 3           ~~prescribed~~ provided by subsection 3, an annual report setting forth:
- 4           a. The name of the limited liability partnership and ~~the~~ its jurisdiction of origin.
5           b. The address of the registered office of the limited liability partnership in this 6           state, and the name of the limited liability partnership's registered agent in this 7           state at that address.
8           c. The address of the limited liability partnership's chief executive office.
9           d. A brief statement of the character of the business in which the limited liability 10          partnership is actually engaged in this state.
11          e. The name and respective address of each managing partner of the domestic 12          limited liability partnership or foreign limited liability partnership.
- 13          2. The annual report must be submitted on forms prescribed by the secretary of state.
14          The information provided must be given as of the date of the execution of the 15          report. The annual report must be signed as ~~prescribed~~ provided in subsection 24 16          of section 45-22-01, the partnership agreement, or in a resolution approved by the 17          affirmative vote of the required proportion or number of partners. If the limited 18          liability partnership is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, the annual report must 19          be signed on behalf of the limited liability partnership by the receiver or trustee.
20          The secretary of state may destroy any annual report provided for in this section 21          after the annual report is on file for six years.
- 22          3. The annual report of a limited liability partnership must be delivered to the 23          secretary of state before April first of each year, except the first annual report of a
24          limited liability partnership must be delivered before April first of the year following
25          the calendar year in which the registration is filed by the secretary of state. A 26          limited liability partnership in existence on July 1, 1999, shall file the first annual 27          report before April first in the year of the expiration of the registration in effect on 28          July 1, 1999.
- 29          a. An annual report in a sealed envelope postmarked by the United States postal 30          service before April first, or an annual report in a sealed packet with a verified

- 1 shipment date by any other carrier service before April first, complies with this 2 requirement.
- 3 b. The secretary of state must file the annual report if the annual report conforms 4 to the requirements of subsection 2.
- 5 (1) If the annual report does not conform, the annual report must be 6 returned to the limited liability partnership for any necessary
7 corrections.
- 8 (2) If the annual report is filed before the deadlines ~~prescribed~~ provided in 9 this subsection, penalties for the failure to file a report within the time 10 provided do not apply if the annual report is corrected to conform to the 11 requirements of subsection 2 and returned to the secretary of state
12 within thirty days after the annual report was returned by the secretary
13 of state for correction.
- 14 4. After the date established under subsection 3, the secretary of state shall notify 15 any limited liability partnership failing to file an annual report that the limited liability 16 partnership's registration is not in good standing and that the registration of the 17 limited liability partnership may be revoked pursuant to subsection 5.
- 18 a. The secretary of state shall mail notice of revocation to the last registered 19 agent at the last registered office of record.
- 20 b. If the limited liability partnership files an annual report after the notice is 21 mailed, together with the annual report filing fee and late filing penalty fee as 22 ~~prescribed~~ provided by section 45-22-22, the secretary of state shall restore 23 the limited liability partnership's registration to good standing.
- 24 5. A domestic limited liability partnership that does not file an annual report, along 25 with the statutory filing and penalty fees, within six months after the date 26 established in subsection 3, forfeits the limited liability partnership's registration.
- 27 a. The secretary of state shall note the revocation of the domestic limited liability 28 partnership's registration on the records of the secretary of state and shall 29 give notice of the action to the revoked domestic limited liability partnership.
- 30 b. Notice by the secretary of state must be mailed to the domestic limited liability 31 partnership's last registered agent at the last registered office of record.

- 1           6. A foreign limited liability partnership that does not file an annual report, along with 2           the statutory filing and penalty fees, within six months after the date established by 3           subsection 3, forfeits the foreign limited liability partnership's registration and 4           authority to transact business in this state.
- 5           a. The secretary of state shall note the revocation of the foreign limited liability
6           partnership's registration and authority on the records of the secretary of state
7           and shall give notice of the action to the foreign limited liability partnership.
8           b. Notice by the secretary of state must be mailed to the foreign limited liability
9           partnership's last registered agent at the last registered office of record.
10          c. The secretary of state's decision that a registration must be revoked under 11          this subsection is final.
- 12          7. A domestic limited liability partnership with a registration that is revoked for failure 13          to file an annual report or a foreign limited liability partnership with registration and 14          authority that are forfeited by failure to file an annual report may be reinstated by 15          filing a past-due report, together with the statutory filing and penalty fees for an 16          annual report and a reinstatement fee as ~~prescribed~~ provided in section 45-22-22.
17          The fees must be paid and the report filed within one year following the revocation.
18          Reinstatement under this subsection does not affect any right or liability of a 19          domestic limited liability partnership or a foreign limited liability partnership for the 20          time from the revocation to the reinstatement.

21           SECTION 142. AMENDMENT. Section 45-22-22 of the North Dakota Century Code is
22 amended and reenacted as follows:

23           45-22-22. Secretary of state - Fees and charges.

- 24          1. The secretary of state shall charge and collect for:
- 25          a. Filing a registration as a domestic limited liability partnership, twenty-five 26          dollars. If there are more than two managing partners, an additional three 27          dollars must be paid for each additional managing partner not to exceed two 28          hundred fifty dollars.
- 29          b. Filing a registration as a foreign limited liability partnership, fifty dollars.
- 30          c. Filing an annual report of a domestic limited liability partnership or foreign 31          limited liability partnership, twenty-five dollars.

- 1 c. The secretary of state need not file any ~~document~~ record to which an

3 disclose the ~~document~~ record is not in conformity with this chapter.
- 4 d. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for any action the 5 attorney general determines appropriate, any interrogatory and answers that 6 disclose a violation of this chapter.
- 7 e. Each managing partner of a domestic limited liability partnership or a resident 8 partner or designated partner of a foreign limited liability partnership who fails 9 or refuses within the time provided by this section to answer truthfully and fully 10 every interrogatory propounded to that person by the secretary of state is 11 guilty of an infraction.
- 12 f. Any interrogatory propounded by the secretary of state and the answers are 13 not open to public inspection under section 44-04-18. The secretary of state 14 may not disclose any fact or information obtained from an interrogatory except 15 to the extent permitted by law or required for evidence in any criminal 16 proceeding or other action by this state.
- 17 3. If the secretary of state rejects any ~~document~~ record required by this chapter to be 18 approved by the secretary of state before the ~~document~~ record may be filed, the 19 secretary of state shall give written notice of the rejection to the person who 20 delivered the ~~document~~ record, specifying the reasons for rejection. ~~That person~~
21 a. Within thirty days after the service of the notice of denial, the limited liability 22 partnership may appeal to the district court of the county in which the 23 ~~registered office of the domestic limited liability partnership or foreign limited~~ 24 ~~liability partnership is, or is proposed to be, situated~~ judicial district serving 25 Burleigh County by filing with the clerk of that court a petition setting forth a 26 copy of the ~~document~~ record sought to be filed and a copy of the written 27 rejection of the ~~document~~ record by the secretary of state. The court shall try 28 the matter de novo.
- 29 b. The court shall sustain the action of the secretary of state or direct the 30 secretary of state to take any action the court determines proper.

- 1           4. If the secretary of state revokes the registration of any foreign limited liability
2           partnership pursuant to section 45-22-16, then the foreign limited liability 3           partnership may appeal to district court ~~of the county where the registered office of~~ 4           ~~the foreign limited liability partnership in this state is situated~~ in the judicial district
5           serving Burleigh County by filing with the clerk of that court a petition ~~setting forth~~ 6           a, including:
- 7           a. A copy of the foreign limited liability partnership's registration; and a 8           b. A copy of the notice of revocation given by the secretary of state. The court 9           shall try the matter de novo. The court shall sustain the action of the 10           secretary of state or direct the secretary of state to take any action the court 11           determines proper.

27           SECTION 144. Section 45-22-23.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
28   enacted as follows:

29           45-22-23.1. Delivery to and filing of records by secretary of state and effective 30   date.

- 1           1. A record authorized or required to be delivered to the secretary of state for filing
2           under this chapter must be captioned to describe the purpose of the record, be in a
3           medium permitted by the secretary of state, and be delivered to the secretary of
4           state. If the secretary of state determines that a record complies with the filing
5           requirements of this chapter, then the secretary of state shall file the record and
6           return a copy of the filed record to the person who delivered it to the secretary of 7           state for filing. That person shall then:
- 8           a. For a statement of dissociation, send a copy of the filed statement:
9                 (1) To the person which the statement indicates has dissociated as a 10                partner; and 11                (2) To the limited liability partnership; and
- 12           b. For all other records, send a copy of the filed record to the person on whose 13           behalf the record was filed.
- 14           2. Upon request and payment of a fee provided in section 45-22-22, the secretary of 15           state shall send to the requester a certified copy of the requested record.
- 16           3. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, a record delivered to the 17           secretary of state for filing under this chapter may specify a delayed effective date
18           within ninety days. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a record filed by 19           the secretary of state is effective:
- 20           a. If the record does not specify a delayed effective date within ninety days, then
