Minutes:

Representatives Aarsvold, Boehm, Gulleason, Martinson, Monson, Wald, Wentz.

Merl Paaverud: Interim Superintendent of the Historical Society of ND. See attached.

Representative Wentz: Question on the 1,394,844 that is the total recommendation funding, but is that total for the Lewis and Clark enhancements? Do you have a total of general fund dollars for the other adjustments.

Merl Paaverud: Yes to the first question and we have 150,00 in capital funds. On page 14 you will find a break down on the Lewis and Clark planning.

Greg Hennessy: (1835) Chairman of the Friends of Fort Union, Fort Buford. See attached.

Marvin Kaiser: (2586) Board Member for the State of inflation catch up as well as support Historical Society. This agency is in need. We know this interest is real and people are coming.

John Von Rueden: Vice President of the State Historical Society. We are one of 50 accredited museums by the American Association of Museums. Things need to be maintained and this is expensive. ND has much history. We want to go forward in offense. Give us the tools and we'll finish the job.

Kristi Frieze: (3390) Executive Director of the Lewis and Clark Center in Washburn, ND. The State Historical Society helps us out a lot. With the construction going on they have come to help store our great collection. They are always there to help.

Representative Wald: (3610) Your general funds money is increasing 267,000 , and a dramatic increase in federal funds from 1.4 to 5.2 million. Have those funds been appropriated in Washington?

Merl Paaverud: Yes, they have been appropriated. We just need your approval to go ahead and except that money.

Representative Wald: What is the nature of the special funds of 286,704. If we found the funds which is the number one .

Merl Paaverud: That would be the money for Williston that was raised in that area to provide the match for the key money. We always have and must start with operating. That is something we must have to keep the sights open, so we can do the rest of the capital improvements and development.

Representative Wald: What kind of a plan do you have to work together with Parks and Rec. and tourism? What kind of interaction do you have with these agencies to avoid duplication overlapping.

Merl Paaverud: State Parks has been a long time partner in providing the recreation part of the Historic tours throughout ND. Tourism is there to promote everything we do. I don't see much overlap but cooperation.

Minutes:

Representatives Aarsvold, Boehm, Gulleeson, Martinson, Monson, Wald, Wentz.

Representative Gulleeson: See amendment attached. This biennium the request was 56 positions, they are currently at 54, so that is an increase of 2. There were no increases or changes between the Schafer and Hoeven budgets. The increase in salaries is for one FTE Librarian and one FTE Historic Site Supervisor which would not start until the end of the biennium. This comes under their Lewis and Clark provision. They have a high demand for extended hours and week ends. We approved the FTE Librarian, but not the FTE Historic Site Supervisor. Even though we are not including the one FTE we are leaving the 17,443 to help fill the architecture position.

Representative Gulleeson: Made the motion on the amendment for HB1020.

Representative Martinson: Seconded the motion.

Five yes, 0 no and 2 absent.

Representative Gulleeson: Made the motion to recommend do pass as amended on HB1020.

Minutes:

HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE ACTION ON HB1020.

Rep. Pam Guleson: HB1020 is regarding the expenses of the State Historical Society and we have a set of amendments that .0101. The budget request includes a $535,000 increase in general fund or 3.9% which is directed toward salaries and benefits, maintenance costs and equipment, and utilities of the historical sites. Included also is a $168,000 reduction in operating expenses or 19.2% reduction in anticipation of reduction of federal funds for activities of state historical advisory board and the research relating to the development of the Ft. Buford interpretive center. The request includes a $4.5 million increase in federal and special funds or 274% increase, all of which is directed toward capital improvements, including the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial related capital projects. These capital improvement projects include repairs at Ft. Totten buildings, a confluence interpretive center at Ft. Buford, and Ft. Abercrombie reconstruction.

Budget includes general fund dollars of $1.3 million for initiatives relating to the Lewis and Clark. They are requesting two new FTE's for librarian and a historic site supervisor, the sub committee recommends allowing one FTE for the librarian, put retaining the other dollars that would have been allocated toward the other FTE, which only was $17,000, and it was not to be started until the end of the biennium. That person would not have been added on until the very end, and what we decided to do, is allow those dollars to stay in the budget and allow the Historic society to use those dollars. They have a position for unfilled architect that they have not been able to fill in some time, they just have not been getting any interest in the position, and the salary is a big part of that, so we decided to direct those dollars towards that effort hoping they could fill the architect position. The Lewis and Clark dollars are designated for interpretive signage, public programming and interpretation, and exhibit development and two capital projects which include the Ft. Clark roadway and parking lot improvements and a Ft. Clark Archeology work. And that basically describes the amendments and I would move the amendments for HB1020. Seconded by Rep. Wentz.

Rep. Mike Timm: Any discussion on the amendments?

Rep. Jeff Delzer: Could you give us some enlightenment on what the public programming and interpretation and exhibit development amount to?

Rep. Pam Guleson: In dollars? Response was no. It surrounds the whole idea of developing these projects.

Rep. Rex Byerly: On the construction projects, can you explain the $150,000 in general funds for Ft. Totten when none of the other projects have any general funds associated with them?

Rep. Pam Guleson: I believe that was as they looked at their budget and made some of these repairs throughout determining which projects these will select to repair in the biennium, this was one that they felt they had put off as long as they could. It includes a brick wall that is collapsing that they felt was a safety issue and without making the necessary repairs puts the whole building in jeopardy.

Rep. Rex Byerly: That quite doesn't answer my question, again, none of the rest of the projects required the infusion of any general fund dollars, the Ft. Abercrombie, Ft. Buford, the confluence, only Ft. Totten required general fund dollars and I guess that's my question is that if you take Ft. Abercrombie for instance, are these donated funds? Are they Federal dollars.

Rep. Pam Gulleon: In the case of most of those other projects they have received considerable local fund match dollars and federal dollars to support them, this Ft. Totten one is not a grant initiative, this is just repairs that needed to be taken care of on that property.

Shella, OMB: The $150,000 is a required match from the state, if we don't provide the $150,000 we will not get the $350,000. The $350,000 comes from the federal government.

Rep. James Kerzman: I cannot support these amendments at this time, if we are under budget constraints that we are lead to believe are out there, my priority is human service needs, If we want fluff we do that when there is excess not when there is a shortage.

Rep. Mike Timm: Any other discussion? We were discussing the amendments. We have a motion to amend. All those in favor of adopting these amendments say AYE. Voice vote. Motion passed. Amendments are adopted.

Rep. Eliot Glassheim: Does anybody have any estimate on the possible economic benefits to the state of spending this $1.4 million on Lewis and Clark, are there estimates, or in testimony did they give any estimates of what they anticipate of coming in from the Lewis and Clark initiative.

Rep. Pam Gulleeson: I can't answer that very clearly, they have went through that a number of times and when they brought the Lewis and Clark initiative, they visited about that, but I couldn't quote numbers.

Rep. Janet Wentz: Tourism is a growing industry in this state and it does bring in dollars, I can't give you a specific dollar amount, but we do know that it is one of the growing industries.

Rep. Bob Martinson: There aren't any actual statistics on how many visitors they expect for Lewis and Clark, but the one thing really nice about the historical budget and the park and rec budget is, that those projects are sorely needed, and they will be then in place for many years to come, the repairs and such. When we did a survey on the Lewis and Clark sites and some of these other places, they were really in disrepair and it would have been an embarrassment to have visitors, and they were an embarrassment to our local citizens that go to these sites, my goodness out at Double Ditch, you couldn't even find the place, there weren't any markings or anything, so these are things that are really needed anyway, for the Lewis and Clark bicentennial or not.

Rep. Mike Timm: Any other discussion? I need a motion to adopt the bill. Moved by Rep. Wentz to DO PASS as amended. Seconded by Rep. Wald. Clerk will call the roll. Motion Passes. YES (19) NO (2) . Rep. Gulleeson will carry the bill to the floor.

End of action by the Appropriations Committee on HB1020.

¹ This amendment removes a one FTE historic site supervisor II position included in the Schafer and Hoeven budget recommendations as part of the department's Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Initiative. The Schafer and Hoeven budget recommendations include a general fund appropriation of $17,443 to fund the position for the period July 1, 2002, through December 31, 2002. The funding is transferred from the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial line item to the salaries and wages line item with the intent that the department increase funding available for position No. 52, a historical architect (classified as a historic division director) position which the agency has had difficulty filling.

Minutes:

Senator Nething opened the hearing on HB 1020, State Historical Society.

Merl Paaverud, Interim Superintendent of the State Historical Society, gave an agency overview and explained the General Budget overview (testimony attached).

Senator Nething: Were the adjustments made in the House satisfactory to you?

Merl Paaverud: The Interpret Center for one FTE was left out, this does concern us.

Senator Tallackson: $17,000 was cut; who picks up the balance for this position? Fort Buford?

Merl Paaverud: Local assistance.

Dave Krabbenhoft, OMB, 'The reason it is $17,000, it was for a limited time only and the last six months.

David Borlaus, ND L & C BF, spoke in favor of the bill stating the State Historical Society has many partners. Fort Clark is Lewis & Clark's wake of the expedition and closely tied to 3

Affiliated Tribes. There has been public and private work as well for 1,000 square foot Fort Clark as well as the Interpret Center. I ask for your support of this appropriation.

John VonRueden, Vice-president, State Historical Board, spoke as a Board member, a citizen and for all the volunteers across the state. North Dakota's heritage was found by raising money, from funds, activities and volunteers. Many of the work is free and it is an important party of operations. I ask your support.

With no opposition to the bill, the hearing was closed. Tape 2, Side A, meter 39.1.

3-28-01 Full Committee Action (Tape #1, Side A, Meter # 27.0-33.6)

Senator Nething reopened the hearing on HB1020- State Historical Society.

Senator Andrist, Chair of the Subcommittee, reviewed the bill and the committee's decision. He presented amendment #13020.0202. Discussion.

Senator Andrist moved the adoption of the amendments; seconded by Senator Grindberg.

Discussion; followed by voice vote: 2 no (Senator Schobinger and Senator Tomac). Motion carried.

Discussion; Senator Andrist moved a DO PASS AS AMENDED; seconded by Senator Grindberg. Discussion; call for the vote. Roll Call Vote: 14 yes; 0 no; 0 absent and not voting. Senator Andrist accepted the floor assignment.

Representative Martinson: Will the Senate kindly tell us what you are doing. Senate explains their amendments. Rep Martinson explains some of the whys in what the House did. Senator Andrist talks about the 100,000 for the Lewis and Clark Center at Washburn, and mentions that was also given last year, and the Senate will recede the 30,000. Senate would like to go back on the 17,000. Lets both give this some thought and we will get back. Meeting is adjourned.

Minutes:

Representatives Martinson, Boehm, Gulleson, Senators Andrist, Grindberg, Lindaas.

Representative Martinson: We left on your thoughts on the Lewis and Clark funding. Any more thoughts.

Senator Andrist asks Rep Gulleson to go through a spread sheet she has on funding to the present. There has been about 2.5 million dollars have been directed there since 95, 97. Rep Martinson doesn't think it is a bad idea, but there may be other Lewis and Clark enhancements we may want to look at over the next week, and that maybe other parts of the State could use a little help with some one time marketing effort. We will adjourn the meeting.

Minutes:

Representatives Martinson, Boehm, Gulleeson, Senators Andrist, Grindberg, Lindaas.

Representative Martinson: We have agreed right, that you back off your amendment on the 30,000. We would except your amendment on the FTE. Would someone make that into a motion.

Senator Andrist moves the 30,000 deletion, and/or amend by adding 17,000 to fund the FTE.

Seconded by Rep Boehm. Vote was taken, 0 0 no, 0 absent. Rep Boehm further amends to add 150,000, a 100,000 for Washburn, and 50,000 for Fort Lincoln, grants line item Commerce Department. Seconded by Rep Gulleeson. Discussion from the committee. Senate is unhappy with the motion. Rep Martinson suggests there is a little time to talk about this. There was question as to where the money was going to come from. We can just with draw the motion. Senator Andrist is inclined to with draw the motion and make a different motion, and move to include 100,000 general fund money from the grants line item, the Historical budget for the Lewis and Clark center in Washburn. Rep Martinson thought when we with drew the motion we would take it back to our respective offices and see about it, but I wish you would consider the Fort Abraham Lincoln Foundation for 50,000. Senator Andrist does not agree. Lets just adjourn the meeting and we can visit with our folks. Rep Boehm questions the need. Discussion with the Senate on leadership and the trouble they may be in if we didn't honor terms of the commitment. Rep Martinson feels if that is the way those things run, why are we elected? Could we just adjourn and talk to our respective leaders and meet at another time. The meeting is adjourned.

Representatives Martinson, Boehm, Gulleason, Senators Andrist, Grindberg, Lindaas.

Representative Martinson: I don't want to irritate you, and I say this in all friendliness. Having read the paper this morning about Bismarek being designated as one of the attempts Lewis and Clark spots. People ask when is "THE" celebration. As I ended my term in Tourism, I thought there should be one week end on the Capital grounds where there is a big celebration. I wonder would you guys consider 50,000 grant to a committee in Bismarek to be matched by another 50,000 to plan and put on a hough week end celebration on the capital grounds? Senators resist the idea putting this in the budget, but an excellent promotional item for the Department of Tourism. Rep Martinson asks if they would consider taking 50,000 from the budget and designating that as a match so that we can do it, or think about it over night? It could be done under the Lewis and Clark line item to be granted to the Bismarek CVB (?) Where there is a chamber Lewis and Clark committee to be matched by 50,000 local at least . Than to put on a week end celebration here, as we did on our 100 year state hood. Senator Andrist feels they have that kind of discretion. More committee discussion, and they can not come to an agreement.

Senator Andrist moves to further amend the bill to include 100,000 general fund grant to Lewis and Clark Foundation. Seconded by Senator Grindberg. Any further discussion? Vote is taken, 3 yes, 3 no, 0 absent. Motion fails. Meeting adjourned.

Minutes:

Representatives Wald, Boehm, Gulleson, Senators Andrist, Grindberg, Lindaas.

Representative Wald: The conference committee on HB1020 will come to order. If someone could fill me in on why we are here. Senator Andrist explains we have made one amendment and would like to offer another amendment to increase the appropriation for the Historical Society by 100,000 from the general fund for grant for the Lewis and Clark Foundation, which operates the interpretive center at Washburn. Senator Andrist made motion the Senate recede to increase the general fund of 100,000 for the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center, Lewis and Clark Foundation. Senator Grindberg second the motion. Discussion with committee, that 100,000 was also given last year and what it will be used for. Rep Gulleson says she will not be supporting the motion, because she feels Lewis and Clark needs to be addressed as a package, to make sure everyone is allowed to access dollars. I don't think the 100,000 is fair. Vote is taken, 5 yes, 1 no, 0 absent. Motion carries. Rep Boehm makes a motion to add 25,000 of general fund money to Fort Lincoln. Second by Senator Lindaas. Senator Andrist says he will resist this motion. It was never presented to us as a request in the appropriations committee. The vote was taken 5 yes, 1 no, 0 absent. Motion carries. Joe from LC, questions if they need to act on the previous items or not, because of the new members on the committee? The two previous items that the Senate would recede from its amendment regarding the funding of the Fort Clark roadway project that the House would agree with the Senate change regarding the FTE and the funding for that Lewis and Clark position. Those were voted on previously by the previous members. Senator Andrist makes a motion the Senate recede from its amendments, and the bill be further amended to include Senate changes regarding FTE and 100,000 for Lewis and Clark Foundation. Seconded by Senator Lindaas. Verbal vote taken. Motion is carried. Rep Wald to take to the floor. We are adjourned.

Testimony of Merl Paaverud, Interim Superintendent
State Historical Society of North Dakota

Introduction

Mr. Chairman and members of the Committee, my name is Merl Paaverud and I am the Interim Superintendent of the State Historical Society of North Dakota. I am a native North Dakotan and have worked for the State of North Dakota for the past 17 years. It is my great pleasure to have this opportunity to visit with you about the efforts of the State Historical Society to manage North Dakota historical record and our responsibilities to the people to give us the opportunity to perform this important service.

Agency Overview

The State Historical Society of North Dakota was established in 1895 to serve the needs as a statewide repository and collector of historic sites, artifacts and information. We have dutifully followed our charge over the years to the point where we are now the lead entity for promoting state history, historic preservation, and education. We work with other federal and state agencies, tribal government, the general public, schools, preservation groups and individuals to accomplish our mission. The basic product of our work is improving the understanding and importance of history for our personal lives, our society, and our general well being. We look forward to opportunities to improve the management of the collections, museums and historic sites, preservation of historic property, and the education of individuals related to North Dakota's past

The State Historical Society of North Dakota's mission is to identify, interpret, preserve, and promote North Dakota's heritage. Fifty-four full-time staff members provide services for historic sites, artifacts, documents, museums, exhibits, and education. The agency is a mixture of professional and support staff with varied responsibilities for operating, managing, developing, and promoting various aspects of history. They are dedicated to providing quality services for North Dakota. The Society is responsible for the operation of the North Dakota Heritage Center, the Pembina State Museum, 56 state historic sites, the State Archives and Historical Research Library, and the North Dakota State Historic Preservation Office. We provide interpretive programming for visitor enjoyment and learning opportunities. Over 180 volunteers assist us in providing services to the public at the Heritage Center and state historic sites.

- Over 225,000 people visit our museums and historic sites each year.
- Nearly 6,000 students access the SEND Trunks (Suitcase Exhibits of North Dakota Programs).
- Nearly 25,000 people enjoy interpretive programs at our museums and historic sites.
- Museum staff provided reference services to the state's extensive artifact collection of over 50,000 artifacts and 1.5 million archeological items.
- The State Archives and Historical Research Library staff handled over 25,000 requests in the last two years from family history researchers, historians for use of the government records, manuscripts, oral histories, photographs, and other materials.
- The State Historic Preservation Office receives 30% state funding to match 70% from the federal government to operate a variety of historic preservation programs including:
 - The National Register of Historic Places.
 - Cultural Resource Site files for contractor use.
 - Maintenance of data bases for historic and archeological sites.
 - Administration of the Tax Credits for Rehabilitation and the North Dakota Renaissance Zone credit programs. Since 1978, the federal historic rehabilitation credit program has assisted in the creation of 1046 housing units in 58 projects totaling over $60 million in North Dakota construction activity. The combined total investment for Renaissance Zone rehabilitation projects is $1,320,200. (As municipalities receive approval for Renaissance Zones, historic rehabilitation projects are expected to dramatically increase in the next biennium.)

This biennium, we had the opportunity to visit with communities throughout North Dakota in what we called Community Conversations. These meetings were very important to identify and prioritize what our public was looking for in the way of services from the agency. Just recently this past October, November, and December, we visited the Indian Reservations in the state to ask for their input for services. There were many similar observations and requests to provide more services to the reservations. Two reservations expressed great interest in being involved with the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial celebration.

General Budget Overview

A number of new projects were started during the last biennium including:

- Restoration of an 1870's era officers quarters located on Fort Totten State Historic Site. The building exterior was returned to its original appearance. The interior rooms of the building were restored and prepared for an adaptive use as a historic inn where visitors will be able to stay when they visit the site.
- Inter-agency cooperation was demonstrated when the North Dakota National Guard assisted the State Historical Society by removing an obsolete roadway at Fort Buford State Historic Site. The Guard also constructed a new access road and cull-de-sac at Double Ditch Indian Village State Historic Site.
- Conceptual architectural planning was completed for the proposed Confluence Area Interpretive Center near Fort Buford. This project will combine TEA-21 funding with federal funds and local match dollars. Planning and research also began to restore the field officers quarters on the site.
- Plans were also started for the restoration and development of Fort Abercrombie State Historic site. This involves the rebuilding of the 1930-40's log block house, palisades reconstruction, and restoring the original guardhouse on the site.
- A plan for standardized signage for state historic sites was developed and implemented.
- A structural assessment of the Chateau de Mores Interpretive Center was completed and the main water line for the Chimney Park in Medora was replaced.
- Restoration of the Camp Hancock State Historic Site officer's quarters exterior was completed.
- Fort Clark Trading Post State Historic Site entrance structure was installed, the 1930's era CCC shelter was repaired, and an archeological field school on the site was completed. Interpretive signage is now being developed from the information gathered during the field school program.
- Extraordinary repairs funding was used to replace five roofs on five buildings at Fort Totten and to repaint all buildings at Chateau de Mores State Historic Site.

Optional Adjustments - Operating

Optional adjustments or enhancements to the current society budget were recommended in the Executive Budget in the following areas:

Salaries and Wages:

1. $58,122 - Additional funding for temporary salaries to raise the hourly rate from the current $5.15 to an average of $6.00.
2. $55,270 - Additional funding for permanent salaries to provide equity adjustments for experienced staff below the mid-point of their range. These funds represent approximately 50% of the amount necessary to achieve full equity, based on current ranges.

Operating Expenses:

1. $72,000 - Additional funding to offset increased and on-going maintenance and utilities costs for the historic sites program.
2. $20,000 - Additional funding to maintain the ODIN computer library system which was implemented with support from the state library.

Equipment:

1. $113,500 - Additional funding for historic sites equipment. Upgrades for mowers, tractors, and other equipment that is in excess of ten years old.

Optional Adjustments - Capital Improvements

The Agency executive budget contains recommendations for the following capital improvements at state historic sites totaling.

Capital Improvements:

1. $2,598,160 - Additional authority to allow for the expenditure of federal and other funds for the construction of a Confluence Interpretive Center at the confluence of the Yellowstone and Missouri Rivers at Fort Buford State Historic Site.

2. $945,000 - Additional authority to allow for the expenditure of federal and other funds for the reconstruction of a barracks building at the Fort Buford State Historic Site.
3. $500,000 - Additional general funding of $150,000 and federal authority for $350,000 to allow for the stabilization of a section of building between buildings #11 and #12 and for the completion of renovation of building #4 at the Fort Totten State Historic Site.
4. $480,000 - Additional authority to allow for the expenditure of federal funds for the completion of phases I and II of the master plan for the Fort Abercrombie State Historic Site.
5. $59,365 - Additional general funding for extraordinary repairs at the state historic sites. Extraordinary repairs allow for the general upkeep and repair of the historic sites infrastructure. Current funding is equivalent to less than 2% of the building and infrastructure asset value. Current building inventory asset value is $3,810,350 and infrastructure is valued at $3,162,052.

Optional Adjustments - Lewis and Clark Enhancements

Lewis and Clark:

1. $467,499 - Additional Lewis and Clark funding is recommended as outlined in the Lewis and Clark Planning Report prepared by the Lewis and Clark Advisory Committee dated July 2000. The total funding recommendation is $1,394,844 and includes funding dedicated to Historic Sites infrastructure, exhibit development, public programming and operational enhancements.

Conclusion

Mr. Chairman, this concludes my testimony. I would be happy to answer any questions that you may have.

Archeology and Historic Preservation: By administering a federal historic preservation grant program, the State Historical Society serves as the State Historic Preservation Office and has the responsibility to identify, evaluate and protect historic properties in North Dakota. Services include evaluating architectural and archeological properties, providing assistance to historic property owners, nominating properties to the National Register of Historic Places and State Historic Sites Registry, administering the Preservation Tax Credit Program, reviewing the impact of federally-related projects on historic properties, and providing information about historic preservation and restoration.

Foundation: The State Historical Society of North Dakota (SHSND) Foundation. Tax exempt, 501(c)(3). Dolly Branley, Administrative Director. A private, non profit organization which supports programs and activities of the State Historical Society. All members receive the quarterly publications, North Dakota History and Plains Talk, a 15 percent discount on all gift items at the State historical Society's museum stores, and other benefits. For membership information, call (701) 222-1966, E-mail at hstlfdn@btigate.com, or write SHSND Foundation, P.O. Box 1976, Bismarck, ND 58502.

State Museums: The North Dakota Heritage Center, located on the state capitol grounds off Exit 159 on I-94 in Bismarck, is the headquarters of the State Historical Society and is the largest museum in the state. Admission is free. Open year round, except major holidays. Opened in 1981, it features temporary and permanent exhibits that explore the story of life on the Northern Plains, from prehistory to the present. In a cooperative agreement with the North Dakota Geological Survey, the North Dakota Heritage Center houses the State Fossil Collection. It is also the home of the State Historic Preservation Office and the State Archives & Historical Research Library, where visitors research topics ranging from family roots to Northern Plains history. For more information, call (701) 328-2666.

The Pembina State Museum, located off Exit 215 on I-29 in Pembina, is open year-round, except major holidays. Opened in 1996, it includes a seven-story-high observation tower that offers a bird's-eye view of the Red River Valley and into Canada. The museum interprets 100 million years of regional history, and includes temporary and permanent exhibit galleries. Admission is free; the elevator ride to the observation tower is $2 for adults and 50 cents for children 13-18. Children 12 and under ride free. For more information, call (701) 825-6840.

PROPOSALS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The two-hundredth anniversary of the Lewis and Clark Expedition offers a continuing opportunity for North Dakota to commemorate its history, share its natural beauty, better understand its native peoples, and reinvest in all the resources along the trail.

The following proposals and recommendations illustrate how local private and public organizations as well as local, state, and federal government agencies are gearing up to identify, manage, use and market the state's Lewis and Clark Trail resources for the commemoration and in the years beyond.

STATE AGENCY PROPOSALS

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF NORTH DAKOTA

The Society's approach to continued Lewis and Clark Bicentennial preparations is four-fold: improving historic site infrastructure, creating exhibits, developing public programming and interpretation, and making operating, seasonal, and maintenance enhancements. Following is a brief review of each area in consideration of the 2001-2003 and 2003-2005 biennia.

SAKAKAWEA STATUE

State Historical Society of North Dakota

Sakakawea

Sakakawea has become a recognized name as part of the Lewis and Clark expedition. Although her name is known, only a few facts remain documenting her life and contributions to this voyage. When Lewis and Clark met Sakakawea in 1804 she was a young woman, about sixteen years old, married to the fur trader Toussaint Charbonneau. Sakakawea became a valuable member of the Corps of Discovery, when Lewis and Clark hired Charbonneau as an interpreter to accompany the expedition on their journey west.

On April 7, 1805, carrying her infant son on her back, Sakakawea set out with the Lewis and Clark expedition, providing translation and contacts with the Shoshone living west of the Mandan and Hidatsa. Lewis acknowledged her importance in a journal entry, noting that she was "our only dependence for friendly negotiation with the Snake Indians." Lewis was referring to the Shoshone, who had horses they hoped to acquire for the mountain portage. Her recognition of landmarks in southwestern Montana encouraged the Corps as they made their way through uncharted territory, and Clark realized that Sakakawea and her baby offered another important service. In an entry for October 15, 1805, he wrote "The wife of Shabono [Charbonneau] our interpreter we find reconciles all the Indians as to our friendly intentions. A woman with a party of men is a token of peace."

Sakakawea has been the subject of much debate, from the spelling of her name to the time and place of her death. According to Charbonneau, her Hidatsa name meant "Bird Woman." North Dakota adopted the anglicized spelling for easier pronunciation and call her "Sakakawea." Other common spellings are Saka-wea and Saka-wee. Most scholars, relying on William Clark's writing and other evidence, believe Sakakawea died at Fort Manuel in December 1812, on the Missouri River, just south of the border between North and South Dakota.

Photograph of the three Hidatsa villages at the mouth of the Snake River where Charbonneau and his wife Sakakawea were living when Lewis and Clark arrived in 1804. The Mandan village and Fort Manuel, the first winter quarters of Lewis and Clark and their men were located near the Snake River, now known as the Snake River Indian Village. National Historic Site, near the confluence of the Missouri and Snake Rivers, about 10 miles northwest of the mouth of the Snake River.

Sakakawea, the young wife Charbonneau was born in 1785. William Clark often noted her knowledge of the "Great Plains" and "all the great rivers and landmarks on the river" and her "wonderful knowledge of the country of the Snake River."

Sakakawea, the young wife Charbonneau was born in 1785. William Clark often noted her knowledge of the "Great Plains" and "all the great rivers and landmarks on the river" and her "wonderful knowledge of the country of the Snake River."

The Sakakawea Statue

Renewed interest in the Corps of Discovery came with the celebrations of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in 1904 and the Lewis and Clark centennial in 1905. The North Dakota Federation of Women's Clubs, working with the State Historical Society of North Dakota, initiated a fund-raising campaign in 1906 to erect a statue of Sakakawea near the state capital. Leonard Crumelle, a noted Chicago artist, was chosen as the sculptor. His completed statue of Sakakawea was unveiled at sunset on October 13, 1910. To commemorate the bicentennial of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, a replica of the Sakakawea statue will represent the state of North Dakota in Statuary Hall, Washington, D.C.

Leonard Crumelle, the sculptor of the Sakakawea statue, visited Fort Belknap Indian Reservation home of the Mandan, Hidatsa and Arikara families posed for a photograph with the John Smith statue, about 1907.

Sakakawea

Sakakawea lived with the Hidatsa people in an earthlodge village on the Knife River in North Dakota. She was about sixteen years old when Lewis and Clark arrived at her village in 1804. Sakakawea was married to French trader Toussaint Charbonneau. They traveled with the Lewis and Clark Expedition when Charbonneau was hired as an interpreter. Sakakawea carried her baby on the long journey to the Pacific Ocean and back to the Knife River. The journey took eighteen months. A bronze statue on the North Dakota capitol grounds is a tribute to Sakakawea and her son, Jean Baptiste.

Kids and Critters

Dakota Zoo of Bismarck will provide the live animals. The North Dakota Game and Fish Department will bring the animal hides and furs. And kids of all ages are invited to join in the fun during the annual Kids Night at the Museum Friday, January 7, from 6.30 to 9 p.m. at the North Dakota Heritage Center in Bismarck.

The program, Dakota Tracks, will highlight The First People: North Dakota's Prehistory, a permanent exhibit featured at the Heritage Center. The program is cosponsored by the Dakota Science Center, Grand Forks and the State Historical Society.

Unveiling of State Historical Society's Annual Holiday Tree Kicks Off Holiday Fun

The unveiling of the State Historical Society's annual holiday tree on Thanksgiving Eve marked the beginning of holiday fun at several of the agency's state historic sites and museums throughout North Dakota.

This year's tree is decorated with traditional, ethnic and historical ornaments hand made by schoolchildren and other North Dakotans state-wide. The tree is on display in the lobby at the North Dakota Heritage Center in Bismarck through January 3.

There is no admission fee to see the tree or tour the new Quilt Stories exhibit, or to enjoy the many other fine exhibits and displays at the Heritage Center.

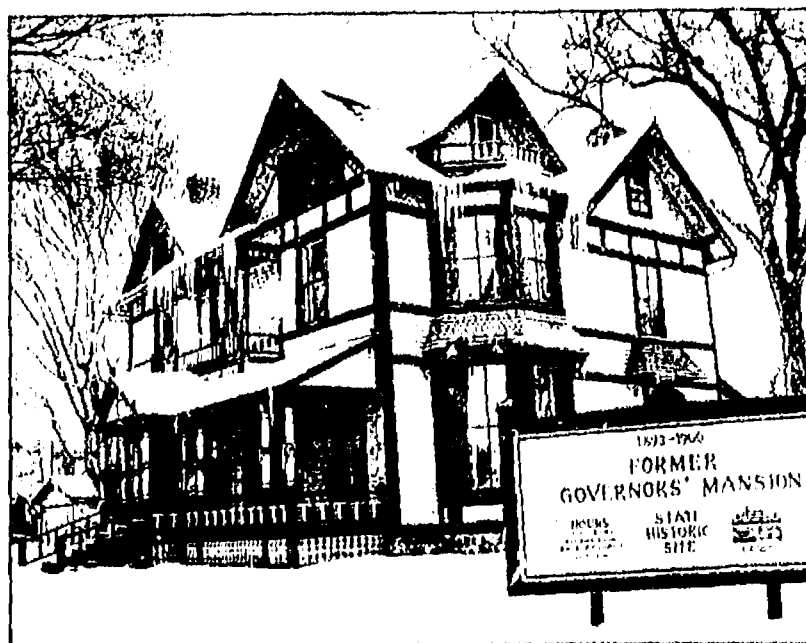

The North Dakota Heritage Center Museum Store is offering great Christmas gifts for every age group this holiday season. Many of the gifts are made by North Dakotans or relate to North Dakota in some way. Members of the State Historical Society of North Dakota Foundation receive a 15 percent discount on all gifts purchased.

Other free events earlier this month included the "Holiday Open House" December 5 at the Former Governors' Mansion State Historic Site in Bismarck; "North Dakota and its Winters" Sunday Afternoon Lecture Series the same day at the Pembina State Museum, featuring master storyteller Ted Stone of Manitoba, Canada; and "Holiday on the Frontier Open House" December 3-5 at the De Mores State Historic Site Interpretive Center, in conjunction with the "Cowboy Christmas" community celebration in Medora.

The Former Governors' Mansion State Historical Site is the perfect holiday setting. Timed in icicles and a layer of pure white snow, it welcomes holiday visitors during the annual open house.

Inside the Former Governors' Mansion visitors can help educate the holiday spirit when walking from room to room viewing decorations. In 1906, Bismarck High School students decorated the mansion's interior.

Wegner Accepts Post at D-Day Museum

Society Superintendent Samuel J. Wegner has accepted a position as vice president and chief operating officer of the National D-Day Museum in New Orleans, Louisiana. He has held the position since September 1, 1998, when he succeeded James E. Sperry, who retired after serving as agency head for 29 years.

As superintendent, Wegner also serves as North Dakota's State Historic Preservation Officer. "I have enjoyed my service as superintendent, and I'm especially proud of our hardworking professional staff and the outstanding work that they do," said Wegner, who will continue to serve as superintendent through January 15.

The State Historical Board has appointed Merl Paaverud as interim superintendent, effective December 15. Paaverud, who will continue as interim until the board hires Wegner's replacement, is the deputy state historic preservation officer. He also served as Fort Totten State Historic Site Supervisor from 1983 to 1987.

Wegner, 48, said he believed his most important accomplishments included developing the State Historical Society's strategic long range plan, and improving communication and advocacy of the Society's programs and services to other state agencies, the Legislative Assembly, and communities throughout North Dakota.

The National D Day Museum opened in June, in conjunction with the 56th anniversary of the World War II D Day landings in France.

State Historical Society Superintendent Samuel J. Wegner to resign on January 15.

The Society's annual holiday tree at the North Dakota Heritage Center in Bismarck was unveiled Thanksgiving Eve, decorated with traditional, ethnic and historical ornaments handmade over the years by North Dakotans state wide. It will be on display through January 2.

The Dr. Albert M. and Evelyn M. Brandt House in Bismarck has been listed in the National Register of Historic Places. Designed by the Minneapolis, Minnesota, architectural firm of McLaren and Larson, and built in 1928, the home is one of the best examples of Tudor Revival architecture in Bismarck. A National Register certificate was presented to the current owners, Dr. Alan and Lana Arrington, at the 2000 Governor's Conference on North Dakota History in October.

Re: Support for HB1020 and State Historical Society

Dear Madam Chairman,

The Friends of Fort Union / Fort Buford, chartered in 1984 and 600 members strong, urges the Committee's support for HB1020 as it provides for Fort Buford S.H.S., the Confluence Visitor Center and the reconstructed 6th Infantry barracks.

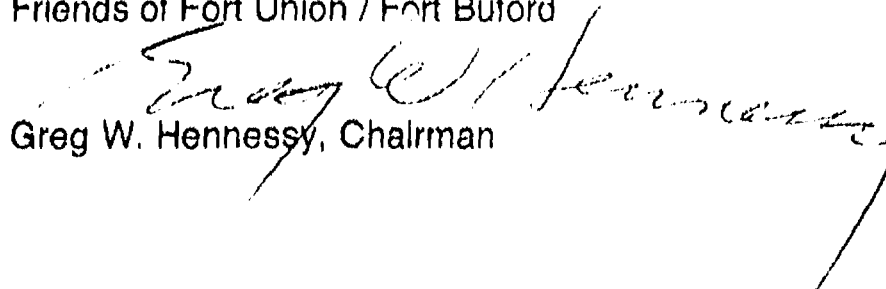

The Friends' local fund drive has reached its goal of raising $252,000.00 in local match money to leverage $1 million in TEA-21 monies in line with an agreement reached by the Friends, DOT Director Moore, Lt. Gov. Myrdal, and Tourism Director Martinson in July 1998 and endorsed by the previous legislature.

Additionally, the Friends have leveraged $1.75 million through Senator Dorgan's support and have a number one-ranked application pending for another $500,000.00 to complete the project, totalling $3.5 million.

Heritage Tourism has educated and paid many multiples to the Williston area in the decade since Fort Union was completed. These present enhancements will create an overnight destination that will pay northwest North Dakota back for the next hundred years after the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial.

Thank you for your consideration and support.

Very sincerely,
Friends of Fort Union / Fort Buford
