   (1) The true name of the organization using the name;
   (2) The first name and surname of each individual using the business name; or
   (3) The surname of each individual, repeating a surname if more than one owner has the same surname.
   b. A name assumed under paragraph 3 or a name of an organization or association not otherwise registered with the secretary of state is a trade name if a license or permit to conduct business or operations is required by this state.
2. A person or organization that has registered a trade name under this section may institute a civil suit prohibiting any other person from using the name.
3. This chapter does not prohibit any person engaged in business under a trade name before July 1, 1959, from continuing business under that name.
4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual or organization may register as a trade name under section 47-25-04 any name listed in paragraph 1, 2, or 3 of subdivision a of subsection 1.

47-25-02. Trade name - Registration - Statement - Contents.
A person or organization may not engage in business in this state under a trade name until the trade name is registered with the secretary of state. This section does not apply to partnerships that have filed a fictitious name certificate as provided under chapter 45-11. The trade name registration must be a statement executed by the owner upon forms prescribed by the secretary of state, setting forth:
1. The trade name to be registered;
2. The name and address of the owner of the business, and if a corporation, limited liability company, or other organization, the state or country of incorporation or organization;

Any trade name and its registration is assignable with the goodwill of the business in which the trade name is used. Assignment must be made by the assignor on forms prescribed by the secretary of state setting forth the trade name, the names and addresses of each assignee, and the nature of the business. The assignment must be filed by the secretary of state who, upon recording of the assignment, shall issue in the name of the assignee a new certificate for the remainder of the term of the registration or of the last renewal.

A registrant must notify the secretary of state in writing when effecting a change of address. A corporate annual report filed by the secretary of state that reflects a change of address of the principal place of business of a registrant may serve as such notice.

A registrant may submit an amendment to a trade name registration on a form prescribed by the secretary of state to show any change in the nature of the business or in the purpose of the registration.
