- 1. A prize for a raffle may be cash or merchandise but may not be real estate. No single cash prize may exceed four thousand dollars and the total cash prizes in one day may not exceed four thousand dollars. However, on not more than two occasions per year a licensed organization may, at the request of a winning player, exchange a merchandise prize valued at not more than twenty-five thousand dollars for a cash prize.
- 2. The maximum cash prize limits of this section do not apply to a public-spirited organization that supports amateur collegiate athletics.
- 3. A licensed organization that supports amateur collegiate athletics may conduct a fifty-fifty raffle either by a manual drawing or the use of a random number generator.
