BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 4-02.1-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4-02.1-05. Compensation of members. Each member of the board of directors is entitled to receive compensation in the amount of ~~seventy-five~~ one hundred thirty-five dollars per day plus reimbursement of expenses as provided by law for state officers while attending meetings or performing duties directed by the board. The board of directors may pay to members rendering unusual or special services to the association special compensation appropriate to the value of the services.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 4-05.1-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4-05.1-17. Compensation of board members - Expenses. Each appointed member of the state board of agricultural research and education is entitled to receive ~~seventy-five~~ one hundred thirty-five dollars per day as compensation for the time actually spent devoted to the duties of office and is entitled to receive necessary expenses in the same manner and amounts as state officials for attending meetings and performing other functions of office.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 4-09-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4-09-03. State seed commission - Members - Meetings - Appointment and duties of commissioner.

1. The commission is the governing board of the department.
2. The commission consists of a representative of the North Dakota crop improvement association, a representative of the North Dakota certified seed potato growers association, a representative of the North Dakota dry edible bean seed growers association, a representative of the North Dakota agricultural association, an elected member of the North Dakota potato council selected by the North Dakota potato council, a representative of the Red River valley potato growers association who is a North Dakota resident, a representative of the North Dakota grain dealers association selected by the association's board of directors who operates a state-approved seed conditioning plant, and the agriculture commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, who shall serve as chairman. The associate dean and director of the experiment station, or the director's designee, of the college of agriculture of the North Dakota state university of agriculture and applied science is a voting member of the commission.

3. The commission shall meet a minimum of two times each calendar year and may hold special meetings at the call of the chairman or by request of any two members of the commission. Each member of the commission is entitled to receive compensation at the rate of ~~seventy-five~~ one hundred thirty-five dollars per day and reimbursement for expenses; as provided by law for state officers; for attending commission meetings. Compensation under this section may not be paid to any member who receives compensation or salary as a regular state employee or official. A commission member unable to attend a meeting of the commission may be represented by a proxy who has written authorization from the absent commission member.
4. The commission shall appoint a qualified manager of the department who must be known as the state seed commissioner. The commission shall fix the salary of the commissioner within legislative appropriation. The commissioner's appointment must be reviewed annually by the commission, and the commissioner is subject to removal for cause. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the commissioner, the commission may appoint a temporary commissioner to serve until the appointment of a permanent commissioner. The commissioner has responsibility for preparing the biennial budget and annual salary schedules that must be approved by the commission before submission to the state budget director. The commissioner is directly responsible to the commission and shall make semiannual reports to the commission and any other reports as requested by the commission.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 4-09-20.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4-09-20.2. Seed arbitration board - Petition - Arbitration hearing.

1. The state seed arbitration board consists of the agriculture commissioner, the state seed commissioner, the director of the North Dakota state university extension service, the director of the North Dakota agricultural experiment station, the chairman of the North Dakota seed trade committee of the North Dakota agriculture association, and a representative of a major North Dakota farm organization appointed by the agriculture commissioner or an authorized designee. Each board member is entitled to receive as per diem compensation ~~sixty-two~~ one hundred thirty-five dollars and ~~fifty cents, and~~ reimbursement of expenses as provided by law for state officers; while attending meetings or performing duties directed by the board, except that compensation under this subsection may not be paid to any member who receives compensation or salary as a regular state employee or official. Compensation and expenses for board members who do not receive compensation or salary as a regular state employee or official must be paid by the department of agriculture.
2. A seed labeler, seed dealer, or seed customer may petition the agriculture commissioner in writing for a hearing to settle a dispute involving a seed transaction. The agriculture commissioner shall submit the dispute to the seed arbitration board, and the board shall arbitrate the dispute. The board, within thirty days after the hearing, shall make a nonbinding recommendation for the resolution of the dispute. Evidence presented to the board and any findings or recommendations by the board are admissible as evidence in any subsequent proceeding. The board shall adopt rules and procedures for arbitration proceedings, including a formula for reimbursement by the parties of the expenses of the arbitration process.
