SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 6-09.4-10.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

21 6-09.4-10.1. Legacy sinking and interest fund - Debt service requirements - Public 22 finance authority.

- 23 There is created in the state treasury the legacy sinking and interest fund. The fund consists-
- 24 of all moneys deposited in the fund under section 21-10-13. Moneys in the fund may be spent

1	by the public finance authority pursuant to legislative appropriations to meet the debt service
2	requirements for evidences of indebtedness issued by the authority for transfer to the Bank of 3	North Dakota for allocations to infrastructure projects and programs. Any moneys in the fund in-
4	excess of the amounts appropriated from the fund to meet the debt service requirements for a
5	biennium must be transferred by the state treasurer to the public employees retirement system
6	main system plan under chapter 54-52, but only if the public employees retirement system main
7	system plan's actuarial funded ratio as reported for the most recently completed even-
8	numbered fiscal year is less than ninety percent. If the public employees retirement system
9	main system plan's actuarial funded ratio is ninety percent or more and then subsequently-
10	decreases below ninety percent, the state treasurer may not resume the transfers under this-
11	subdivision unless the main system plan's actuarial funded ratio is less than seventy percent.
12	SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Paragraph 1 of subdivision a of subsection 1 of section
13	15-39.1-10.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
14	(1) The public employees retirement system, except an "eligible employee" as 15	that term is defined under section 54-52-02.15.
16	SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 21-10-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is
17	amended and reenacted as follows:
18 19
20	moneys transferred to the fund under subsection 2 and all interest and earnings upon-
21	moneys in the fund.
22
23	in accordance with section 26 of article X of the Constitution of North Dakota must be
24	immediately transferred by the state treasurer to the legacy earnings fund.
25
26	transferred under subsection 2, the amount available for appropriation from the legacy
27	earnings fund is seven percent of the five-year average value of the legacy fund
28	assets as reported by the state investment board. The average value of the legacy
29	fund assets must be calculated using the value of the assets at the end of each fiscal 30	year for the five-year period ending with the most recently completed even-numbered
31	fiscal year.

1	- 4. On July first of each odd-numbered year, from the amount available for appropriation-
2	or transfer from the legacy earnings fund for the biennium, the state treasurer shall
3	transfer funding in the following order:
4	a. The lesser of the first one hundred fifty million dollars or an amount equal to any
5	legislative appropriations to meet the debt service requirements for a biennium
6	for evidences of indebtedness issued by the public finance authority for transfer
7	to the Bank of North Dakota for allocations to infrastructure projects and 8	programs to the legacy sinking and interest fund under section 6-09.4-10.1.
9	b. The next seventy million dollars to the public employees retirement system for 10	administrative expenses for chapters 54-52 and 54-52.6 and for the unfunded
11	liability of the main system plan under chapter 54-52, but only if the public 12	employees retirement system main system plan's actuarial funded ratio as 13	reported for the most recently completed even-numbered fiscal year is less than 14	ninety percent. If the public employees retirement system main system plan's
15	actuarial funded ratio is ninety percent or more and subsequently decreases
16	below ninety percent, the state treasurer may not resume the transfers under this 17	subdivision unless the main system plan's actuarial funded ratio is less than 18	seventy percent as reported for the most recently completed even-numbered 19	fiscal year.
20	c. The next sixty million dollars to the highway tax distribution fund for allocations -
21	under section 54-27-19.
22
23	assembly, including:
24	(1) Up to fifty million dollars for tax relief pursuant to appropriations or transfers-
25	authorized by the legislative assembly;
26	(2) Up to thirty million dollars to the clean sustainable energy fund pursuant to-
27	appropriations or transfers authorized by the legislative assembly; and 28	(3) Up to thirty million dollars for university research programs, the innovation
29	loan fund to support technology advancement, and workforce enrichment
30	initiatives pursuant to appropriations or transfers authorized by the
31	legislative assembly.

	Legislat	ive Assembly
1	5.	If the amounts transferred under subsection 2 exceed the amount available for 2		appropriation under subsection 3, an amount equal to any appropriations from the 3		legacy sinking and interest fund for bond payments under section 6-09.4-10.1 must be
4		retained in the legacy earnings fund through June 30, 2025, after which an amount-
5		equal to twice any appropriations from the legacy sinking and interest fund under 6		section 6-09.4-10.1 for bond payments, but not more than one hundred fifty million-
7		dollars, must be retained in the legacy earnings fund. After deducting any amounts to 8		be retained in the legacy earnings fund, the state treasurer shall transfer, within thirty-
9		days, any remaining amounts under this subsection in the following order:
10		a. The first one hundred million dollars to the legacy fund to become part of the 11		principal.

27		under this subsection.
28		b. A participating member of a retirement plan enumerated under this subsection
29		who becomes an eligible employee is not eligible to participate in the defined
30		benefit retirement plan under this chapter but instead participates in the defined
31		contribution retirement plan under chapter 54-52.6. However, this subdivision

	Legislative Assembly
1		does not apply to an individual who before January 1, 2025, is a participating or a
2		deferred member under this chapter, as that individual continues to participate in 3		the defined benefit retirement plan under this chapter.
4	5.	The board shall adopt rules to implement this section.
5	SEC	TION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 54-52-05 of the North Dakota Century
6	Code is	amended and reenacted as follows:
7	2.	Each member must be assessed and required to pay monthly fourseven percent of the 8		monthly salary or wage paid to the member, and such assessment must be deducted
9		and retained out of such salary in equal monthly installments commencing with the 10		first month of employment. Member contributions increase by one percent of the 11		monthly salary or wage paid to the member beginning with the monthly reporting
12		period of January 2012, and with an additional increase of one percent, beginning with 13		the monthly reporting period of January 2013, and with an additional increase of one-
14		percent, beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2014.
15	SEC	TION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is
16	amende	d and reenacted as follows:
17	54-5	52-06. Employer's contribution to retirement plan - Report to the legislative 18	assemb	lyemployee benefits programs committee.
19	1.	Each governmental unit shall contribute an amount equal to four and 20		twelve-hundredths percent of the monthly salary or wage of a participating member.
21		Governmental unit contributions increase by one percent of the monthly salary or 22		wage of a participating member beginning with the monthly reporting period of 23		January 2012; with an additional increase of one percent, beginning with the reporting
24		period of January 2013; and with an additional increase of one percent, beginning with
25		the monthly reporting period of January 2014 ; and with an additional increase of
26		one percent, beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2024. For a
27		participating member who first enrolls after December 31, 2019, the governmental unit
28		shall contribute an additional amount equal to one and fourteen-hundredths percent of

- 29 the monthly salary or wage of the participating member.
- For those members who elect to exercise their rights under section 54-52-17.14, the 30 2. employing governmental unit, or in the case of a member not presently under covered 31

1 employment the most recent employing governmental unit, shall pay the associated 2 employer contribution. If the employee's contribution is paid by the governmental unit 3 under subsection 3 of section 54-52-05, the employer unit shall contribute, in addition, 4 an amount equal to the required employee's contribution. Each governmental unit 5 shall pay the contribution monthly, or in the case of an election made pursuant to 6 section 54-52-17.14 a lump sum, into the retirement fund from the governmental unit's 7 funds appropriated for payroll and salary or any other funds available for these 8 purposes. Any governmental unit failing to pay the contributions monthly, or in the 9 case of an election made pursuant to section 54-52-17.14 a lump sum, or failing to 10 otherwise comply with the board's established wage reporting or payroll reporting 11 process requirements, is subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars and, as interest, one 12 percent of the amount due for each month of delay or fraction of a month after the 13 payment became due. In lieu of assessing a civil penalty or one percent per month, or 14 both, interest at the actuarial rate of return may be assessed for each month the 15 contributions are delinquent. If contributions are paid within ninety days of the date the 16 contributions became due, penalty and interest to be paid on delinguent contributions 17 may be waived.

An employer is required to submit contributions for any past eligible employee who was employed after July 1, 1977, for which contributions were not made if the employee would have been eligible to become vested had the employee participated and if the employee elects to join the public employees retirement system. Employer contributions may not be assessed for eligible service that an employee has waived pursuant to subsection 1 of section 54-52-05.

- TheAnnually, the board shall report to each session of the legislative assemblythe employee benefits programs committee the contributions necessary, as determined by the actuarial study, to maintain the fund's actuarial soundness.
- SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is
   amended and reenacted as follows:

54-52-06. Employer's contribution to retirement plan - Report to the employee benefits programs committee.

31 1. Each

1	-	1.	a.	As determined by actuarial valuations, each state governmental unit shall
2				contribute to the defined benefit plan an amount equal to four and
3				twelve-hundredths percent of the monthly salary or wage of a participating
4				member. Governmental unit contributions increase by one percent of the monthly-
5				salary or wage of a participating member beginning with the monthly reporting
6				period of January 2012; with an additional increase of one percent, beginning
7				with the reporting period of January 2013; with an additional increase of one-
8				percent, beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2014; and with 9				an additional increase of one percent, beginning with the monthly reporting-
10				period of January 2024on a level percent of compensation basis for all main
11				system defined benefit retirement plan employees and all defined contribution
12				retirement plan employees sufficient under the actuarial valuation to meet both 13				the normal cost plus the actuarially determined amount required to amortize the 14				unfunded accrued liability of the main plan over a closed period of two hundred 15				forty-six monthsthirty and one-half years, beginning January 1, 2026, and 16				continuing through June 30, 20462056. By November fifteenth of each
17				even-numbered year the board shall publish the contribution rate required under 18				this subsection. The board shall calculate this rate based on the July first 19				actuarial report of that year.
20			b.	Each participating political subdivision shall contribute an amount equal to eight
21				and twelve-hundredths percent of the monthly salary or wage of a participating
22				member.
23			C.	For a participating member who first enrolls after December 31, 2019, the-
24				governmental unita participating political subdivision shall contribute an additional 25				amount equal to one and fourteen-hundredths percent of the monthly salary or 26				wage of the participating member.
27	2	2.	For	those members who elect to exercise their rights under section 54-52-17.14, the 28			emp	ploying governmental unit, or in the case of a member not presently under covered
29			emp	ployment the most recent employing governmental unit, shall pay the associated 30			emp	ployer contribution. If the employee's contribution is paid by the governmental unit
31			und	er subsection 3 of section 54-52-05, the employer unit shall contribute, in addition,

1 an amount equal to the required employee's contribution. Each governmental unit 2 shall pay the contribution monthly, or in the case of an election made pursuant to 3 section 54-52-17.14 a lump sum, into the retirement fund from the governmental unit's 4 funds appropriated for payroll and salary or any other funds available for these 5 purposes. Any governmental unit failing to pay the contributions monthly, or in the 6 case of an election made pursuant to section 54-52-17.14 a lump sum, or failing to 7 otherwise comply with the board's established wage reporting or payroll reporting 8 process requirements, is subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars and, as interest, one 9 percent of the amount due for each month of delay or fraction of a month after the 10 payment became due. In lieu of assessing a civil penalty or one percent per month, or 11 both, interest at the actuarial rate of return may be assessed for each month the 12 contributions are delinquent. If contributions are paid within ninety days of the date the 13 contributions became due, penalty and interest to be paid on delinguent contributions 14 may be waived.

An employer is required to submit contributions for any past eligible employee who was employed after July 1, 1977, for which contributions were not made if the employee would have been eligible to become vested had the employee participated and if the employee elects to join the public employees retirement system. Employer
 contributions may not be assessed for eligible service that an employee has waived pursuant to subsection 1 of section 54-52-05.

Annually, the board shall report to the employee benefits programs committee the contributions necessary, as determined by the actuarial study, to maintain the fund's actuarial soundness.

SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52-14.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is
 amended and reenacted as follows:

26 54-52-14.3. Public employee retirement funds - Use and investment.

Any provision of law relating to the use and investment of public employee retirement funds must be deemed a part of the employment contracts of the employees participating in any public employee retirement system. All moneys from any source paid into any public employee retirement system fund created by the laws of this state must be used and invested only for the

- 1 exclusive benefit of the members, retirees, and beneficiaries of that the retirement system,
- 2 including the payment of system administrative costs.

3 SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 54-52-17.2 of the 4 North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 5 PursuantSubject to section 54-52-02.15 and pursuant to rules adopted by the b. 6 board, an employee who has service credit in the system and in any of the plans 7 described in paragraphs 1 and 2 of subdivision a is entitled to benefits under this 8 chapter. The benefits of a temporary employee employed after July 31, 2015, 9 must be calculated using the benefit formula in section 54-52-17. A permanent 10 employee or a temporary employee employed before August 1, 2015, may elect 11 to have benefits calculated using the benefit formula in section 54-52-17 under 12 either of the following methods:
- 13 (1) The final average salary as calculated in section 54-52-17. If the 14 participating member has worked for less than thirty-six months at 15 retirement, the final average salary is the average salary for the total months 16 of employment.
- 17 (2) The final average salary as calculated in section 54-52-17 for employment 18 with any of the three eligible employers under this subdivision, with service 19 credit not to exceed one month in any month when combined with the 20 service credit earned in the alternate retirement system.
- SECTION 13. Section 54-52.2-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

23 54-52.2-09. Employer match for members of defined contribution retirement plan.

24 An employee who first participated in the defined contribution retirement plan under chapter

25 54-52.6 after December 31, 2024, who elects to contribute less than the optional three percent

- 26 of wages or salary under subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 54-52.6-09, who participates
- 27 in the deferred compensation program under this chapter, qualifies for employer matching of
- 28 contributions made under this section. The employee may elect to contribute an amount of
- 29 wages or salary which does not exceed any remaining balance of the optional three percent
- 30 contribution and the employer shall match this contribution. This section does not limit the ability

- 1 of an employee to contribute unmatched wages or salary under this chapter, subject to federal
- 2 contribution limitations.

22		pursuant to rules adopted by the board.
23	SEC	CTION 15. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
24	amende	d and reenacted as follows:
25	54-5	52.6-02. Election through December 31, 2024.
26	1.	The board shall provide an opportunity for each eligible employee who is a member of 27		the public employees retirement system on September 30, 2001, and who has not
28		made a written election under this section to transfer to the defined contribution
29		retirement plan before October 1, 2001, to elect in writing to terminate membership in 30		the public employees retirement system and elect to become a participating member
31		under this chapter. Except as provided in section 54-52.6-03, an election made by an

1 eligible employee under this section is irrevocable. The board shall accept written 2 elections under this section from eligible employees during the period beginning on 3 July 1, 1999, and ending 12:01 a.m. December 14, 2001. An eligible employee who 4 does not make a written election or who does not file the election during the period 5 specified in this section continues to be a member of the public employees retirement 6 system. An eligible employee who makes and files a written election under this section 7 ceases to be a member of the public employees retirement system effective twelve 8 midnight December 31, 2001; becomes a participating member in the defined 9 contribution retirement plan under this chapter effective 12:01 a.m. January 1, 2002; 10 and waives all of that person's rights to a pension, annuity, retirement allowance, 11 insurance benefit, or any other benefit under the public employees retirement system 12 effective December 31, 2001. This section does not affect a person's an individual's 13 right to health benefits or retiree health benefits under chapter 54-52.1. An eligible 14 employee who is first employed and entered upon the payroll of that person's 15 employer after September 30, 2001, and before January 1, 2025, may make an 16 election to participate in the defined contribution retirement plan established under this 17 chapter at any time during the first six months after the date of employment. If the 18 board, in its sole discretion, determines that the employee was not adequately notified 19 of the employee's option to participate in the defined contribution retirement plan, the 20 board may provide the employee a reasonable time within which to make that election. 21 which may extend beyond the original six-month decision window.

22 If an individual who is a deferred member of the public employees retirement system 2. 23 on September 30, 2001, is re-employed before January 1, 2025, and by virtue of that 24 employment is again eligible for membership in the public employees retirement 25 system under chapter 54-52, the individual may elect in writing to remain a member of 26 the public employees retirement system or if eligible to participate in the defined 27 contribution retirement plan established under this chapter to terminate membership in 28 the public employees retirement system and become a participating member in the 29 defined contribution retirement plan established under this chapter. An election made 30 by a deferred member under this section is irrevocable. The board shall accept written 31 elections under this section from a deferred member during the period beginning on

1 the date of the individual's re-employment and ending upon the expiration of six 2 months after the date of that re-employment. If the board, in its sole discretion, 3 determines that the employee was not adequately notified of the employee's option to 4 participate in the defined contribution retirement plan, the board may provide the 5 employee a reasonable time within which to make that election, which may extend 6 beyond the original six-month decision window. A deferred member who makes and 7 files a written election to remain a member of the public employees retirement system 8 retains all rights and is subject to all conditions as a member of that retirement system. 9 A deferred member who does not make a written election or who does not file the 10 election during the period specified in this section continues to be a member of the 11 public employees retirement system. A deferred member who makes and files a 12 written election to terminate membership in the public employees retirement system 13 ceases to be a member of the public employees retirement system effective on the 14 last day of the payroll period that includes the date of the election; becomes a 15 participating member in the defined contribution retirement plan under this chapter 16 effective the first day of the payroll immediately following the date of the election; and 17 waives all of that person's rights to a pension, an annuity, a retirement allowance, 18 insurance benefit, or any other benefit under the public employees retirement system 19 effective the last day of the payroll that includes the date of the election. This section 20 does not affect any right to health benefits or retiree health benefits to which the 21 deferred member may otherwise be entitled.

22 An eligible employee who elects under this section to participate in the retirement plan 3. 23 established under this chapter must remain a participant even if that employee returns 24 to the classified service or becomes employed by a political subdivision that 25 participates in the public employees retirement system. The contribution amount must 26 be as provided in this chapter, regardless of the position in which the employee is 27 employed. Notwithstanding the irrevocability provisions of this chapter, if a member 28 who elects to participate in the retirement plan established under this chapter 29 becomes a supreme or district court judge, becomes a member of the highway patrol, 30 becomes employed in a position subject to teachers' fund for retirement membership, 31 or becomes an employee of the board of higher education or state institution under the 1 jurisdiction of the board of higher education who is eligible to participate in an 2 alternative retirement program established under subsection 6 of section 15-10-17, the 3 member's status as a member of the defined contribution retirement plan is 4 suspended, and the member becomes a new member of the retirement plan for which 5 that member's new position is eligible. The member's account balance remains in the 6 defined contribution retirement plan, but no new contributions may be made to that 7 account. The member's service credit and salary history that were forfeited as a result 8 of the member's transfer to the defined contribution retirement plan remain forfeited, 9 and service credit accumulation in the new retirement plan begins from the first day of 10 employment in the new position. If the member later returns to employment that is 11 eligible for the defined contribution retirement plan, the member's suspension must be 12 terminated, the member again becomes a member of the defined contribution 13 retirement plan, and the member's account resumes accepting contributions. At the 14 member's option, and pursuant to rules adopted by the board, the member may 15 transfer any available balance as determined by the provisions of the alternate 16 retirement plan into the member's account under this chapter.

- After consultation with its actuary, the board shall determine the method by which a participating member or deferred member may make a written election under this section. If the participating member or deferred member is married at the time of the election, the election is not effective unless the election is signed by the individual's spouse. However, the board may waive this requirement if the spouse's signature cannot be obtained because of extenuating circumstances.
- 5. If the board receives notification from the internal revenue service that this section or any portion of this section will cause the public employees retirement system or the retirement plan established under this chapter to be disqualified for tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code, then the portion that will cause the disqualification does not apply.
- A participating member under this section who becomes a temporary employee may still participate in the defined contribution retirement plan upon filing an election with the board within one hundred eighty days of transferring to temporary employee

- status. The participating member may not become a member of the defined benefit plan as a temporary employee.
- 3 а. The temporary employee electing to participate in the defined contribution 4 retirement plan shall pay monthly to the fund an amount equal to eight and twelve-5 hundredths percent times the temporary employee's present monthly salary. The 6 amount required to be paid by a temporary employee increases by two percent 7 times the temporary employee's present monthly salary beginning with the 8 monthly reporting period of January 2012, and with an additional increase of two-9 percent, beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2013, and with 10 an additional increase of two percent, beginning with the monthly reporting period-11 of January 2014. The temporary employee shall also pay the required monthly-12 contribution to the retiree health benefit fund established under section-13 54-52.1-03.2. This contribution must be recorded as a member contribution 14 pursuant to section 54-52.1-03.2 into the plan as provided under section 15 54-52.6-09.6.
- 16 b. An employer may not pay the temporary employee's contributions.
- A temporary employee may continue to participate as a temporary employee until termination of employment or reclassification of the temporary employee as a permanent employee.
- 20 7. A former participating member under this section who has accepted a retirement 21 distribution pursuant to section 54-52.6-13 and who subsequently becomes employed 22 by an entity different from the employer with which the member was employed at the 23 time the member retired but which does participate in any state-sponsored retirement 24 plan may, before re-enrolling in the defined contribution retirement plan, elect to 25 permanently waive future participation in the defined contribution retirement plan, 26 whatever plan in which the new employing entity participates, and the retiree health 27 program and maintain that member's retirement status. Neither the member nor the 28 employer are required to make any future retirement contributions on behalf of that 29 employee.
- 30 8. After December 31, 2024, an eligible employee is no longer allowed to elect 31 participation under this section.

1 SECTION 16. Section 54-52.6-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and

2 enacted as follows:

20		leas	t eighteen years of age.
21	2.	The	board shall provide a three-month election period, from January 1, 2025, through
22		Mar	ch 31, 2025, for an eligible employee to transfer to the defined contribution plan
23		unde	er this chapter pursuant to the rules and policies adopted by the board.
24		a.	An election under this section made by a member of the public employees
25			retirement system under chapter 54-52 to transfer to the defined contribution
26			retirement plan under this chapter is irrevocable.
27		b.	For an eligible employee who elects to transfer from the public employees
28			retirement system under chapter 54-52 to the defined contribution retirement plan
29			under this chapter, the board shall transfer a lump sum amount from the public
30			employees retirement system fund to the member's account in the defined
31			contribution retirement plan under this chapter. However, if the eligible employee

1			terminates employment before receiving the lump sum transfer under this
2			section, the election made is ineffective and the eligible employee remains a
3			member of the public employees retirement system under chapter 54-52 and
4			retains all the rights and privileges under that chapter.
5		C.	The board shall calculate the lump sum amount to be transferred based on the 6			actuarial present value of the eligible employee's accumulated benefit obligation
7			under the public employees retirement system based on the assumption the 8			eligible employee will retire under the earlier applicable normal retirement age,
9			plus interest from January 1, 2025, to the date of transfer, at the rate of one-half
10			of one percent less than the actuarial interest assumption at the time of the 15	C.	For membersa participating member first enrolled after December 31, 2019, the 16		employer contribution includes an additional increase of one and fourteen-

17		hundredths percent.
18	d.	If the employee's contribution is paid by the employer under subsection 3, the
19		employer shall contribute, in addition, an amount equal to the required
20		employee's contribution. Monthly, the employer shall pay such contribution into 21		the participating member's account from the employer's funds appropriated for 22		payroll and salary or any other funds available for such purposes.
23	e.	If the employer fails to pay the contributions monthly, or fails to otherwise comply
24		with the board's established wage reporting or payroll reporting process
25		requirements, the employer is subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars and, as 26		interest, one percent of the amount due for each month of delay or fraction of a
27		month after the payment became due. In lieu of assessing a civil penalty or one
28		percent per month, or both, interest at the actuarial rate of return may be 29		assessed for each month the contributions are delinquent. If contributions are 30		paid within ninety days of the date the contributions became due, penalty and
31		interest to be paid on delinquent contributions may be waived.

1 Each employer, at its option, may pay the employee contributions required by this 3. 2 section for all compensation earned after December 31, 1999. The amount paid must 3 be paid by the employer in lieu of contributions by the employee. If the employer 4 decides not to pay the contributions, the amount that would have been paid will 5 continue to be deducted from the employee's compensation. If contributions are paid 6 by the employer, they must be treated as employer contributions in determining tax 7 treatment under this code and the federal Internal Revenue Code. Contributions paid 8 by the employer may not be included as gross income of the employee in determining 9 tax treatment under this code and the federal Internal Revenue Code until they are 10 distributed or made available. The employer shall pay these employee contributions 11 from the same source of funds used in paying compensation to the employee. The 12 employer shall pay these contributions by effecting an equal cash reduction in the 13 gross salary of the employee or by an offset against future salary increases or by a 14 combination of a reduction in gross salary and offset against future salary increases. 15 Employee contributions paid by the employer must be treated for the purposes of this 16 chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as employee contributions made 17 before the date on which employee contributions were assumed by the employer. An 18 employer shall exercise its option under this subsection by reporting its choice to the 19 board in writing.

SECTION 23. Section 54-52.6-09.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
 enacted as follows:

22 54-52.6-09.5. Employer contribution for defined benefit plan.

23 In addition to the employer contribution under section 54-52.6-09, a state employer shall 24 contribute to the defined benefit retirement plan under chapter 54-52, an amount equal to the 25 contribution rate calculated under section 54-52-06 less the amount of the required employer

26 contribution under sections 54-52.2-09 and 54-52.6-09. If a state employer uses federal funds

27 to pay any or all of an employee's wages, the employer shall use state funds to pay this 28 additional contribution.

SECTION 24. Section 54-52.6-09.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
 enacted as follows:

23.0280.05023

1	54-52.6-09.6. Participation by temporary employees.
2	A temporary employee may elect, within one hundred eighty days of beginning employment,
3	to participate in the defined contribution retirement plan under this chapter. Monthly, the
4	temporary employee shall contribute an amount equal to nine and twenty-six hundredths
5	percent times the temporary employee's present monthly salary, and may elect to contribute up
6	to an additional six percent. An employer may not pay the temporary employee's contribution. A
7	temporary employee may continue to participate as a temporary employee until termination of 8	employment or reclassification of the temporary employee as a permanent employee.
9	SECTION 25. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is
10	amended and reenacted as follows:
11	54-52.6-10. Vesting.
12	1. A participating member is immediately one hundred percent vested in that member's
13	contributions made to that member's account under this chapter. A participating 14	member vests in the employer contributions made on that member's behalf to an 15	account under this chapter according to the following schedule:
16	1.a. Upon completion of two years of service, fifty percent.
17	2.b. Upon completion of three years of service, seventy-five percent.
18	3. c. Upon completion of four years of service, one hundred percent.
19	2. A participating member also becomes one hundred percent vested in the employer
20	contributions upon reaching age sixty-five. A participating member who was a member
21	or deferred member of the public employees retirement system under chapter 54-52
22	who makes an election to participate in the defined contribution retirement plan
23	pursuant to this chapterunder section 54-52.6-02 or 54-52.6-02.2 must be credited
24	with the years of service accrued under the public employees retirement system on 25	the effective date of participation in the defined contribution retirement plan for the 26	purpose of meeting vesting requirements for benefits under this section. Any forfeiture
27	as a result of the failure of a participating member to vest in the employer contribution
28	must be deposited in the administrative expenses account.
29	SECTION 26. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30	amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-52.6-13. Distributions.

- A participating member is eligible to receive distribution of that person's individual's accumulated balance in the plan upon becoming a former participating member.
- 4 2. Upon the death of a participating member or former participating member, the board 5 shall pay the accumulated account balance of that deceased participant to the 6 deceased participant's refund beneficiary, if any, as provided in this subsection. If the 7 deceased participant designated an alternate refund beneficiary with the surviving 8 spouse's written consent, the board shall distribute the accumulated balance to the 9 named beneficiary. If the deceased participant named more than one primary 10 beneficiary with the surviving spouse's written consent, the board shall pay the 11 accumulated account balance to the named primary beneficiaries in the percentages 12 designated by the deceased participant or, if the deceased participant had not 13 designated a percentage for the beneficiaries, in equal percentages. If one or more of 14 the primary beneficiaries has predeceased the deceased participant, the board shall 15 pay the predeceased beneficiary's share to the remaining primary beneficiaries. If any 16 beneficiary survives the deceased participant, yet dies before distribution of the 17 beneficiary's share, the beneficiary must be treated as if the beneficiary predeceased 18 the deceased participant. If there is no remaining primary beneficiary, the board shall 19 pay the accumulated account balance of that deceased participant to the contingent 20 beneficiaries in the same manner. If there is no remaining designated beneficiary, the 21 board shall pay the accumulated account balance of that deceased participant to the 22 deceased participant's estate. If the deceased participant had not designated an 23 alternate refund beneficiary or the surviving spouse is the refund beneficiary, the 24 surviving spouse of the deceased participant may select a form of payment as 25 provided in subdivision d of subsection 3.
- 26 3. a. A former participating member may elect one or a combination of several of the 27 following methods of distribution of the accumulated balance:
- 28

31

- a. (1) A lump sum distribution to the recipient.
- 29b. (2)A lump sum direct rollover to another qualified plan, to the extent allowed by30federal law.
  - e. (3) Periodic distributions, including annuities, as authorized by the board.
