- b. A person who has been convicted anywhere of a felony offense of this or another state or the federal government not provided for in subdivision a or who has been convicted of a class A misdemeanor offense involving violence or intimidation in violation of chapters 12.1-16 through 12.1-25 or an equivalent offense of another state or the federal government and the offense was committed while using or possessing a firearm, a dangerous weapon, or, as defined in subsections 7 and 8 of section 12.1-01-04, a destructive device or an explosive, is prohibited from owning a firearm or having one in possession or under control from the date of conviction and continuing for a period of five years after the date of conviction or the date of release from incarceration, parole, or probation, whichever is latest.
- A person who is or has ever been diagnosed and confined or committed to a hospital or other institution in this state or elsewhere by a court of competent jurisdiction, other than a person who has had the petition that provided the basis for the diagnosis, confinement, or commitment dismissed under section 25-03.1-17, 25-03.1-18, or 25-03.1-19, or equivalent statutes of another jurisdiction, as a mentally ill person requiring treatment as defined in section 25-03.1-02, or as a mentally deficient person as defined in section 25-01-01, is prohibited from purchasing a firearm or having one in possession or under control. This limitation does not apply to a person who has not suffered from the disability for the previous three years or who has successfully petitioned for relief under section 3 of this Act.
- d. A person under the age of eighteen years may not possess a handgun except that such a person, while under the direct supervision of an adult, may possess a handgun for the purposes of firearm safety training, target shooting, or hunting. A person who violates subdivision a or b is guilty of a class C felony, and a person who violates subdivision c or d is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.
- 2. For the purposes of this section, "conviction" means a determination that the person committed one of the above-mentioned crimes upon a verdict of guilt, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere even though:

1 The court suspended execution of sentence in accordance with subsection 3 of a. 2 section 12.1-32-02; 3 b. The court deferred imposition of sentence in accordance with subsection 4 of 4 section 12.1-32-02; 5 The court placed the person on probation; C. The person's conviction has been reduced in accordance with subsection 9 of 6 d. 7 section 12.1-32-02 or section 12.1-32-07.1; 8 Sentence dispositions, sentence reductions, or offense determinations equivalent e. 9 to this section were imposed or granted by a court, board, agency, or law of 10 another state or the federal government; or 11 The person committed an offense equivalent to an offense described in 12 subdivision a or b of subsection 1 when that person was subject to juvenile 13 adjudication or proceedings and a determination of a court under chapter 27-20 14 or of a court of another state or the federal government was made that the 15 person committed the delinquent act or offense. 16 SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 62.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is created 17 and enacted as follows: 18 Mental disability and the possession of firearms. 19 A court shall make a finding as to whether the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 922(d)(4) and 20 (g)(4) apply to the subject of a following proceeding in which the court: 21 Finds that a person, as a result of mental disease or defect, may not be held a. 22 criminally responsible in any case pursuant to chapter 12.1-04 or 12.1-04.1; 23 Finds that a person is a "mentally deficient person", as defined in subsection 3 of b. 24 section 25-01-01; 25 Orders involuntary hospitalization or commitment to a treatment facility or 26 involuntary treatment pursuant to chapter 25-03.1; 27 d. Orders involuntary commitment or involuntary treatment under chapter 25-03.3; 28 Appoints a guardian ad litem under section 28-03-04; e. 29 f. Appoints a quardian under chapter 30.1-28; or 30 Appoints a conservator under chapter 30.1-29. g.

- If the court finds that the provisions apply, the clerk of the court shall forward the individual's name and nonclinical identifying information to the bureau of criminal investigation, which shall forward the information to the federal bureau of investigation, or its successor agency, for inclusion in the national instant criminal background check system database. The court also shall notify the individual of the prohibitions of 18 U.S.C. 922(d)(4) and (g)(4), and, if relevant, of subdivision c of subsection 1 of section 62.1-02-01.
 - 3. If a court of this state has found an individual under subsection 1 to be subject to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 922(d)(4) and (g)(4), that individual may petition the court that issued the finding or the district court of the county where the individual resides to remove that individual's firearms-related disabilities, as provided in Public Law 110-180, section 105(a). A copy of the petition for relief must be served on the director of the treatment facility that treated the individual pursuant to court order and the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the original finding, order, or appointment occurred. The director of the treatment facility that treated the individual pursuant to court order and the prosecuting attorney may appear, support, object to, and present evidence relevant to the relief sought by the petitioner. The court shall receive and consider evidence in a closed proceeding, including evidence offered by the petitioner, concerning:
 - a. The circumstances of the original order, appointment, or finding;
 - b. The petitioner's mental health and criminal history records, if any:
 - c. The petitioner's reputation; and
 - d. Changes in the petitioner's condition or circumstances relevant to the relief sought.
 - 4. The court shall grant the petition for relief if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner likely will not act in a manner dangerous to public safety and that the granting of the relief would not be contrary to the public interest. A record must be kept of the proceedings. The record is confidential and may be disclosed only to a court in the event of an appeal. The petitioner may appeal a denial of the requested relief, and review on appeal is de novo. An individual may file a petition for relief under this section no more than once every two years.

5. When a magistrate or court issues an order granting a petition for relief under subsection 3, the clerk of the court immediately shall forward a copy of the order to the bureau of criminal investigation in the format and medium specified by the bureau after consultation with the state court administrator. The bureau immediately shall forward a copy to the federal bureau of investigation, or its successor agency, for updating of the national instant criminal background check system database.

SECTION 4. APPLICATION. Notwithstanding any other section of this Act, the attorney general is not required to comply with this Act unless the attorney general begins to implement and administer this Act within the limits of the budget of the attorney general. The attorney general may not add any full-time equivalent positions to assist with the implementation or administration of this Act.

SECTION 4. APPROPRIATION. There is appropriated the sum of $585,859, or so much of the sum as may become available from a grant under the Act of Congress entitled NICS Improvement Act of 2007 [Pub. L. 110-180, 121 Stat. 2559] or other funds, to the attorney general for the purpose of implementing software and administering the system, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2011, and ending June 30, 2013.

SECTION 5. RETROACTIVE APPLICATION. This Act applies retroactively to cases under chapter 25-03.1 which arise after December 31, 2007.

SECTION 5. CONTINGENT EFFECTIVE DATE. Subsections 2 and 5 of section 3 of this Act become effective when the attorney general certifies to the secretary of state, the office of management and budget, and the legislative council that the state has received the grant under section 4 of this Act and has implemented the software and system to carry out the provisions of subsections 2 and 5 of section 3 of this Act.
