

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1475

"for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 4.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to an agriculture diversification and development fund; to provide an appropriation; to provide a continuing appropriation; and to provide for a transfer.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 4.1-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Agriculture diversification and development fund – Continuing appropriation.

1. There is created in the state treasury the agriculture diversification and development loan fund. The fund consists of all moneys transferred to the fund by the legislative assembly, interest upon moneys in the fund, and payments of interest and principal on loans made from the fund. Moneys in the fund are appropriated to the bank of North Dakota on a continuing basis for loan disbursements, grants, and administrative costs pursuant to this section. No more than twenty-five percent of the fund may be utilized for grants in a biennium.
2. Loans, interest rate buydowns, or grants may be issued from the fund to support new or expanding value-added agriculture businesses which demonstrate financial feasibility, enhance profitability for farmers and ranchers, create jobs, and grow the state's economy. Value-added agriculture businesses include food production or processing facilities; feed or pet food processing facilities; commodity processing facilities; agriculture product manufacturers; and animal agriculture production facilities, including swine, poultry, dairy, and feed lot production facilities.
3. The bank shall develop policies in consultation with the agriculture diversification and development committee. The bank shall review loan applications. To be eligible for a loan under this section, an entity shall agree to provide the bank with information as requested. The bank may develop policies for loan participation with local financial institutions. The bank shall deposit in the fund all principal and interest paid on the outstanding loans. The bank may use a portion of the interest paid as a servicing fee to pay for administrative costs, which may not exceed one half of one percent of the amount of the outstanding loans. The bank shall contract with a certified public accounting firm to audit the fund if the fund has any loans. The cost of the audit must be paid from the fund.

Agriculture diversification and development committee

1. The committee shall consist of eleven members, five of whom must be appointed by the commissioner for terms of two years each, arranged so that two terms expire in odd-numbered years and three terms expire in even-numbered years. Four of the members appointed by the commissioner must be actively engaged in farming in this state and one member appointed by the commissioner must be actively engaged in agribusiness in this state. The governor shall appoint one member for a term of two years which expires in odd-numbered years. The member appointed by the governor must be actively engaged in business in this state. One representative from the independent community banks of North Dakota. One representative from the North Dakota bankers association. The commissioner of commerce, the president of North Dakota state university, and the agriculture commissioner, or their designees, are members of the commission. The commission shall elect one of its members as chairman.

2. The agriculture diversification and development committee shall develop guidelines for the grants, including eligibility criteria and reporting requirements. The guidelines must include priority for businesses with a majority of the ownership comprised of North Dakota residents. The agriculture diversification and development committee shall review grant applications and make funding determinations.
