4 health officer.

5 ~~18-19.~~ "Relative" means an individual's current or surviving spouse, a parent or legal 6 guardian, a child, a grandparent, or a grandchild. The state registrar may require proof 7 of the relationship.

8 ~~19-20.~~ "Sex" means the biological state of being female or male, based on the individual's 9 nonambiguous sex organs, chromosomes, and endogenous hormone profiles at birth.

10 21. "Subregistrar" means a funeral practitioner or other suitable individual from a licensed 11 funeral home who is appointed by the state registrar for the purpose of issuing final 12 disposition-transit permits.

13 ~~20-21-22.~~ "System of health statistics tabulation and analysis" includes the tabulation,
14 analysis, and presentation or publication of statistical data derived from health 15 statistics.

16 ~~21-22-23.~~ "System of vital records registration" includes the registration, collection, 17 preservation, amendment, and certification of birth, death, fetal death, marriage,
18 divorce, or other records as may be determined necessary by the state health officer 19 or the state health officer's designee.

20 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is 21 amended and reenacted as follows:

22 23-02.1-13. Birth registration.

23 1. A birth record for each live birth that occurs in this state must be filed with the state 24 registrar.

25 2. ~~When~~If a birth occurs in an institution, the person in charge of the institution or a 26 designated representative ~~must~~shall use the department of health and human 27 services' electronic birth registration system to report the birth, including all personal 28 and medical facts, to the state registrar within five days after the birth.

29 3. ~~When~~If a birth occurs outside an institution, the required forms prescribed by the 30 department of health and human services must be prepared and filed with the state

- 1 registrar, within thirty days of the birth by one of the following in the indicated order of 2 priority:
- 3 a. The physician in attendance at or immediately after the birth, or in the absence of 4 such an individual;
- 5 b. Any other individual in attendance at or immediately after the birth, or in the 6 absence of such an individual; or
- 7 c. The father, the mother, or in the absence of the father and the inability of the 8 mother, the individual in charge of the premises where the birth occurred.
- 9 4. If a man and the mother are or have been married or have attempted to marry each 10 other in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be 11 declared invalid, and the child is born during the marriage or attempted marriage, or 12 within three hundred days after the termination of cohabitation or after the marriage or 13 attempted marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or 14 divorce, or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the man 15 must be entered on the birth record as the father of the child unless the presumption of 16 paternity has been rebutted by a court decree.
- 17 5. If the child is not born during the marriage of the mother, or within three hundred days 18 after a marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or divorce, 19 or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the father may not 20 be entered on the birth record unless:
- 21 a. After the child's birth, the father and the child's natural mother have married, or 22 attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance 23 with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and:
- 24 (1) He has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with the state 25 registrar; or
- 26 (2) He is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by 27 court order;
- 28 b. After the child's birth, the child's natural mother and the father voluntarily 29 acknowledge the child's paternity on a form prescribed by the department of 30 health and human services, signed by the child's natural mother and biological 31 father, and filed with the state registrar; or

1 c. A court or other entity of competent jurisdiction has adjudicated paternity.

2 6. If, in accordance with subsections 4 and 5, the name of the father of the child is not 3 entered on the birth record, the child's surname must be shown on the birth record as 4 the current legal surname of the mother at the time of birth unless an affidavit or an 5 acknowledgment of paternity signed by both parents is filed with the department of 6 health and human services.

7 7. A birth record must include the designation of the sex of the child which must be either
8 male or female. An entry of "not yet determined" may not be entered unless the sex 9 cannot be determined based on the child's nonambiguous sex organs, chromosomes, 10 and endogenous hormone profiles at birth.

11 SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is 12 amended and reenacted as follows:

13 23-02.1-15. Delayed registration of birth.

- 14 1. ~~When~~If the birth of an individual born in this state has not been registered, a birth 15 record may be filed in accordance with the regulations of the department of health and 16 human services. ~~Such~~The birth record must be registered subject to such evidentiary 17 requirements as the department of health and human services shall prescribe to 18 substantiate the alleged facts of birth.
- 19 2. ~~Records of~~A birth record registered one year or more after the date of occurrence 20 must be marked "delayed" and show on the face of the birth record the date of 21 delayed registration.
- 22 3. A summary statement of the evidence submitted in support of the delayed registration 23 must be endorsed on the birth record.
- 24 4. a. ~~When~~If an applicant does not submit the minimum documentation required in the 25 regulations for delayed registration or when the state registrar finds reason to 26 question the validity or adequacy of the birth record or documentary evidence, 27 the state registrar may not register the delayed birth record and shall advise the 28 applicant of the reasons for this action. ~~In the event that~~If the deficiencies are not 29 corrected, the state registrar shall advise the applicant of the right of appeal to a 30 court of competent jurisdiction for a judicial determination of the birth facts.

- 1 b. The department of health and human services may by regulation may provide for 2 the dismissal of an application that is more than one year old and is not being 3 actively pursued.
- 4 5. A report of live birth may not be registered for a deceased individual one year or more 5 after that individual's date of birth.
