16 offense as defined in chapter 12.1-20.

28 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 14-09-06.2 of the North Dakota
29 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 30 1. For the purpose of parental rights and responsibilities, the best interests and welfare of 31 the child is determined by the court's consideration and evaluation of all factors

1 affecting the best interests and welfare of the child. These factors include all of the 2 following when applicable:

- 3 a. The love, affection, and other emotional ties existing between the parents and 4 child and the ability of each parent to provide the child with nurture, love, 5 affection, and guidance.
- 6 b. The ability of each parent to assure that the child receives adequate food, 7 clothing, shelter, medical care, and a safe environment.
- 8 c. The child's developmental needs and the ability of each parent to meet those 9 needs, both in the present and in the future.
- 10 d. The sufficiency and stability of each parent's home environment, the impact of 11 extended family, the length of time the child has lived in each parent's home, and 12 the desirability of maintaining continuity in the child's home and community.
- 13 e. The willingness and ability of each parent to facilitate and encourage a close and 14 continuing relationship between the other parent and the child.
- 15 f. The moral fitness of the parents, as that fitness impacts the child.
- 16 g. The mental and physical health of the parents, as that health impacts the child.
- 17 h. The home, school, and community records of the child and the potential effect of 18 any change.
- 19 i. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that a child is of sufficient 20 maturity to make a sound judgment, the court may give substantial weight to the 21 preference of the mature child. The court also shall give due consideration to 22 other factors that may have affected the child's preference, including whether the 23 child's preference was based on undesirable or improper influences.
- 24 j. Evidence of domestic violence. In determining parental rights and responsibilities, 25 the court shall consider evidence of domestic violence. If the court finds credible 26 evidence that domestic violence has occurred, and there exists one incident of 27 domestic violence which resulted in serious bodily injury or involved the use of a 28 dangerous weapon or there exists a pattern of domestic violence within a 29 reasonable time proximate to the proceeding, this combination creates a 30 rebuttable presumption that a parent who has perpetrated domestic violence may 31 not be awarded residential responsibility for the child. This presumption may be

1 overcome only by clear and convincing evidence that the best interests of the 2 child require that parent have residential responsibility. The court shall cite 3 specific findings of fact to show that the residential responsibility best protects the 4 child and the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of 5 domestic violence. If necessary to protect the welfare of the child, residential 6 responsibility for a child may be awarded to a suitable third person, provided that 7 the person would not allow access to a violent parent except as ordered by the 8 court. If the court awards residential responsibility to a third person, the court 9 shall give priority to the child's nearest suitable adult relative. The fact that the 10 abused parent suffers from the effects of the abuse may not be grounds for 11 denying that parent residential responsibility. As used in this subdivision, 12 "domestic violence" means domestic violence as defined in section 14-07.1-01. A 13 court may consider, but is not bound by, a finding of domestic violence in another 14 proceeding under chapter 14-07.1.

- 15 k. The interaction and inter-relationship, or the potential for interaction and inter-16 relationship, of the child with any person who resides in, is present, or frequents 17 the household of a parent and who may significantly affect the child's best 18 interests. The court shall consider that person's history of inflicting, or tendency to 19 inflict, physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or the fear of physical harm, bodily 20 injury, or assault, on other persons.
- 21 l. The making of false allegations not made in good faith, by one parent against the 22 other, of harm to a child ~~as defined in section 50-25.1-02.~~
- 23 m. Any other factors considered by the court to be relevant to a particular parental 24 rights and responsibilities dispute.

25 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 27-20-30.1 of the North Dakota
26 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
