Introduced by

Representatives Haak, Brabandt, Delmore, M. Johnson, Klemin

Senators Armstrong, Grabinger

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact section 12.1-17-07.1 of the North Dakota Century
2 Code, relating to stalking and the use of electronic devices.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

4 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-17-07.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 12.1-17-07.1. Stalking.

7 1. As used in this section:

8 a. "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct consisting of two or more acts
9 evidencing a continuity of purpose. The term does not include constitutionally 10 protected activity.

11 b. "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, child, or sibling. The term also 12 includes any other individual who regularly resides in the household or who within 13 the prior six months regularly resided in the household.

14 c. "Stalk" means to engage in an intentional course of conduct directed at a specific 15 person which frightens, intimidates, or harasses that person, and ~~that~~which 16 serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct may be directed toward that 17 person or a member of that person's immediate family and must cause a
18 reasonable person to experience fear, intimidation, or harassment. Stalking
19 includes the unauthorized tracking of the person's movements or location through 20 use of a global positioning system or other electronic device.

21 2. ~~No~~A person may not intentionally stalk another person.

22 3. In any prosecution under this section, it is not a defense that the actor was not given 23 actual notice that the person did not want the actor to contact or follow the person; nor 24 is it a defense that the actor did not intend to frighten, intimidate, or harass the person.

1           An attempt to contact or follow a person after being given actual notice that the person
2           does not want to be contacted or followed is prima facie evidence that the actor
3           intends to stalk that person.

4           4. In any prosecution under this section, it is a defense that a private investigator
5           licensed under chapter 43-30 or a peace officer licensed under chapter 12-63 was 6           acting within the scope of employment.

7           5. If a person claims to have been engaged in a constitutionally protected activity, the 8           court shall determine the validity of the claim as a matter of law and, if found valid,
9           shall exclude evidence of the activity.

10          6. a. A person who violates this section is guilty of a class C felony if:

11           (1) The person previously has been convicted of violating section 12.1-17-01,
12           12.1-17-01.1, 12.1-17-02, 12.1-17-04, 12.1-17-05, or 12.1-17-07, or a
13           similar offense from another court in North Dakota, a court of record in the 14           United States, or a tribal court, involving the victim of the stalking;

15           (2) The stalking violates a court order issued under chapter 14-07.1 protecting 16           the victim of the stalking, if the person had notice of the court order; or

17           (3) The person previously has been convicted of violating this section.

18          b. If subdivision a does not apply, a person who violates this section is guilty of a 19          class A misdemeanor.
