This chapter does not prohibit cooperative corporations, seventy-five percent of whose members or shareholders are actual farmers or ranchers residing on farms or ranches or depending principally on farming or ranching for their livelihood, from acquiring real-estatefarmland or ranchland and engaging in the business of cooperative farming or ranching.

SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 10-06.1-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. A nonprofit organization or a trust for the benefit of an individual or a class of individuals related within the degrees of kinship specified in subsection 2 of section 10-06.1-12 may own or lease farmland or ranchland if that land is leased to a person who farms or ranches the land as a sole proprietorship or partnership, or a farming or ranching corporation or a farming or ranching limited liability company allowed to engage in farming or ranching under section 10-06.1-12.

SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 10-06.1-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-06.1-10. Acquisition of certain farmland or ranchland by certain nonprofit organizations.

A nonprofit organization may acquire farmland or ranchland only in accordance with the following:

- 1. Unless it is permitted to own or lease farmland or ranchland under section 10-06.1-09, the nonprofit organization must have been either incorporated in this state or issued a certificate of authority to do business in this state before January 1, 1985, or, before January 1, 1987, have been incorporated in this state if the nonprofit organization was created or authorized under Public Law No. 99-294 [100 Stat. 418]. A nonprofit organization created or authorized under Public Law No. 99-294 [100 Stat. 418] may acquire no more than twelve thousand acres [4856.228 hectares] of land from interest derived from state, federal, and private sources held in its trust fund.
- 2. The landfarmland or ranchland may be acquired only for the purpose of conserving natural areas and habitats for biota, and, after acquisition:

- 1 a. The land must be maintained and managed for the purpose of conserving natural area and habitat for biota.
 - b. Any agricultural use of the land is in accordance with the management of the land for conservation and agricultural use, and is by a sole proprietorship or partnership, or a farming or ranching corporation or a farming or ranching limited liability company allowed to engage in farming or ranching under section 10-06.1-12.
 - c. If any parcel of the land is open to hunting, it must be open to hunting by the general public.
 - d. The nonprofit organization must fully comply with all state laws relating to the control of noxious and other weeds and insects.
 - e. The nonprofit organization must make payments in lieu of property taxes on the property, calculated in the same manner as if the property was subject to full assessment and levy of property taxes.
 - f. All property subject to valuation must be assessed for the purpose of making the payments under subdivision e in the same manner as other real property in this state is assessed for tax purposes. Before June thirtieth of each year, the county auditor of any county in which property subject to valuation is located shall give written notice to the nonprofit organization and the tax commissioner of the value placed by the county board of equalization upon each parcel of property subject to valuation in the county.
 - 3. a. Before farmland or ranchland may be purchased by a nonprofit organization for the purpose of conserving natural areas and habitats for biota, the governor must approve the proposed acquisition.
 - b. A nonprofit organization that desires to purchase farmland or ranchland for the purpose of conserving natural areas and habitats for biota shall first submit a proposed acquisition plan to the agriculture commissioner who shall convene an advisory committee consisting of the director of the parks and recreation department, the agriculture commissioner, the state forester, the director of the game and fish department, the president of the North Dakota farmers union, the president of the North Dakota farm bureau, the president of the North Dakota

26	amended and reenacted as follows:
27	10-06.1-24. Enforcement - Penalty.
28	1. a. The recorder shall mail or deliver a copy of every instrument filed or recorded,
29	within thirty days after the instrument is recorded, to the attorney general if the
30	instrument documents evidence of a lease agreement or purchase agreement

- pursuant to subsection 6 or 7 or if the instrument conveys the title to farmland or ranchland to a corporation or limited liability company.
 - b. The attorney general shall commence an action in the district court of the county in which the substantial portion of farmland or ranchland used in violation of this chapter is situated if the attorney general has reason to believe that any person is violating this chapter. The attorney general shall file for record with the recorder of each county in which any portion of the land is located a notice of the pendency of the action.
 - c. If the court finds that the land in questionfarmland or ranchland is being held in violation of this chapter, or that a corporation or limited liability company is eonductingengaging in the business of farming or ranching in violation of this chapter, the court shall enter an order so declaring pursuant to the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law. The attorney general shall file any such the order for record with the recorder of each county in which any portion of the land is located. Thereafter, the corporation or limited liability company shall, within the time set by the court not to exceed one year from the date of the court's final order, divest itself of any farming or ranching landthe farmland or ranchland owned or leased by it in violation of this chapter, and cease allengaging in the business of farming or ranching operations.
 - d. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 10, any corporation or limited liability company that fails to comply with the court's order is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars and may be dissolved or terminated by the secretary of state.
 - 2. The divestment period is deemed to be a covenant running with the title to the landfarmland or ranchland against any corporate or limited liability company grantee, corporate or limited liability company successor, or corporation or limited liability company assignee of the corporation or limited liability company not authorized to deengage in the business of farming or ranching under this chapter.
 - 3. Any landfarmland or ranchland not divested within the divestment period prescribed must be sold at public sale in the manner prescribed by law for the foreclosure of real estate mortgage by action. In addition, any prospective or threatened violation may be

- enjoined by an action brought by the attorney general in the manner provided by law, including enjoining the corporation or limited liability company from completing performance on the remainder of any leasehold which is in violation of this chapter.
 - 4. Subject to the divestiture requirements of subsections 5, 6, and 7, a domestic orforeign corporation or limited liability company may acquire farmland or ranchland as security for indebtedness, by process of law in the collection of debts, or by any procedure for the enforcement of a lien or claim thereon, whether created by mortgage or otherwise.
 - 5. Unless retention of the farmland or ranchland is permitted under subsection 6 or 7, all farmland or ranchland acquired as security for indebtedness, in the collection of debts, or by the enforcement of a lien or claim shall be disposed of within three years after acquiring ownership, if the acquisition would otherwise violate this chapter.
 - 6. The disposition requirement does not apply to a corporation or limited liability company that has acquired title to the landfarmland or ranchland through the process of foreclosure of a mortgage, or a deed from a mortgagor instead of a foreclosure, if, by the expiration of one month after what is or what would have been the redemption period of the mortgage if the mortgage had been foreclosed, that corporation or limited liability company leases to the prior mortgagor from whom it was acquired, with an option to purchase, and if documents evidencing the lease agreement have been filed with the recorder of each county in which the land is located. A copy of a notice of lease is sufficient evidence. The exemption in this subsection applies for only five years and then only if the property has been appraised in accordance with subsection 8. The annual lease payments required of the tenant may not exceed seven percent of the appraised value.
 - 7. The disposition requirement does not apply to a corporation or limited liability company that has acquired title to the landfarmland or ranchland through the process of foreclosure of a mortgage, or a deed from the mortgagor instead of foreclosure, if, by the expiration of one month after what is or what would have been the redemption period of the mortgage if the mortgage had been foreclosed, that corporation or limited liability company contracts for the sale of the land to the prior mortgagor from whom it was acquired, and if documents evidencing the purchase agreement have been filed - with the recorder of each county in which the land is located. A copy of a notice of the contract for deed is sufficient evidence. An exemption under this subsection is valid only if an appraisal has been made in accordance with subsection 8, and if it is valid, the exemption is unlimited in duration. The sale price may not exceed the price determined by the appraisers.

 - 8. If an appraisal is required, the appraisal must be made by three independent appraisers, one selected by the corporation or limited liability company, one selected by the prior mortgagor, and the third selected by the first two appraisers.
 - 9. If a corporation or limited liability company holds landfarmland or ranchland pending divestiture, and the holding is not otherwise governed byregulated under this section, the land must be leased to persons actually engaged in the business of farming or ranching and a disposal may not be to a corporation or limited liability company unless ownership by that corporation or limited liability company is authorized under this chapter.
 - 10. The civil penalty for a violation of section 10-06.1-10 may not exceed one hundred thousand dollars.
 - 11. Except as provided in subsection 10, any corporation or limited liability company continuing to violate this chapter is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars and may be dissolved or terminated by the attorney general in accordance with the laws of this state.
 - SECTION 29. AMENDMENT. Section 10-06.1-25 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-06.1-25. Private enforcement.

This chapter may be enforced in the same manner as provided in section 10-06.1-24 by any corporation or limited liability company authorized to engage in the business of farming or ranching byunder this chapter or any resident of legal age of a county in which the landfarmland or ranchland owned or leased by a corporation or limited liability company in violation of this chapter is located. If such action is successful, all costs of the action must be assessed against the defendant and a reasonable attorney's fee must be allowed the plaintiff. If judgment is rendered for the defendant, such costs and a reasonable attorney's fee for the defendant must-

- 1 be paid by the plaintiff an action is brought under this section, the district court must award to
- 2 the prevailing party the actual costs and disbursements and reasonable attorney's fees.
- SECTION 30. AMENDMENT. Section 10-06.1-26 of the North Dakota Century Code is 4 amended and reenacted as follows:

10-06.1-26. Protection of minority shareholders.

- 1. If a shareholder owns less than fifty percent of the shares of a farming or ranching corporation or authorized livestock farm corporation doingengaged in the business of farming or ranching under this chapter, and if the terms and conditions for the repurchase of those shares by the corporation or by the other shareholders are not set forth in the bylaws or the instrument which transferred the shares to the shareholder, or are not the subject of a shareholders' agreement or an agreement between that shareholder and the corporation, then the disposition of such shares must be determined by this section upon the withdrawal of the shareholder.
- Any shareholder who desires to withdraw from the farming or ranching corporation or authorized livestock farm corporation shall first offer the shares for sale to the remaining shareholders in proportion to the shares owned by them. If not all of the shareholders wish to purchase the shares, any one shareholder may purchase all of the shares of the withdrawing shareholder. If no shareholder desires to purchase the shares of a withdrawing shareholder, then the corporation may purchase the shares. If the corporation chooses not to purchase the shares of the withdrawing shareholder, then the withdrawing shareholder may sell the shares to any other person eligible to be a shareholder. If the withdrawing shareholder is unable to sell the shares to any other person eligible to become a shareholder, then the withdrawing shareholder may bring an action in district court to dissolve the corporation.
- 3. Upon a finding that the withdrawing shareholder cannot sell the shares at a fair price, the court shall enter an order directing that the farming or ranching corporation or authorized livestock farm corporation itself or any or all of the remaining shareholders pro rata or otherwise shall have twelve months from the date of the court's order to purchase the shares of the withdrawing shareholder at a fair price as determined by the court and that if the shares of the withdrawing shareholder are not completely purchased at said price, the corporation shall be dissolved and the assets of the corporation shall be first used to pay all the liabilities of the corporation with the remaining net assets to be distributed pro rata to the shareholders in proportion to their ownership of shares. For the purpose of this section, a fair price for the shares of the withdrawing shareholder must be determined as though the shares were being valued for federal gift tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code.

SECTION 31. AMENDMENT. Section 10-06.1-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-06.1-27. Protection of minority members.

- 1. If a member owns less than fifty percent of the membership interest of a farming or ranching limited liability company or authorized livestock farm limited liability company doingengaged in the business of farming or ranching under this chapter and if the terms and conditions for the repurchase of that membership interest by the limited liability company or by the other members are not set forth in the bylaws, the instrument that transferred the membership interest to the member, or are not the subject of a member-control agreement or other agreement between that member and the limited liability company, the disposition of the membership interest must be determined byunder this section upon the withdrawal of the member.
- 2. Any member who desires to withdraw from the farming or ranching limited liability company or authorized livestock farm limited liability company shall first offer the membership interest for sale to the remaining members in proportion to the membership interests owned by the remaining members. If not all of the members wish to purchase the membership interest, any one member can purchase all of the membership interest of the withdrawing member. If no member desires to purchase the membership interest of the withdrawing member, the limited liability company may purchase the membership interest. If the limited liability company chooses not to purchase the membership interest of the withdrawing member, the withdrawing member may sell the membership interest to any other person eligible to be a member. If the withdrawing member is unable to sell the membership interest to any other person eligible to become a member, the withdrawing member may bring an action in district court to terminate the limited liability company.

1 Upon a finding that the withdrawing member cannot sell the membership interest at a 2 fair price, the court shall enter an order directing that the limited liability company or 3 authorized livestock farm limited liability company itself or any of the remaining 4 members pro rata or otherwise, have twelve months from the date of the court's order 5 to purchase the membership interest of the withdrawing member at a fair price as 6 determined by the court and that if the membership interest of the withdrawing 7 member is not completely purchased at the fair price, the limited liability company 8 must be dissolved and the assets of the limited liability company must be first used to 9 pay all liabilities of the limited liability company with the remaining net assets to be 10 distributed pro rata to the members in proportion to the member's membership interest 11 ownership. For the purpose of this section, a fair price for the membership interest of 12 the withdrawing member must be determined as though the membership interest was 13 being valued for federal gift tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code. 14

SECTION 32. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.
