4           28-35-06. (201) Definitions - Significant connection factors.

5           1. In sections 28-35-06, 28-35-07, 28-35-08, 28-35-09, 28-35-10, 28-35-11, 28-35-12, 6           28-35-13, and 28-35-14:

7           a. "Emergency" means a circumstance that likely will result in substantial harm 8           to a respondent's health, safety, or welfare, and for which the appointment of 9           a guardian is necessary because no other person has authority and is willing 10           to act on the respondent's behalf.

11           b. "Home state" means the state in which the respondent was physically 12           present, including any period of temporary absence, for at least six 13           consecutive months immediately before the filing of a petition for a protective 14           order or the appointment of a guardian; or if none, the state in which the 15           respondent was physically present, including any period of temporary 16           absence, for at least six consecutive months ending within the six months 17           prior to the filing of the petition.

18           c. "Significant-connection state" means a state, other than the home state, with 19           which a respondent has a significant connection other than mere physical 20           presence and in which substantial evidence concerning the respondent is 21           available.

22           2. In determining under sections 28-35-08 and subsection 5 of section 28-35-15 23           whether a respondent has a significant connection with a particular state, the court 24           shall consider:

25           a. The location of the respondent's family and other persons required to be 26           notified of the guardianship or protective proceeding;

27           b. The length of time the respondent at any time was physically present in the 28           state and the duration of any absence;

29           c. The location of the respondent's property; and

1           d. The extent to which the respondent has ties to the state such as voting 2                 registration, state or local tax return filing, vehicle registration, driver's license, 3                 social relationship, and receipt of services.

4           28-35-07. (202) Exclusive basis. Sections 28-35-06, 28-35-07, 28-35-08, 28-35-09, 5 28-35-10, 28-35-11, 28-35-12, 28-35-13, and 28-35-14 provide the exclusive jurisdictional basis 6 for a court of this state to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for an adult.

7           28-35-08. (203) Jurisdiction. A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a 8 guardian or issue a protective order for a respondent if:

9           1. This state is the respondent's home state;

10          2. On the date the petition is filed, this state is a significant-connection state and:

11           a. The respondent does not have a home state or a court of the respondent's 12                 home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is a more 13                 appropriate forum; or

14           b. The respondent has a home state, a petition for an appointment or order is 15                 not pending in a court of that state or another significant-connection state, 16                 and, before the court makes the appointment or issues the order:

17                 (1) A petition for an appointment or order is not filed in the respondent's 18                         home state;

19                 (2) An objection to the court's jurisdiction is not filed by a person required 20                         to be notified of the proceeding; and 21                 (3) The court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum under 22                         the factors set forth in section 28-35-11;

23          3. This state does not have jurisdiction under either subsection 1 or 2, the 24                 respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have declined to 25                 exercise jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate forum, and 26                 jurisdiction in this state is consistent with the constitutions of this state and the 27                 United States; or 28          4. The requirements for special jurisdiction under section 28-35-09 are met.

29           28-35-09. (204) Special jurisdiction.

30           1. A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under section 28-35-08 has special 31                 jurisdiction to do any of the following:

- 1           a. Appoint a guardian in an emergency for a term not exceeding ninety days for 2           a respondent who is physically present in this state;
- 3           b. Issue a protective order with respect to real or tangible personal property 4           located in this state; or
- 5           c. Appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated or protected person for 6           whom a provisional order to transfer the proceeding from another state has 7           been issued under procedures similar to section 28-35-15.
- 8           2. If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is brought in this 9           state and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition 10           was filed, the court shall dismiss the proceeding at the request of the court of the 11           home state, if any, whether dismissal is requested before or after the emergency 12           appointment.
- 13           28-35-10. (205) Exclusive and continuing jurisdiction. Except as otherwise 14           provided in section 28-35-09, a court that has appointed a guardian or issued a protective order 15           consistent with this chapter has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until 16           the appointment or order is terminated by the court or the appointment or order expires by its 17           own terms.
- 18           28-35-11. (206) Appropriate forum.
- 19           1. A court of this state having jurisdiction under section 28-35-08 to appoint a 20           guardian or issue a protective order may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if the 21           court determines at any time that a court of another state is a more appropriate 22           forum.
- 23           2. If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection 1, the 24           court shall either dismiss or stay the proceeding. The court may impose any 25           condition the court considers just and proper, including the condition that a petition 26           for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order be filed 27           promptly in another state.
- 28           3. In determining whether a court is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all 29           relevant factors, including:
- 30           a. Any expressed preference of the respondent;

- 1           b. Whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is
- 2                 likely to occur and which state could best protect the respondent from the
- 3                 abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
- 4           c. The length of time the respondent was physically present in or was a legal
- 5                 resident of this or another state;
- 6           d. The distance of the respondent from the court in each state;
- 7           e. The financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;
- 8           f. The nature and location of the evidence;
- 9           g. The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the
- 10                 procedures necessary to present evidence;
- 11           h. The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the
- 12                 proceeding; and
- 13           i. If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the conduct of the
- 14                 guardian or conservator.

15           28-35-12. (207) Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct.

- 16           1. If at any time a court of this state determines that the court acquired jurisdiction to
- 17                 appoint a guardian or issue a protective order because of unjustifiable conduct, the
- 18                 court may:
- 19                 a. Decline to exercise jurisdiction;
- 20                 b. Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate
- 21                 remedy to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the respondent or the
- 22                 protection of the respondent's property or prevent a repetition of the
- 23                 unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until a petition for the
- 24                 appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in a court
- 25                 of another state having jurisdiction; or
- 26                 c. Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:
- 27                         (1) The extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be
- 28                         notified of the proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the
- 29                         court's jurisdiction;
- 30                         (2) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other state
- 31                         under the factors set forth in subsection 3 of section 28-35-11; and

1                   (3) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under 2                   factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional 3                   standards of section 28-35-09.

4           2. If a court of this state determines that the court acquired jurisdiction to appoint a 5           guardian or issue a protective order because a party seeking to invoke its 6           jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court may assess against that 7           party necessary and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, investigative 8           fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and expenses, and travel 9           expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses of any kind against 10           this state or a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state 11           unless authorized by law other than this chapter.

12           28-35-13. (208) Notice of proceeding. If a petition for the appointment of a guardian 13           or issuance of a protective order is brought in this state and this state was not the respondent's 14           home state on the date the petition was filed, in addition to complying with the notice 15           requirements of this state, notice of the petition must be given to those persons who would be 16           entitled to notice of the petition if a proceeding were brought in the respondent's home state.
17           The notice must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this state.

18           28-35-14. (209) Proceedings in more than one state. Except for a petition for the 19           appointment of a guardian in an emergency or issuance of a protective order limited to property 20           located in this state under subdivision a or b of subsection 1 of section 28-35-09, if a petition for 21           the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in this state and in 22           another state and neither petition has been dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules apply:

23           1. If the court in this state has jurisdiction under section 28-35-08, the court may 24           proceed with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under 25           provisions similar to section 28-35-09 before the appointment or issuance of the 26           order.

27           2. If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under section 28-35-08, whether 28           at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance of 29           the order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in 30           the other state. If the court in the other state has jurisdiction, the court in this state

1           shall dismiss the petition unless the court in the other state determines that the 2           court in this state is a more appropriate forum.

3           28-35-15. (301) Transfer of guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

4           1. A guardian or conservator appointed in this state may petition the court to transfer 5           the guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

6           2. Notice of a petition under subsection 1 must be given to the persons that would be 7           entitled to notice of a petition in this state for the appointment of a guardian or 8           conservator.

9           3. On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the 10           incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the 11           petition, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection 1.

12           4. The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition to transfer a 13           guardianship and shall direct the guardian to petition for guardianship in the other 14           state if the court is satisfied that the guardianship will be accepted by the court in 15           the other state and the court finds that:

16           a. The incapacitated person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to 17           move permanently to the other state;

18           b. An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been 19           made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to 20           the interests of the incapacitated person; and 21           c. Plans for care and services for the incapacitated person in the other state are 22           reasonable and sufficient.

23           5. The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition to transfer a 24           conservatorship and shall direct the conservator to petition for conservatorship in 25           the other state if the court is satisfied that the conservatorship will be accepted by 26           the court of the other state and the court finds that:

27           a. The protected person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to 28           move permanently to the other state, or the protected person has a significant 29           connection to the other state considering the factors in subsection 2 of section 30           28-35-06;

- 1           b. An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been 2                    made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to 3                    the interests of the protected person; and
- 4           c. Adequate arrangements will be made for management of the protected 5                    person's property.
- 6        6. The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the 7            guardianship or conservatorship upon its receipt of:
- 8           a. A provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which the 9                    proceeding is to be transferred which is issued under provisions similar to 10                  section 28-35-16; and
- 11          b. The documents required to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship in 12                  this state.

13            28-35-16. (302) Accepting guardianship or conservatorship transferred from 14 another state.

- 15        1. To confirm transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship transferred to this state 16            under provisions similar to section 28-35-15, the guardian or conservator must 17            petition the court in this state to accept the guardianship or conservatorship. The 18            petition must include a certified copy of the other state's provisional order of 19            transfer.
- 20        2. Notice of a petition under subsection 1 must be given to those persons that would 21            be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment of a guardian 22            or issuance of a protective order in both the transferring state and this state. The 23            notice must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this 24            state.
- 25        3. On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the 26            incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the 27            proceeding, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to 28            subsection 1.
- 29        4. The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed under 30            subsection 1 unless:

- 1           a. An objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the 2                   proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated or protected 3                   person; or
- 4           b. The guardian or conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state.
- 5           5. The court shall issue a final order accepting the proceeding and appointing the 6                   guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator in this state upon the court's 7                   receipt from the court from which the proceeding is being transferred of a final 8                   order issued under provisions similar to section 28-35-15 transferring the 9                   proceeding to this state.
- 10          6. No later than ninety days after issuance of a final order accepting transfer of a 11                   guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine whether the 12                   guardianship or conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the law of this 13                   state.
- 14          7. In granting a petition under this section, the court shall recognize a guardianship or 15                   conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the 16                   incapacitated or protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian 17                   or conservator.
- 18          8. The denial by a court of this state of a petition to accept a guardianship or 19                   conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect the ability of the 20                   guardian or conservator to seek appointment as guardian or conservator in this 21                   state under chapter 30.1-28 or 30.1-29 if the court has jurisdiction to make an 22                   appointment other than by reason of the provisional order of transfer.

23           28-35-17. (401) Registration of guardianship orders. If a guardian has been 24                   appointed in another state and a petition for the appointment of a guardian is not pending in this 25                   state, the guardian appointed in the other state, after giving notice to the appointing court of an 26                   intent to register, may register the guardianship order in this state by filing as a foreign 27                   judgement in a court, in any appropriate county of this state, certified copies of the order and 28                   letters of office.
