6           taxable year for which the application was approved, without regard to any change of 7           ownership of the residence which occurs after the assessment date.

8           10. If any applicant is found to have claimed a reduction under this section for more than 9           one primary residence for the same taxable year, all reductions under this section for 10           that applicant for that taxable year and the ensuing two taxable years must be 11           canceled. If an applicant received a reduction that is canceled under this section, the 12           auditor of the county in which such property is located shall enter the amount of the 13           canceled reduction as omitted property on the assessment roll of property that has 14           escaped taxation.

15           11. Determinations concerning eligibility for a reduction under this section may be 16           appealed through the informal equalization process and formal abatement process.

17           12. This section does not reduce the liability of any individual for special assessments
18           levied upon any property.

19           13. For the purposes of this section:

20           a. "Dependent" has the same meaning it has for federal income tax purposes.

15. By June first of each year, the tax commissioner shall review the certifications under subsection 14, make any required corrections, and certify to the state treasurer for payment to each county the sum of the amounts computed by multiplying the reduction allowed for each qualifying primary residence in the county for the preceding year by the total of the tax mill rates for the preceding year of all taxing districts in which the property was contained. In reviewing certifications, the tax commissioner may refer to any income tax return information or other information available to the tax commissioner.

16. Upon receipt of the payment from the state treasurer, the county treasurer shall apportion and distribute it without delay to the county and to the taxing districts of the county on the same basis the general real estate tax for the preceding year is apportioned and distributed.
