

Introduced by

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact subsection 5 of section 39-08-01 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to convictions for driving or being in actual physical control of a motor 3 vehicle.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 39-08-01 of the North Dakota Century
6 Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

7 5. A person convicted of violating this section, or an equivalent ordinance, must be 8 sentenced in accordance with this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, unless 9 the context otherwise requires, "drug court program" means a district court-supervised 10 treatment program approved by the supreme court which combines judicial 11 supervision with alcohol and drug testing and chemical addiction treatment in a 12 licensed treatment program. The supreme court may adopt rules, including rules of 13 procedure, for drug courts and the drug court program.

14 a. (1) For a first offense, the sentence must include both a fine of at least five 15 hundred dollars and an order for addiction evaluation by an appropriate 16 licensed addiction treatment program.

17 (2) In addition, for a first offense when the convicted person has an alcohol
18 concentration of at least sixteen one-hundredths of one percent by weight, 19 the offense is an aggravated first offense and the sentence must include a 20 fine of at least seven hundred fifty dollars and at least two days'
21 imprisonment.

22 b. For a second offense within seven years, the sentence must include at least ten 23 days' imprisonment, of which forty-eight hours must be served consecutively; a 24 fine of one thousand five hundred dollars; an order for addiction evaluation by an

1 appropriate licensed addiction treatment program; and at least ~~twelve-~~
2 ~~months'~~three hundred sixty days' participation in the twenty-four seven sobriety
3 program under chapter 54-12 as a mandatory condition of probation.

4 c. For a third offense within seven years, the sentence must include at least one 5 hundred twenty days' imprisonment; a fine of at least two thousand dollars; an 6 order for addiction evaluation by an appropriate licensed addiction treatment 7 program; at least ~~one year's~~three hundred sixty days' supervised probation; and 8 at least three hundred sixty days' participation in the twenty-four seven sobriety
9 program under chapter 54-12 as a mandatory condition of probation.

10 d. For a fourth or subsequent offense, the sentence must include at least one year 11 and one day's imprisonment; a fine of at least two thousand dollars; an order for 12 addiction evaluation by an appropriate licensed treatment program; at least two 13 years' supervised probation; and participation in the twenty-four seven sobriety
14 program under chapter 54-12 as a mandatory condition of probation.

15 e. The imposition of sentence under this section may not be deferred under 16 subsection 4 of section 12.1-32-02 for an offense subject to this section.

17 f. If the offense is subject to subdivision a or b, a municipal court or district court 18 may not suspend a sentence, but may convert each day of a term of 19 imprisonment to ten hours of community service for an offense subject to 20 paragraph 2 of subdivision a. If the offense is subject to subdivision c, the district 21 court may suspend a sentence, except for sixty days' imprisonment, under 22 subsection 3 of section 12.1-32-02 on the condition that the defendant first 23 undergo and complete an evaluation for alcohol and substance abuse treatment
24 and rehabilitation and upon completion of the twenty-four seven sobriety
25 program. If the offense is subject to subdivision d, the district court may suspend 26 a sentence, except for one year's imprisonment, under subsection 3 of section 27 12.1-32-02 on the condition that the defendant first undergo and complete an 28 evaluation for alcohol and substance abuse treatment and rehabilitation. If the 29 defendant is found to be in need of alcohol and substance abuse treatment and 30 rehabilitation, the district court may order the defendant placed under the 31 supervision and management of the department of corrections and rehabilitation

1 and is subject to the conditions of probation under section 12.1-32-07. The district
2 court may require the defendant to complete alcohol and substance abuse
3 treatment and rehabilitation under the direction of the drug court program as a 4 condition of probation in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court. If 5 the district court finds that a defendant has failed to undergo an evaluation or 6 complete treatment or has violated any condition of probation, the district court 7 shall revoke the defendant's probation and shall sentence the defendant in 8 accordance with this subsection.

9 g. For purposes of this section, conviction of an offense under a law or ordinance of 10 another state which is equivalent to this section must be considered a prior 11 offense if such offense was committed within the time limitations specified in this 12 section.

13 h. If the penalty mandated by this section includes imprisonment or placement upon 14 conviction of a violation of this section or equivalent ordinance, and if an 15 addiction evaluation has indicated that the defendant needs treatment, the court
16 may order the defendant to undergo treatment at an appropriate licensed 17 addiction treatment program under subdivision g of subsection 1 of section 18 12.1-32-02 and the time spent by the defendant in the treatment must be credited 19 as a portion of a sentence of imprisonment or placement under this section. A 20 court may not order the department of corrections and rehabilitation to be 21 responsible for the costs of treatment in a private treatment facility.

22 i. If the court sentences an individual to the legal and physical custody of the 23 department of corrections and rehabilitation, the department may place the 24 individual in an alcohol treatment program designated by the department. Upon 25 the individual's successful completion of the alcohol treatment program, the 26 department shall release the individual from imprisonment to serve the remainder 27 of the sentence of imprisonment on probation, which may include placement in 28 another facility or treatment program. If an individual is placed in another facility 29 or treatment program after release from imprisonment, the remainder of the 30 individual's sentence of imprisonment must be considered time spent in custody.
