11 grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and 12 mausoleums unless these items are sold by a companion agreement or in 13 contemplation of a trade or barter which includes the sale or rental of any inside 14 interment receptacles or containers into which a dead human remains may be directly 15 placed, caskets, crypt beds, catafalques, or other articles of merchandise incident to a 16 funeral service.

17 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 43-10.1-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 18 amended and reenacted as follows:

19 43-10.1-03.1. Payments on pre-need funeral contracts to be deposited - Depository
20 shall keep record of deposit - Personal property storage.

21 1. If payments are made to a person upon pre-need funeral service contracts, including 22 irrevocable itemized funeral contracts, one hundred percent of the funds collected 23 under the contracts for the sale of professional service or personal property to be used 24 in funeral services and fifty percent of the funds collected under the contracts for the 25 sale of cemetery merchandise must be deposited in or transferred to a trust company 26 in this state or to a federally insured bank, credit union, or savings and loan 27 association in this state, within ten days. The deposit must be placed in a federal 28 deposit insurance corporation or national credit union administration insured certificate
29 of deposit or negotiable debt obligation of the United States government. Payments 30 received from the sale of professional service or personal property to be used in 31 funeral services or cemetery merchandise which cannot or would not be serviced by a

1 licensed funeral establishment or cemetery association in the area in which the service 2 or property was sold are specifically included, regardless of whether the sales might 3 otherwise be considered pre-need funeral service contracts, within the payments to be 4 deposited under this section. If payments have been made under an irrevocable 5 itemized funeral contract, the money must be carried in a separate account with the 6 names of the depositor or transferor, cemetery association or licensed funeral 7 establishment, and the person making payment on behalf of the individual for whose 8 benefit payment is made.

9 a. The funds may be released or transferred by the bank, credit union, savings and 10 loan association, or trust company to the depositor upon the death of the 11 individual for whose benefit the funds were paid. A certified copy of the certificate 12 of death must be furnished to the bank, credit union, savings and loan 13 association, or trust company as prima facie evidence of death. The funds may 14 be released or transferred by the bank, credit union, savings and loan 15 association, or trust company to the person making the payment, before the 16 death of the individual for whose benefit the funds are paid, upon a five-day 17 written notice by registered or certified mail made by the bank, credit union, 18 savings and loan association, or trust company to the depositor or transferor at 19 the request of the person making the payment.

20 b. A purchaser of a pre-need funeral service contract may make a certain amount of 21 the pre-need funds irrevocable by designating an irrevocable amount to be used 22 to pay for the funeral of the beneficiary. ~~The irrevocable amount may not exceed~~ 23 ~~the amount itemized funeral service contract~~ to pay for a funeral and is recognized 24 as an allowable asset exclusion used for determining eligibility for medical 25 assistance under section 50-24.1-02.3 at the time the contract is entered. A 26 purchaser of a ~~pre-need funeral service contract~~ an irrevocable itemized funeral 27 contract has forty-five days from entering the contract to cancel the irrevocable 28 part of the contract by giving notice to the cemetery association or licensed 29 funeral establishment with which the contract was entered. Any pre-need funeral 30 service contract held by a cemetery association or a licensed funeral 31 establishment must be fully transferable to another cemetery association or

1 funeral establishment licensed under chapter 43-10 or a substantially similar law
2 of another jurisdiction which agrees to accept the obligations.

3 2. A bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or trust company receiving such a 4 deposit or transfer shall keep a complete record of the deposit or transfer, showing the 5 name of the depositor or transferor, name of the person making payment, name of the 6 individual for whose benefit payment is made, and any other pertinent information.

7 3. Any personal property to be used in funeral services or cemetery merchandise which 8 is sold to a purchaser on the basis it will be identified and marked as belonging to such 9 purchaser, and stored or warehoused for the purchaser, must be stored or 10 warehoused at some location within this state.

11 SECTION 3. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.
